WILL DOANE SURPRISE NEBRASKA TEAM TODAY?

CRETE COLLEGIANS EXPECT TO MAKE EXCELLENT SHOWING.

COACH COLE WILL TAKE NO CHANCES

Varsity Will Work Against Opponents Until Victory Is Assured—Scrubs Then Given a Chance.

What will Nebraska do to Doane this afternoon? In years gone by Doane has usually given the Cornhuskers a hard struggle, even if they have gone down of defeat.

Last year the Doane game came a little earlier in the season and neither team was in very good condition. The game proved to be a walk-away for Nebraska, the Cornhuskers piling up a score of forty-three points to nothing for the Tigers.

This year, however, Doane has a much faster and heavier aggregation, and while Nebraska will have no trouble in winning today's game, the score will probably not be so large as that of last year. Doane has been very successful in her contests so far this year, having beaten Peru 17 to 0, and Kearney 35 to 0. The players realize that they are up against a big thing when they meet the university, but they are anxious to try their mettle.

No Attempt at Big Score.

No attempt will be made by Nebraska to run up a big score in today's game. The best of relations have always existed between the two schools in regard to athletic matters, and Cole is likely to let the Tigers down pretty easy in this afternoon's contest.

The regulars will probably start the game, but most of the scrubs will be given a try-out before the finish.

Today's game will offer a good opportunity for some of the men who have been working out faithfully all year to break into the game.

Some of the scrubs who are likely to see service in this afternoon's game are Elliott, Sturmer, Dobson, Spellmeyer, Gutbulet, Freitag, Pearse, Sturtznegger, Farley, Hascall and others. Some of these men of course are regulars or have already seen service. Hascall won his "N" in the Iowa game. Sturmer saw service in the South Dakota game, in fact played center most of that contest. Dobson, Elliott, Spellmeyer and Gutbulet all saw service in the Knox game. So far none of the others have broken into any of the contests, and their friends will be anxious to see what they can do today. Freitag, Pearse and Farley were all members of last year's freshman team, which beat both Peru and Grand Island, both teams somewhere in Doane's class.

Although no chances will be taken to injure any of the regulars in this afternoon's contest that would weaken the team for the Kansas struggle, an attempt ought to be made to run up a respectable score. Last Saturday Kansas beat Washington University of St. Louis by the decisive score of 23 to 0. Washington is a big school. In fact, is a member of the Missouri Valley conference. If Kansas can beat Washington 23 to 0, ought not Nebraska pile up a bigger score in today's game with Doane, even if only for the moral effect on Kansas?

Juniors Hold Down Wesleyan.

Yesterday the Juniors met Wesleyan at University Place in a game of two twenty-five-minute halves and succeeded in holding them down to a score of 5 to 0. This is a very good showing in view of the fact that the Juniors have only been out a short time and are in no such condition as the Wesleyan team, who have been practicing all years. The Juniors cerpracticing all year. The Juniors certainly have a strong team and will make a strong bid for the interclass championship.

NAMES MEN TO ATHLETIC BOARD

Junior Appointees to Inter-class Governing Body.

The first appointments for the inter-class athletic board were made yesterday. President Oberfelder of the junior class appointed from his class the following committee: B. Cherrington, chairman; S. P. Dobbs, and Chas. Sturmer.

It is the business of the inter-class athletic board to regulate all the inter-class athletics and to decide upon any questions of eligibility that might arise. Arrangements are made for the inter-class football games, Ivy Day athletics and any other inter-class meets.

Three students from each class comprise the board. The president of the other classes will make their appointments known in a few days.

GUARD MEN WILL BE INSPECTED.

Army Inspector Will Review the University Members of the National Guard December 13.

The members of the various companies of the Nebraska National Guard attending the university have received notice that they must be inspected by the inspector, Major E. H. Phelps. The various companies over the state have been inspected and the names of the members of these companies attending the university have been reported to the adjutant general. These men have been ordered to report for inspection December 13, the same time that the members of company F in Lincoln are inspected. This company is the last company in the state to be inspected, and this is in order that the members of the other companies attending the university may be inspected at the same time.

DEBATERS PICKED BY SCHOOLS IN LEAGUE

IOWA HAS MANY OLD MEN BACK FOR WORK THIS YEAR.

SOME CHOOSE MEN IN THE SPRING

Last Debates of the Central Debating League Drawing Near—Schools Busy Choosing Judges for the Contests.

With the picking yesterday of the Wisconsin debating team, the university public is beginning to wake up to the fact that December with its series of intercollegiate debates is not far distant. The interest in the intercollegiate debating is growing rapidly. In fact the work of the various squads and teams in the central league is being put on a par with the training of a football team.

Iowa picked her teams, one of which will meet Nebraska at Iowa City in December, before school closed last spring. These teams, besides working on the question all summer, returned to Iowa, it is reported, a week before school opened and began systematic work. This in many respects resembles the old time training camp of the football men.

Not Picked Yet.

