NEBRASKA AND IOWA PLAY FURIOUS GAME TO A TIE

making the score six to nothing in Iowa's favor.
On the kickoff Iowa sent the ball over the line for a touchback, so the play started on the twenty-five-yard line. Nebraska promptly fumbled and lost the ball. Gross was unable to make gains and Iowa attempted a field goal from the thirty-two-yard line, which resulted in another touchback. Franck and Beltzer made slight gains and Beltzer punted. Harte made five yards and Temple was held for no gain, so Beltzer again punted. Iowa punted to Hascall, who fumbled and Iowa secured the ball on the Nebraska fifteen-yard line. Iowa lost seven yards on a tackle by Ewing and then punted to Franck on Nebraska's seven-yard line. Beltzer gained three yards on the first down, and followed with six on a fake punt. A punt followed, placing the ball on the thirty-five-yard line.
After making five yards on end runs an eight-yard gain was made by Iowa on a forward pass. A drop kick by Hyland missed the goal and a touchback resulted. Beltzer made a forward pass to Magor, who touched it and captured it, making a gain of thirty yards. Rathbone followed with a fifteen-yard gain through the Iowa center. Time was called with the ball on the Iowa thirty-five-yard line, and the score six to nothing in favor of Iowa.

forty-five-yard line and Shonka downed his man on the forty-yard line. On a forward pass Nebraska gained eleven yards. Chauner made no gain, and Iowa got the ball. Fee made two yards and Chauner again got the ball, Hyland again tried for a field goal, but failed, the play resulting in a touchback. Beltzer, Magor and Ewing made good gains and a punt followed, resulting in Iowa's ball on the forty-five-yard line. On a forward pass they made eleven yards, and followed with an onside kick which was taken in by Franck, who returned the ball fifteen yards.

Nebraska Makes Touchdown.
The Cornhuskers now began to pick up. Rathbone gained six through Iowa's center, which was followed by four by Magor. Rathbone again made four yards which was followed by an onside kick, Nebraska securing the ball and making twenty-five yards. On the next down Beltzer carried the ball. He was dragged through the Iowa line, advancing for eighteen yards. Magor gained two yards around the Iowa right end and Harte made three more. On the third down there was five to gain, which was made by Beltzer. The ball was soon on the Iowa ten-yard line. Temple made six yards. On the next down the ball was carried behind the line. Nebraska fumbled the ball, but it was taken in by Magor, who made the touchdown. Franck kicked goal.
In the last part of the half the ball was in both territories. Iowa was unable to make gains and was held for downs or forced to punt. Once Iowa reached Nebraska's twenty-five-yard line, but were there held, and lost ground. Hyland again attempted a goal from field, but failed.

Iowa Made Good End Run.
Nebraska made her ten yards in three downs, Temple, Rathbone and Magor carrying the ball. Hyland again tried a goal from field from the forty-one-yard line, but his kick went wild. The ball struck in front of Franck, but he used his head and allowed the ball to pass for a touchback. Nebraska punted.
This was followed by the sensational run of the game, made by Fee, the Hawkeye quarter. He made a gain of fifty-five yards and was close to Nebraska's goal line with no Cornhuskers in front of him when Beltzer tackled him from the rear and downed him only twelve yards from the goal line.
Hyland again tried a drop kick; this time from the five-yard line, but missed. Nebraska made slight gains and punted, and Murphy returned the ball to the forty-yard line. This was called with the ball on Nebraska's thirty-five-yard line.
