SKETCHES OF THE MEN WHO WON IN DEBATES

SIXTEEN CHOSEN FOR UNIVERSITY DEBATING SQUAD.

ALL MEN ARE EXPERIENCED SPEAKERS

Strong List of High School and University Honors Enumerated for Leading Debaters of the State School.

The sixteen men who were selected to become members of the university debating squad from which six will be picked to represent Nebraska in intercollegiate debate have had enviable records as public speakers. Not a man on the squad has not won honors in debate. Following are personal sketches of each of the chosen men:

Ben M. Cherrington, 1911, is a graduate of Omaha high school. He was Decoration day orator and he represented the school two years in intercollegiate debate. While director of athletics at Wesleyan University in 1905 he represented Wesleyan in intercollegiate debating and won the Durham prize for debate. Last year he taught at the Omaha high school, his work including the teaching of argumentation and debate. He is a Phi Kappa Psi.

Clarence L. Clark, 1912, is a graduate of the Lincoln high school. He was a member of the Lincoln team which defeated Omaha and of the team which defeated Beatrice. In 1908 he won the debate championship of the school. Last year he was a member of the freshman team which won the debate championship of the university by defeating both the sophomore and the senior team.

Stuart P. Dobbs, 1909, Law 1911, represented the Beatrice high school in debate for three years, won the Crabtree-Cutter debating prize and was class orator. In the university he won Phi Beta Kappa honors last year, has been managing editor of the Cornhusker and news editor of the Daily Nebraskan. Last year he represented the university in the debate with the University of Wisconsin at Madison. He is a member of the Innocents and of Phi Alpha Tau and Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary debating fraternity.

Calvin A. Emery, Law 1911, lives at Lincoln, but was graduated from the Beatrice high school. He was class orator; won the Crabtree-Cutter debate prize, and represented Beatrice two years in debate with Omaha, once with Lincoln, and once with Tecumseh. This is his first year on the intercollegiate debating squad.

Horace B. English, 1913, was graduated from the Lincoln high school last year with valedictory honors. He was an alternate several times on the high school debating team and was a speaking member of the team three years, on two of which Lincoln won.

George N. Foster, 1910, Law 1911, is a graduate of the Sterling, Nebraska, high school. He won the first prize at the public speaking contest at the Johnson County Fair in 1902, and represented the Peru State Normal school three years in debate—with Emporia, Kansas, Normal school in 1904; with the Warrensburg, Missouri, Normal school in 1905, and with Campbell College, Kansas, in 1906. He is a new man on the squad.

Paul J. Halldorson, 1910, is a resident of Lincoln. He is a graduate of the Long Pine high school, and was a member of the junior class debating team last year in the series of contests for the class debate championship of the university. This is his first year on the squad.

James E. Lawrence, Law 1911, was graduated at the Beatrice high school. He was class orator and was a member of the school's debating team three years. He has been president of his class in college. He is a member of Alpha Theta Chi and Phi Delta Phi. This is his first year's membership on the squad.

George Russell Mann, 1913, comes from Ord. He won the Central Nebraska Teachers' Association's debate contest in 1904, and represented the Ord high school in the interscholastic debate at Lincoln in 1904 and again in 1905. In 1905 he won the interscholastic contest. He has taken part in twelve high school debates, and has been teaching school the last three years.

Byrne C. Marcellus, 1911, is a native of Wisconsin, but now a resident of Lincoln. He is a graduate of the Brook, Nebraska, high school and in 1908 of the Peru State Normal school. He has been teaching at the Crete high school the last two years. This is his first year on the squad.

Herbert W. Potter, 1910, is a graduate of the Omaha high school. He represented Omaha in debate with the west Des Moines high school and also in the Nebraska interscholastic debate in 1905. He was also commencement orator. Last year he was business manager of Nebraska's debates with Illinois and Wisconsin, and was the alternate on the team that defeated Wisconsin. He is a member of Alpha Theta Chi and Phi Alpha Tau. He has been editor of the Daily Nebraskan.

Clifford L. Rein, 1913, was graduated from the Loup City high school last June. He there won a scholarship entitling him to free admission to several denominational colleges. He represented Loup City for two years in interscholastic debating, last year in the contests of the central district of the Nebraska High School Debating League.

John L. Rice, Law 1910, is a native of Ohio, but comes from McCook, Nebraska. At the McCook high school he was valedictorian of his class and was awarded free scholarship at Doane College. In the college of law he won the first prize for excellence in the studies for the first semester of the freshman year, and last year won the legal bibliography prize. He was a member of Nebraska's team that debated Wisconsin a year ago.

David M. Rogers, 1912, is from Randolph, Nebraska. He was valedictorian of his class at the Randolph high school and won a place on the freshman debating team which won the class championship of the university for 1908-1909. He is a new man on the squad.

Joseph T. Votava, 1910, Law 1911, of Edholm, is a graduate of the Fremont Normal school, where he won the Tribune oratorical contest in 1904. He was a member of the university debating squad in 1906-1907 and last year was one of the three Nebraskans who met the Wisconsin debaters at Madison.

Allen E. Warren, Law 1911, a native of Iowa, lives at Superior, Nebraska. He is a graduate of the Wesleyan University academy and is a member of the squad this year for the first time.

