 Virginia, 12; St. John's, 0.

Football in the west took a more interesting view after the results of the last Saturday's games. The decisive defeat of the Ames team by the Gophers and the narrowness by which the Iowa team got away with the game with Cornell, tends to encourage the Nebraska spirit and also to cast a gloom upon it. The result of the games between Ames and Minnesota in previous years has been the forecast of the Minnesota and Nebraska score. But this year the Gophers are the strongest they have been for the past three years, and the Aggies and the Cornhuskers have a practically untried team.
 Kansas had all she could do to get away with a victory in the game with Oklahoma, and the men from the baby state have only a mediocre team. Iowa was unable to cross the line of the team from little Cornell, but was saved by the booting of Capt. Hyland, who put the oval across the bars from the twenty-five yard line in the last few minutes of play.
Minnesota-Ames.
 Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 10.—Minnesota, 18; Ames, 0.

 In a game replete with fumbles, the Gophers yesterday defeated Ames on a muddy, slippery field.
 Heavy rain fell throughout the afternoon, hampering the work of both teams, Minneapolis apparently suffering the most.
 No scores were made in the second half, the Ames eleven holding their opponents safe in the latter part of the contest.
 In the first half, the Gophers played the regular team, but in the second, saved the men, putting in several substitutes.
 Johnson, who scored so frequently against Iowa, was not able to get away so often yesterday, the wet field hampering his speed.
 He made one safety and one touchdown during the game, while Pickering plunged through the line twice, each time getting across the line for a touchdown. Farnum was only able to kick one goal out of his three chances. The line-up:
 Minnesota. Ames.

Kansas.
 Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 10.—On a sloppy gridiron Oklahoma University yesterday succeeded in holding the football team of Kansas University to the score of 11 to 0. The game, which was mostly an exhibition of punting, was marked by a large number of penalizations for holding, offside plays, and once Oklahoma was penalized thirty yards for slugging. Johnson and Bond of Kansas played their usual brilliant game, while there were no stars for Oklahoma. The team work of the Oklahomans was the most pronounced feature of the contest.

Iowa.
 Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 10.—Iowa defeated Cornell here in a fierce game on a muddy field, by 3 to 0, the only score being made late in the second half by Right End Hyland, who made a drop kick from the twenty-five-yard line.

 The Hawkeyes had the better of the contest at all stages, three times running the ball to the ten-yard line in the first half, and in the second half Iowa had the ball on Cornell's one-yard line.
 Hanson out-punted the Cornell star, Coppess, with phenomenal kicks, considering the position of the ball.
 Rain fell, and as a result the many line plays were tried, with Cornell attempting the only forward pass of the game.
 Cornell had practically the same team that beat Ames last year, and the officials pronounced the game a great exhibition of early season football.
 Frances C. Gere, '98, entertained the class at breakfast on Alumni Day.
