FIRST RALLY OF YEAR HELD THIS MORNING

will be distributed to the rooters at the beginning of the rally.

Plans for Parade.

Plans for the parade in Omaha were announced yesterday. The Lincoln special train will leave Lincoln at about 8 a. m., the definite time and the road over which it will run not yet being decided. Immediately upon arriving in Omaha the crowd will assemble upon the viaduct on Tenth street. The team will lead in carriages and automobiles and following the players will be the band. The rest of the crowd will follow four abreast. The line of march will be up Tenth street to Farnum and thence west on Farnum to the Henshaw hotel, (which is the Nebraska headquarters.

Omaha is making big preparations for the game and expects to give her visitors an unusually good time. Stores, hotels, and public buildings are already decorated with the Nebraska and Minnesota colors in honor of the occasion. Omaha gets a big game only once a year, and she plans to show that she appreciates the visit of the college people.

Game at 3 p. m.

The game will be called at the Vinton street park promptly at 3 p. m. It is expected that a monster crowd will attend and preparations have been made for caring for thousands of spectators.

The rooters will be in a section by themselves on the west side of the field. Omaha people and the excursionists from Minnesota will have the east side of the stands. It is possible that a Nebraska glee club may be arranged to sing at the game. During the intermission between halves the Nebraska rooters will go out upon the field for the snake-dance, rendered so successfully by Ames at the Omaha game last year. The rooters will range themselves four abreast behind the band and will march around the field in the serpentine movement of the old-time snake-dance.

CHICAGO SECRET WORK; STAGG BARS WATCHERS

WINDOWS OVERLOOKING FIELD CLEARED BY STUDENTS.

BADGER STUDENTS REGISTER KICK

Protest Against Faculty Ruling Prohibiting Quarterback Moll From Participation in Game.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Secret practice was started yesterday on Marshall field and the gates were barred tight all afternoon, and even windows of university buildings overlooking the gridiron were cleared of students who might desire to catch a glimpse of the latest Maroon plays for the Illinois and future games.

It was the most exclusive practice so far this year, and also was the longest and hardest. Stagg seized the day as a supreme opportunity for giving a real workout.

The order of events was reversed for the day. Instead of ending the afternoon with a scrimmage, Coach Stagg sent the varsity and freshmen against each other at the start. It gave him a chance to see his charges at their best advantage, since they were favored with daylight.

The Maroons took advantage of the dusk and subsequent darkness and ran through their full list of trick plays. Four new ones, designed with the Illinois game especially in view, were unmasked after the air became too black for anybody to get any idea of what they were like.

When the Maroons start against the Illinois, Captain Page is expected to treat the rooters to the biggest surprise in years, in the form of ultra-modern football formations, as is yet to be seen on Marshall field.

The freshmen got an idea of what Illinois may expect when the regulars completely deceived them, time and again and scored three touchdowns in thirty minutes. It was pleasing to Coach Stagg to see his pupils tear loose from the old-style football.

"Considering that we used Menaul, Davenport and Sampson, three substitutes, in the back field," said Stagg. "I consider the work of the varsity in making three touchdowns satisfactory. The freshmen put over one on an intercepted forward pass, but that may happen any time, and it came entirely by luck."

Michigan.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 13.—In the absence of Coach Yost, who was attending the Detroit-Pittsburg game, Trainer Fitzpatrick and Assistant Coach Redden put the varsity through a stiff practice today, with the line-up practically the same as on Monday. Pattengill again was at quarter, giving rise to the rumor that Yost will use Wasmund at half back on Saturday in case Freney is not allowed to play. Freney and Lawton continue to star in the back field, dividing the bulk of the offensive work, while Allerdice is given little to do in the way of advancing the ball. The team which meets Ohio State on Saturday is likely to be slightly crippled, as Smith, right guard, will be kept out by an injury. The training table started today with the entire varsity squad present.

Illinois.

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 13.—Illinois, slowly rallying from the Kentucky rout, had a gingery practice today, with Lowenthal, Fairweather and Pettigrew assisting Hall and Lindgren.

Lowenthal worked for an hour with the forwards. The former head coach put lots of snap into the squad. Following a near scrimmage aimed to stiffen the defense, there was a long signal drill. The bracing air gave the players new life. Never before has there been such great weather previous to the Chicago game. Only bad luck, which has resulted in so many cripples, will prevent the Illinois from appearing on Marshall field in the best physical condition in history.

