ONLY THREE DAYS TILL GAME WITH KANSAS MEN

NEBRASKA TEAM FAST ROUNDING INTO CONDITION.

WORKED UNTIL DARK YESTERDAY

Cole Kept Regulars Hard at It With Signal and Scrimmage Practice at State Farm Grounds.

Every day brings the Cornhuskers one step nearer the eventful day which will prove whether the long oass or whether it has gone for naught. It would be foolish for any one connected with the team or even with the university to attempt to deny that the one desire of the 1909 season has been to beat Kansas.

"We must beat Kansas" is the Nebraska slogan this week, and it has been the thought, uppermost in the mind of coaches and players the whole season. Now that the time of the fateful event, that will mark the culmination of the year's work, is drawing near, everyone is on his pins ready and anxious for the struggle.

Strong Nebraska Spirit.

Once before this season there was something resembling the spirit that pervades the Cornhusker ranks this week. That was during the week preceding the Minnesota game. The team then, discouraged by the poor showing in the Dakota game, worked heroically to get into shape for Minnesota, and what was the result? The surprise administered to Coach Williams and his husky Gophers is still felt in that northern camp.

But if the Nebraska squad were able to thus work wonders to beat Minnesota, what will they not do when the foe is not the friendly Gophers, but their hated rivals, the Jayhawkers from Kansas? The Cornhuskers are fast rounding into their best form of the season. In the Minnesota game they played like fiends in the first half, and it was not until their light back field gave way to the heavy onslaught in the second that they were finally beaten. In the Iowa game again they showed poor form, owing to the severe bruises and absence of some of the regulars resulting from the terrible battle of a week before.

With two weeks' good rest, however, and all the men in the pink of condition, the Cornhuskers may fairly be expected to put up the best game of the season next Saturday.

Kansas Tricky.

What Kansas has in reserve is doubtful. Like Nebraska, she too has resorted to the old style of straight football this season, reserving her open field and trick plays for the coming contest. In all their contests thus far the Jayhawkers have been successful, but not always to such an extent as should prove them superior to the Cornhuskers. In the first of the season, the Kansas Aggies surprised them by holding them to a 5 to 3 score. Since then they have met no such foes as either Minnesota or Iowa.

It is a noticeable fact that in all their contests the Cornhuskers have used scarcely nothing but straight football tactics, with an occasional forward pass or onside kick. What conclusion then can be drawn as to the contest next Saturday? Will both teams rely on their heavy lines and mass plays, or will the spectators be treated to such an exhibition of open field work as has never been seen on a Nebraska gridiron?

That the Jayhawkers are strong is no question. Ex-Captain Harvey, who saw the game with Washburn last Saturday, says they have fully as powerful a machine as they had last year, but he concludes with the hopeful words that "they do not look like a team that can't be beat." However, he adds that if the Cornhuskers expect to win next Saturday's battle they must show better form than they have shown in any previous contest this year.

The practice yesterday was held at the state farm, where the turf is soft and there is less likelihood of serious injury. Every precaution will be taken to prevent injuries in this week's practice, so that scrimmage will probably cease early in the week. Yesterday, however, the squad was given a good, hard scrimmage, and signal practice was continued until dark.

INTER-FRAT ATHLETICS.

Inter-Fraternal Council Holds First Meeting of the Year.

One representative from each of the men's fraternities in the university met in Dr. Clapp's office at eleven o'clock yesterday and perfected the organization of the inter-frat athletic council for this year.

The following officers were elected: President, L. C. Hummel, Sigma Nu; vice president, A. Sturtzenegger, Kappa Sigma; secretary-treasurer, L. R. Heggeland, Delta Tau.

A committee of two was appointed by the chairman to straighten out inter-fraternity baseball affairs. Several of the games on that year's schedule have not yet been played and the championship is as yet unsettled.

GABLE NOT TO TRY OUT TODAY.

Cross Country Captain Is Disqualified By His Absence.

According to a letter received by Dr. Clapp yesterday, C. H. Gable, captain of the cross country team, will not be able to get to Lincoln for the try-out this afternoon. This will disqualify Gable as a contestant in judged by his scores in both tryouts.

The news that Gable would not get back was a severe disappointment to the cross country men. Several expressions were heard to the effect that no technicality should be allowed to keep him from the team. Dr. Clapp, however, states that Gable is not in good condition, and in view of the fact that this year's squad is much faster than last fall's, it is doubtful whether he could make the team in any case.

CHORUS REHEARSAL WEDNESDAY

Final Practice to Be Held in St. Paul's Church at 5 p. m.

The university chorus will rehearse with orchestra and organ at St. Paul's church on Wednesday at 5 p. m. It is essential that each member of the chorus be on hand very promptly.

The chorus will sing Haydn's "Creation" before the State Teachers' Association on Friday evening at 7:30. They will be accompanied by string orchestra and organ. The soloists will be Arthur Middleton of Chicago, Miss Annette Abbott and Mr. Aden Ebyart. Mr. Middleton appeared in Lincoln last spring with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, and aroused great enthusiasm.

Baked beans, baked on the premises and served hot with delicious brown bread, 10c, at The Boston Lunch.

JAYHAWKERS EXPECT A HARD GAME SATURDAY

KANSAS MEN NEVERTHELESS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

TWO HUNDRED ROOTERS ARE COMING

Special Train on the Union Pacific Will Bring Band and Scores of Kansans to Witness Big Game.

BY GEORGE W. BOWLES.

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 2.—(Special to The Daily Nebraskan.)—Kansas is now putting on the finishing touches for the big game with the Cornhuskers Saturday. The Jayhawkers realize the work to be done before that time and are working with the one idea of lengthening their string of victories. The students feel that a victory on either side will be accomplished only after a great struggle.

