KING COLE CONTINUES PRACTICE FOR KANSAS

SECRET WORK STILL IN ORDER ON NEBRASKA FIELD.

SCRUBS WILL PLAY WESLEYAN TODAY

Hard Contest Expected Between Second Team and Methodists—York High School and Lincoln on Nebraska Field.

The Cornhuskers have practically recovered from all evil effects of the last two contests with Minnesota and Iowa and are regaining their old form.

Saturday they line up against the Doane Tigers. While this will be considered more in the nature of a practice game, still the interest in the game will be fair. Doane has a good team this year and expects to win the state championship. Of course this does not include the State University. The scrubs will probably play most of the game Saturday.

Secret practice was continued yesterday at the new field. For this part of the work the advantages of the new field with the high fence inclosure is very evident. Last year there was no opportunity for secret practice without journeying out to the state farm, but this necessity has been removed and much better results are anticipated.

Scrimmaging Again.

Yesterday saw the hardest scrimmage of the week. The first scrimmage was between the varsity and the scrubs, with the honors about even. Several of the varsity men were absent, neither Captain Beltzer nor Ewing showing up for practice.

After the varsity had fought the scrubs for a while they were sent against the second varsity for about fifteen minutes of hard work. On line work the first team had the advantage, but they made some costly fumbles and twice the second team men got away for long gains, one of which resulted in a touchdown.

Bentley has just about fully recovered from his injuries of the Minnesota game. He may not be used at all in the Doane game, however, Cole preferring to save him intact for the Kansas game.

High School Against York.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the Lincoln High School team play York High on the university athletic field. Lincoln has one of the best teams in the history of the high school and are strong bidders for the state championship. York always has a good team and in years past has given Lincoln all they cared to handle. Tomorrow's contest ought to be a good one and it is expected a good many students will attend.

Scrubs Go to Wesleyan.

The scrubs go to University Place tomorrow afternoon to take on the Methodists in what is expected to be a hard contest. This will be the first game of the season for the freshmen, and they are expected to show the Methodists some new tricks about the game. Wesleyan has a strong team, having held both Peru and Bellevue to a tie. If the freshmen can succeed in showing up the Wesleyanites tomorrow, they will stand a good show of beating Morningside when they meet the latter team at Sioux City a week from Saturday.

HOWARD AT CONVOCATION TODAY

Sociology Professor to Speak on German Universities.

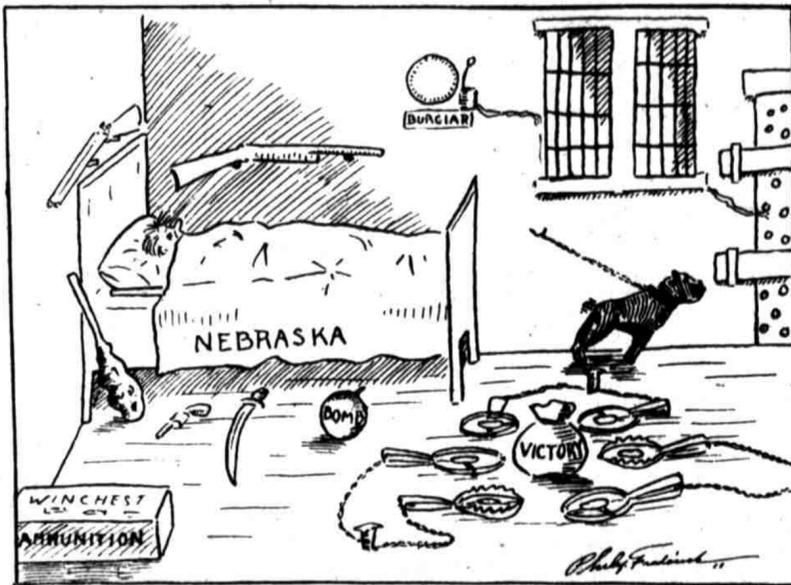

At five o'clock this afternoon the third of the series of graduate convocation exercises will be held in Memorial Hall. Dr. George Elliott Howard will speak on the subject, "The Lesson of the German to the American University."

ADDRESSES DEBATING SQUAD.

Hard Work is Being Done Preparing for the Intercollegiate Debates.

Professor George O. Virtue, professor of political economy, spoke before the university debating squad Wednesday afternoon. This is the second of a series of talks which the squad will receive from men interested in the question which they are working up. The first of these addresses was given by Professor Taylor of the political economy department. The squad is putting in every moment of valuable time in preparing for the try-outs to choose the men and in working up the material for the debates with Minnesota and Iowa, which come in December.

Well Prepared

Question: Who is the Prowler?

SOLID GOLD FOOTBALLS TO MEMBERS OF TEAM

CORNHUSKERS MAY BE REWARDED IN CASE OF VICTORY.

"WE MUST BEAT KANSAS" BUTTONS

Five Thousand Emblems Bearing the Slogan of Loyalty to Nebraska Will Be Distributed Next Week.