Minnesota is also reported to have picked her teams last spring. While Nebraska has not yet picked the men who will represent her at Iowa nor against Minnesota at Lincoln, the try-outs will be held in the near future. The squad is putting in a great deal of time working up the question and meeting daily and sometimes several times a day to discuss and go over the material.

Wisconsin, who at the present time stands at the head of the central league, is to debate with Minnesota and Illinois this year. The men who will represent her in the Minnesota contest are Edwin Witte, Harold Martin and Erwin Meyers. Those who debate Illinois are George Blanchard,

Thomas Sanderson, and John Childs. All of these men are experienced debaters, having had a number of years of active debating in either the intercollegiate work or in various other schools and organizations. Martin took part in the Wisconsin-Iowa debate last year and Blanchard debated against Nebraska at Madison at the same time.

Picking the Judges.

The series of debates which will be held this year is as follows: Nebraska-Iowa, at Iowa City; Nebraska-Minnesota, at Lincoln; Iowa-Illinois, at Urbana; Illinois-Wisconsin, at Madison, and Wisconsin-Minnesota, at Minneapolis. The chief work before the schools in the league at the present time is the selection of judges. In the two debates in which Nebraska participates the judges will be from Iowa, Minnesota and Illinois. For the Nebraska-Iowa debate Minnesota and Illinois have each submitted a list of twelve men for judges to the two competing schools. From this list Iowa will pick six men in their order of preference and Nebraska will pick twelve. These men are then requested to serve in the manner named until two have been secured from the Nebraska list and one from the Iowa list. Iowa will alone send a list of twenty-four judges to Nebraska and Minnesota for their debate. From this list Minnesota will choose twelve and Nebraska six. These will be asked to serve in the order named and two of the Minnesota list will be secured and one from the Nebraska list. A similar process is gone through in choosing the judges for the other contests in the league.

This is the fourth or last year of the quintangular league comprising Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin. At the present time Wisconsin stands at the head of the schedule. This year's contests will, it is believed by the supporters of the Nebraska team, somewhat change this standing. The respective standing of the five universities follows:

	W.	I.
Wisconsin	4	2
Illinois	3	3
Minnesota	3	3
Iowa	3	3
Nebraska	2	4

GOLD FOOTBALLS FOR CHAMPIONS ASSURED

ATHLETIC BOARD VOTES FAVORABLY ON PROPOSITION.

"BEAT KANSAS" BUTTONS RECEIVED

Emblems to Be Worn by Students, Faculty, and Alumni May Be Obtained at Co-op Book Store Today.

Gold football watch charms for the members of the varsity are a certainty. This much was assured at a meeting of the athletic board held at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

The proposed award of gold footballs to the team upon the occasion of its winning the football championship of the Missouri Valley by defeating Kansas next Saturday was brought to the board on the suggestion of several members of the student body. The board considered the matter officially at the meeting yesterday morning. In accordance with the prophecy of the Daily Nebraskan members of the board favored the purchase of the trophies and the plan was voted through without a hitch.

Will Be Champions.

In case the Cornhuskers defeat Kansas November 6 they will be the unquestioned champions of the Missouri Valley. The winning of this honor, which Nebraska lost at the very close of the season last year will in the eyes of the athletic board be sufficient to warrant the granting of the medals. A suggestion made yesterday that the giving of the footballs be made a regular stunt whenever Nebraska turns out a championship team was received with favor and it is quite probable that this will be done. In that case the footballs may in the future come to be a mark of special distinction equal many times to that conferred by an ordinary "N."

The "We Must Beat Kansas" buttons arrived in Lincoln yesterday, and will be distributed from the Co-op book store today. It is expected that every student on the campus will be wearing one of the buttons within twenty-four hours of their arrival in Lincoln. Citizens of Lincoln and alumni will also be given an opportunity to show their loyalty to the Cornhusker team.

Insured Grandstands.

The only other business of the board was the order to Manager Eager that the grandstands on Nebraska field be reinsured against collapse. This is a customary precaution to prevent the board's being made liable for any accidents to spectators.

SENIORS' FIRST OUTING TODAY.

Fourth Class Hold Breakfast Near College View and Have a Good Time.

The seniors left at 7 o'clock this morning for the picnic grounds one mile south of College View, to hold their annual breakfast. In previous years the upper classmen have been contented with riding three or four miles, but this morning, by way of diversion, they had to walk an additional mile or two.

Once arrived on the spot, the enthusiasts started the coffee and had breakfast. The meal consisted of a whole roast calf, potatoes baked in the fire, buns, and various other delicacies. At the present time the seniors are forgetting a bit of their dignity and are playing football, baseball, and games once the delight of their childhood days as if their life depended upon it.

The senior breakfast is an annual affair of the senior class and has in the past proven one of the most pleasing events given by that class. This year it is held somewhat earlier than usual. Last year it was held late in the spring, and as the events of the senior year are so crowded at that time it was decided that it would be best to hold it in the fall.