The Union Pacific will run a special to Lincoln and from present indications over two hundred will make the trip to give the Kansas yells. Everyone realizes that great obstacles must be overcome, if Kansas hopes to come out on the ever-victorious slate, repeating the record of last year's team. Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri are played within three weeks' time and each has an exceptionally strong team. Roper is working hard at Missouri and is turning out a team that will be hard to beat. Their games with both Iowa State and the Iowa Aggies show that the Tigers have an excellent chance of spoiling Kansas' confidence on Thanksgiving.

Nebraska Manager Who Is Working Day and Night to Beat Kansas.

The game with Washburn Saturday, while resulting in a victory for the red and blue, was not what was hoped for. The team is showing a tendency to get off poor at the start in the defensive work and showing streaks of this weakness throughout the game. The men are poor tacklers, but the coaches hope to overcome this by Saturday. The pet onside kick, which netted the Jayhawkers so many gains the last and first part of this year, was working badly. Straight football was used, which the lighter Washburn team could not oppose. Coaches Kennedy and Mosse are keeping secret their mode of attack when the whistle blows for the Nebraska game. The students are trusting to the wisdom of the coaches and the strength of the men to gain a Kansas victory.

FRESHMAN DANCE COMMITTEE.

President Wherry of the First Year Class Appoints Committee in Charge of Hop.

Last evening the members of the freshman hop committee was appointed by President Wherry. The members of the committee are as follows: F. C. Clark, chairman; Eugene Holland, master of ceremonies; John Bushnell, George Reader, John Warner, Mr. Prince, Mr. Murphy, Mr. Roberts, Mr. McCafferty, W. E. Smith, Lucille Bell, Mary Robbins, Miss Hamer, Miss Taylor, Miss Fair, Miss Robinson.

President Wherry desires that the members of the committee see Mr. Clark at once.

BATTALION IN FULL UNIFORM.

Cadets Are All in Full Dress for the First Time This Year.

For the first time this year the members of the cadet battalion were in full dress uniform last evening. The members of the battalion look extremely natty in the new uniforms, and the six companies are now complete for the year's work in military science.

The uniforms this year are slightly different than they were last year, and this fact results from the red braid that all of the uniforms are trimmed with. The officers of the battalion have the cuffs of their uniforms trimmed with a scarlet and cream braid, while the trimming on the private uniforms is only red. This is in accordance with a law passed by the last legislature that the uniforms of the cadets of the various military academies and of the university should be marked in some way so that they could be easily distinguished from the uniforms of the regular and national guard.

CLASS OLYMPIC NOVEMBER 13.

Annual Sophomore-Freshman Meet to Decide Class Supremacy.

The annual Olympic meet of the freshman and sophomore classes will be held November 13. At a meeting of the committees from the four classes this decision was reached yesterday morning. The events this year will be the same as those of last year, with one exception, Boxing and wrestling for light, middle and heavy weights will be held. The Marathon will also be held.

The radical change will be that instead of pulling the men out of the marked square, they are to be pushed out. Instead of one bout of this, there will be three. The class having the most men in the square, two out of three times, wins the pushing contest.

The boxing and wrestling will be judged by Frank Johnson, "Jack" Best and I. P. Hewitt. J. F. Burke, Dale McDonald and William Chaloupka are to be the timers and starters for the Marathon, which will start at the athletic field and run to the fair grounds, around the track once, and back to the field. The line push will be supervised by twenty seniors and juniors.

Yale's latest gift is a $425,000 physics laboratory. Two smaller gifts were lately received, one of $25,000 for general endowment and the other $15,000 for a forest school.

SOPHS MEET AGAIN AND HAVE ANOTHER SCRAP

SECOND YEAR MEN WOULD APPOINT OWN COMMITTEES.

PRESIDENT POWERS DOES NOT AGREE

Meeting is Adjourned and Committees Are Named by President of the Class—Minor Officers Elected.

At a meeting full of sensations and dramatic at its close, the sophomore class yesterday morning again made good its claim to possession of the hottest political pot that the university has seen boiling for many a day. Called for the transaction of routine business matters, the session soon developed into a complex political and parliamentary scrap, and ended only by a sudden adjournment, which left the disputed question still unsettled.

The question at issue in yesterday's meeting was the right of the president to appoint committees for service during the current semester. The discussion was precipitated by a motion of William Ritchie, a freshman law, providing for the selection by vote of the class of the chairman of all committees and of the master of ceremonies of the class hop. The Olympic committee and the sophomore representatives on the inter-class athletic board were specifically omitted from the motion because of the fact that they had already been announced by President Powers.

Starts a Row.

Ritchie's motion aroused the friends of Powers, and for several minutes the debate was warm. Powers' adherents claimed that it was a traditional right of the class president that he should appoint the committees. They contended that the action proposed would be a direct slap at his authority. The supporters of the change argued that they were not personal in their desire for a different method of appointment. They held that their action in omitting from the effect of the rule those committees already announced removed them from any such charges.

President Powers declared in his own behalf that such action by the class would seriously embarrass him, inasmuch as he had already told certain students that he would appoint them to office. The matter was complicated by the lack of any constitution to which the question could be referred.

After several minutes' heated discussion a motion to adjourn was made. President Powers put the question to a viva voce vote and announced it carried. Members of the opposition called for a division, but Powers left the platform. He later stated that he did not hear the call for a division.

Was it the Laws?

Adherents of President Powers say that the opposition was largely instigated by freshman laws, who were disgruntled at the failure of their candidate in the president campaign which closed a week ago. At that time considerable hard feeling was aroused over the fraudulent voting which made it necessary to declare the first election void. At the second election Powers received a majority of over 2 to 1.

Members of the class who supported Ritchie's motion declared yesterday afternoon that the matter was not brought up by the laws. They say