Seller worked at quarter back and is slated to play Saturday. Roberts, Mountjoy, and Bernstein were accorded first chance in signal drill, which made them look like the first set of backs for Saturday, with Watson, Gumm, and Brown for second choice. Merriman was practiced at quarter and will be sub to Seller. Seller showed up in good style in punting and in drop kicking and Butzer worked at place kicking.

Coy Joins Squad in Practice.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 13.—Yale's practice today consisted of half an hour's driving drill, the longest ordered for the week. Long and heavy daily work has been ordered till Friday before the West Point game.

Andrus tried scrimmaging for the first time this year and played right tackle for twenty-five minutes. He will be in the West Point contest Saturday. All changes ordered yesterday still are in effect. Head Coach Jones says it will be continued till the army match. Capt. Coy was at full back in all the signal drill and when the varsity lined up against the scrubs he was in the same position. He simply lifted a punt to Johnson of the second team. The quarterback was tackled so hard by Kilpatrick that he dropped the ball and Kilpatrick nabbed it right under the scrubs' goal. Coy did not stay in the scrimmaging and was replaced by Holt. The latter pushed through for the only score of the day. Kilpatrick seized another fumble punt and took the ball to the scrubs' ten yard line, but the regulars fumbled.

Coy practiced drop kicking and booted one between the posts from the fifty yard line. Tony Haines of Chicago was injured so badly last week that he will be out of the game for the season. Jim Quill and Guy Hutchinson joined the coaches.

Badger Students Up in Arms.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 13.—Wisconsin students are up in arms over the suspension by the discipline committee of "Keckie" Moll, quarter back, for an alleged participation in a hazing episode at the beginning of the college year and a determined effort is being made to have him reinstated. The faculty does not meet until Nov. 1, and in case he is reinstated he will be absent from the Indiana and Northwestern games.

A petition signed by hundreds of students was circulated today and will be presented to President Van Hise, asking immediate consideration of the case by the faculty, but little hope is held out for the quarter back, as the faculty usually approves the action of the committee. The loss of Moll is a hard blow to Wisconsin and according to Coach Barry will necessitate an entire rearrangement of plan of campaign for the season.

Fucik was switched from half back to quarter today and the general impression is that he will run the team in the Indiana game. Anderson took Fucik's place at half and ran through signal drill, Barry holding off on the scrimmage until Fucik had learned the plays. The coach called the men together in the gymnasium tonight and lectured for over two hours on Indiana's formations.

DEAN W. G. HASTINGS CONVOCATION SPEAKER

LAW COLLEGE HEAD TELLS OF WORK OF CONFERENCE.

LAIID THE PLANS FOR LAW UNIVERSITY

Nebraska Men Great Impressed With the Possibilities of Developing a Powerful Influence of Good Through Conference.

To an occasional observer the convocation Tuesday looked like a convocation of law students, or very nearly so. As usual they turned out in force when a member of the law faculty was to speak.

Dean W. G. Hastings of the College of Law made the address, his subject being "The Detroit Conference for Uniform Laws." He said:

"Such a conference is an indication of helpful, hopeful enterprise. As showing a present tendency, and in effecting future legislation, much may be expected from such a meeting. I was honored by Gov. Shallenberger in receiving the appointment as the Nebraska representative to that conference.

"I was much impressed upon reaching a comprehension of what influence such a conference might bring about. Undoubtedly it could be made a most powerful instrumentality in molding legislation. It can do nothing of itself, but it can advocate and urge with great effect. If we are to have legislation which will be of real universal benefit it must come from some such source. Otherwise the nonuniformity will continue.

No Uniformity.
 "Legislation in the past has been of a most un-uniform type, and has been the cause of much trouble which no longer needs to exist.

"I was impressed with the type of men present. They were finely educated men, fully competent to draft legislation. The plan was worked out carefully by experts and drafts of possible laws made seeking the desired uniformity. They seek to make every bill agree with others of their kind. This will promote the social interests. Property, for buyer and seller, is to be the subject of especial attention and constituted one of the big propositions there considered. The idea is valuable and peaceable.

"Another great proposition was to make stocks of corporations an absolutely negotiable instrument. Enormous proportions of the wealth of the country is held by the corporations. The Nebraska representatives and a few others did not think the public at large needed access to corporation stocks. The conference, however, finally accepted the proposition by one vote, that of the attorney general of Wyoming.

"Another proposition considered but not accepted was a uniform marriage act, seeking to do away with the present common law marriage. This would avoid irregularities existing now. In the conference, however, the scheme failed to be accepted."