A solid gold football for each man on the team is the prize for which the Cornhusker team may strive in the Kansas game. That is the reward which will possibly be given to the defenders of the Scarlet and Cream in case of their victory over the Jay-hawkers.

The proposition of awarding the Nebraska players gold trophies of their victory over Kansas was brought up by certain students yesterday. The matter was laid before the student members of the athletic board and a canvass of the board was at once taken. It was stated last evening that a majority of the board were committed unofficially to the award. In case these men do not change their minds before the board formally acts, the "N" men may be sure of their footballs. A meeting will be held at 11 a. m. today to decide the question. The footballs will be made in the form of a watch charm. They will be solid gold and will be appropriately engraved with the circumstances of the Kansas Victory. Only those members of the team participating in the Kansas game will receive the trophies.

Given Once Before.

Once before in the history of Nebraska the gridiron heroes have been rewarded with gold footballs. That was in 1902, when Nebraska turned out her famous all-victorious team under Captain Westover. In that year Nebraska trimmed Minnesota by a score of 6 to 9 and Kansas lost 16 to 0. Other teams failed entirely to meet the defense of the Cornhuskers, and the season closed with Nebraska's goal line uncrossed.

In appreciation of the record made in that year the Nebraska students gave the team members gold footballs. At no time since that year has the custom been revived. With Nebraska defeating Kansas, however, the Cornhuskers may once more receive the prized trophies.

"We Must Beat Kansas."

"We Must Beat Kansas." That is the slogan to be printed on 5,000 buttons which will be distributed on the campus early next week. The buttons have been ordered and the shipment is expected not later than Monday. They will be at once scattered about among students and alumni and the battle-cry which they carry will symbolize the "Nebraska spirit" which is to meet and conquer Kansas November 6. The buttons will be plain bits of metal with the four words forming the motto of Nebraska printed in colors. Every student in the university and every alumni in the city is expected to appear next week wearing the sign of his loyalty to Nebraska. Nebraska must beat Kansas and the best way to insure that end, in the opinion of the managers, is to make victory certain by fostering the spirit of determination which allows no defeat.

1910 CORNHUSKER STAFF MEETS.

Annual Publication Board Met and Decided on the Material to Be Published.

The members of the Cornhusker staff met in U106 last evening and plans were outlined to them as to the general contents of the Cornhusker for 1910 by Editor Mosely. It is planned to have the book this year of a departmental nature, and that the joke department is to be made larger than it has been in the past.

A new feature of the book this year is that it will contain a colored supplement for each department in the annual. The book is also to contain other new features. The Cornhusker this year is to be the best volume that the students of the two upper classes have ever produced, according to statements of the editors.

Friday Afternoon Tea Today Especially for Them.

By bulletins sent out yesterday to graduate students, Miss Ensign, acting adviser to women, makes an appeal that these members of the student body make an especial effort to be present at the Friday afternoon tea in Memorial Hall from 3:30 to 5 p. m. today.

The tea today, as is customary, is open to all university girls. It is especially, however, for graduate students. Last week the seniors were given a special day and turned out in numbers.

SOPHS PRACTICE FOOTBALL.

Yesterday morning, in response to the call of Manager Pearce, the members of the sophomore class interested in football met and began practice for the coming series of games with the other class teams for the inter-class championship. The same rule will be followed this year as has been in vogue for the past few years, that the winning class team be rewarded with sweaters bearing their class numerals.

About twelve men were out for practice for the sophomores, and all able men of the class are requested to come out at regular practice in the future. The members of the junior team are indulging in daily practice on the athletic field and the coming series of games are expected to be fought fiercely.

Members of the Senior Class Hold Their First Social Function at College View.

The members of the senior class meet tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock at Eleventh and O streets to go to College View to attend the senior breakfast. This is the first stunt of the social season which the members of the class have held and every senior is expected to be present at this entertainment. The breakfast will be held in the grove one mile south of College View, and cars may be taken at Eleventh and O streets for the trip out. The report of the Pershing hop which was held last spring was read and accepted and the report of the auditing committee favorably received. The scarf committee reported and the members of the organization adopted a light tan scarf as the official designation of the society. Plans were discussed for the admission of new members and the design of a new pin was discussed.

FACULTY WOMEN HOLD DINNER.

Woman's Dinner Club Held First Banquet of the Year and a Pleasant Evening Was Spent.

The members of the Faculty Woman's Dinner Club met last evening at Dairymple's at 6:30 and there held a dinner in honor of Miss Alice Ensign, the acting dean of women. A series of short toasts followed the banquet and a general good time was spent by all present in getting acquainted with each other.

The members of the organization expect to hold a dinner of this sort at regular intervals during the coming year, and it is hoped that the organization may become a permanent one in the university. It had been hoped by the members of the dinner club to keep the organization of this club a secret and the plan succeeded until a few days ago. The secret leaked out in some unaccountable manner and it was necessary to abandon this plan.