STUDENTS ARE NOT INSTRUCTED

Have Not Mastered the Use of the Stock Room of Library.

Dr. W. K. Jewett, librarian of the University of Nebraska, addressed the students at the Friday afternoon convocation on the use of the library. Many interesting facts were brought up on the proper use of the library. The method of using the catalogues in order to gain access to the volumes in the stock room was explained. Such suggestions are of great value to the new students and to others who have not had occasion often enough to gain a knowledge of its workings. The fact of so many other attractions made the attendance much less than it should have been.

HAWKEYES HAVE BEEN WORTHY FOES IN PAST

MEN FROM IOWA HAVE PUT UP HARD FIGHTS.

NEBRASKA WAS WINNER THREE TIMES

Iowa Piled Up a Score of 30 to 0 in 1899, but Nebraska Has Been the Winner in All Contests Since.

SCORES IN PREVIOUS YEARS.

Year.	Neb.	Iowa.
1899.....	0	30
1903.....	17	6
1904.....	17	6
1908.....	11	8

Today the Cornhuskers will meet a foe who has in the past proven a worthy opponent. Though Iowa has only played Nebraska four times, she has a score for every game and once rolled up a score that made the Cornhuskers tingle at the defeat. This happened in 1899, when the Hawkeyes defeated Nebraska by a score of 30 to 0. It was not until 1903 that the Cornhuskers again met Iowa and defeated her in a hard struggle by a score of 17 to 6. Enthusiasm for the 1903 game seems to have been dead both at Iowa and Nebraska. The Cornhuskers left for Iowa City with only three rooters to cheer them on to victory. At Iowa but a thousand spectators witnessed the magnificent playing of Captain Bender and his team. Iowa's only touchdown was made through a streak of hard luck for the Cornhuskers.

Repeated the Score.

In 1904 the score of the previous year was repeated on the Nebraska field. Captain Benedict, Bender and Johnson played a spectacular game, defeating the Hawkeyes by a score of 17 to 6. This was the game in which the trouble arose that ended the contests between Iowa and Nebraska for three years.

Last year the Cornhuskers again went to Iowa City under the leadership of Captain Harvey and defeated the Hawkeyes 11 to 8. But last year the conditions were different. Not three, nor three hundred, but a mass of rooters were at the train to cheer the men on their way. It was a hard-fought contest, but the Cornhuskers put up the strongest fight of the year, with the exception of the Minnesota game, and their stonewall defense became famous throughout the western football world.

ADVICE TO UNI GIRLS DON'T YELL AT GAMES

SO SAYS ADVISER TO UNIVERSITY WOMEN IN ADDRESS.

IT IS ABSURD TO GET UP AND HOWL

Co-Eds Ought Not to Make Themselves Appear Foolish by Acts at Athletic Contests or by Buggy-Riding at Night.

Miss Eva Johnston, acting adviser of women in the University of Missouri, explained the duties of the Council of Women at the women's mass meeting in the auditorium this morning.

"I want the university to mean something for womanhood as well as for scholarship," she said. "The council stands first for honesty. If any girls depart, however thoughtlessly, from the straight and narrow line, it shall be the duty of the council to tell them what is expected of them. It is the council's duty to investigate dishonesty in university work as well as the morals of the university women in other ways.

About Driving at Night.

"But the freshmen want us to be definite as to those ideals. I refer among other things to going driving at night. Not to go driving at night is simply living up to the standard of the best families in the state, which must be the standard of the University of Missouri.

"Need I mention," she asked, "loud conduct on the street or at home? It may be by voice, manner, or even attire.

"I stand in very close relation to you. I want to know you and know difficult, and you will have to help me. I want you to come to me with any problem that you may encounter in your university life. I stand, in a sense, in the place of your mothers. I can't of course, see that you wear rubbers or carry an umbrella, but I hope the women with whom you board will tell you these things.

"Don't Be High and Lofly."

"I want you to appeal to me as woman to woman. I will be glad to see you and even have you advise me, for I am new at being adviser of women. But don't be too high and lofty, for you might hurt my feelings. "As to women yelling, I think premeditated yelling is absurd. Women's voices don't carry and they sound absurd when they yell. No woman has a right to make herself absurd. If something unusual happens and it comes naturally, get up and howl if you want. But don't force yourself. If you do, the men will be right in calling you co-eds. A co-ed is a woman who comes to the university with a determination to imitate the men. We hope to stand for things as high and noble as the men, but we are not co-eds."

Miss Mary Letch, the chairman, brought before the attention of the mass meeting the necessity of starting a fund for a new woman's gymnasium. The women voted almost unanimously to request their escorts at football games to take them to the south bleachers on Rollins Field. For a woman to sit on the north bleachers at a football game will be considered a breach of university etiquette.

ARCHITECT COMING NOV. 10.

Boston Firm Will Send Representative to Lincoln to Make Plans.

As a result of an interview had by Chancellor Avery with the Boston architectural firm which drew the plans for the proposed university medical campus in Omaha, a member of the firm will be in Lincoln Nov. 10-11 to view the present city campus. From his observations while in the city and from suggestions made by members of the faculty and board of regents, he will prepare a model plan for a future university campus.

The board of regents will meet at the time of the Boston man's visit and will transact a considerable amount of routine business.
