ONLY TWO DAYS LEFT; PROSPECTS NOT SO ROSY

CORNHUSKERS SHOW UP POOR IN YESTERDAY'S PRACTICE.

SUBSTITUTE BACKS ARE NOT GOOD

Scrub Ends Distinguish Themselves in Twenty Minutes' Play When Varsity Makes Only One Touchdown.

With but two more days left for practice before the big contest, things do not look quite so rosy as Coach Cole and his helpers might wish. The work of the varsity so far this week has not been at all satisfactory. The men are still slow in getting off and are not showing as much ginger as might be wished.

In yesterday's scrimmage at Nebraska field the best the varsity could do was to make one touchdown on the scrubs in about twenty minutes of scrimmage. The scrub ends, especially, distinguished themselves by breaking through and spilling some of the varsity plays in their very inception.

Of course the fact must be taken into account that not all the varsity men were in the scrimmage and what were there were fearful of receiving injuries.

Subs Show Up Poor.

One disappointing feature of this week's work is the failure of the substitute back field to come up to expectations. Elliott at full, however, put up the best game of the season last night and hopes are entertained that if necessary he may be able to fill this position satisfactorily in the Kansas game. Sturtzenegger is the only substitute back field man who is showing any real knowledge of the game. He is pretty light, but can be counted on to give a good account of himself when called on Saturday.

With the exception of these two men, Nebraska will have to go into the game Saturday with one set of backs. Bentley has about fully recovered from his injuries received in the Minnesota game, but Cole is not taking any chances. Franck is being regularly drilled at quarter and Magor switched from end to right half. This will leave Chauner and Johnson as ends and in no way weaken the team in this respect. With such a switch Cole can materially increase his back field strength.

Over an hour was devoted to scrimmage work and in perfecting the varsity defense in yesterday's practice. Special attention was given to punting, getting down on punts, and line holding in punt formation. In last Saturday's contest some of Nebraska's punts came dangerously near being blocked, and in one instance an attempted place kick actually was blocked.

Neither Temple nor Franck appeared in yesterday's scrimmage, and several other men were given but a short session of hard work. Yesterday's scrimmage was the last hard work of the week. From now on until Saturday the time will be given to the perfecting of the new plays on which Cole is depending so much for a victory over Kansas. Some of these were tried out against the scrubs yesterday with moderate success. Of course the scrubs were onto the varsity signals and knew just how to break up the plays. With Kansas the matter will be different.

Kansas Scary.

Kansas is not going to come to Lincoln next Saturday overconfident. The first team was sent in against Washburn last Saturday, with the result that several of the Kansas stars are now nursing bruises. Since the Minnesota-Chicago game the Kansas coaches have also begun to sit up and take notice. They remember that Nebraska held Minnesota to a 14 to 0 score at Omaha two weeks ago, and that 20 to 6 score at Minneapolis last Saturday looks rather ominous.

The scrubs go to Sioux City Saturday to take on Morningside. It is even money that there will be a surprise for in the Morningside camp before the game is ended. So far the names of the players have not been published, but will probably be published tomorrow.

UNION LITS MEET FRIDAY NIGHT.

Regular Weekly Meeting to Be Held in Temple at 8:15 p. m.

The Union Literary Society will hold its weekly meeting in Union Hall, the Temple, Friday, Nov. 5, at 8:15 p. m. A program will be furnished by Miss Mattie Britt, reader, and the Burlington Male Quartet. At the end of this program Miss Bessie Chambers will tell a ghost story that will make her audience afraid to go home in the dark. Especial invitation to teachers attending association.

SUSPENDED FOR DELINQUENCY.

Committee Takes Action in Cases
Where Excuses Were Not Good.

Secretary Engberg of the committee on student delinquency yesterday announced the suspension of two students for failure to attend classes. The men suspended not only did not attend the classes for which they were registered, but they disregarded the requests of the committee for excuses.

The action taken in the two instances announced yesterday will be repeated in several other cases unless quick response is made to the notices of the committee. The prevalence of delinquency and the unusual disregard for the authority of the committee demand strict measures, and Secretary Engberg is ready to enforce the rules to the letter.

FORMER NEBRASKAN IN PARIS.

Henry Eames Opens Studio in French
Capital After Summer's Study.

The friends and former students of Mr. Henry Eames will be interested to learn that after a concert tour of Great Britain and a second summer spent at the Villa Pederewski near Morges, Switzerland, as a special student of the great Polish pianist, he has reopened the "Henry Eames Studios" at 16 Rue Marbeau, Paris.

Mr. Eames' courses for the current year include not only a general course in the theory of music and one in the history of music, but also two series of lectures, one on the instruments of the modern symphony orchestra, the other "Six Talks Upon Appreciation of Music," namely: "Folk Songs and Dances," "Early Instrumental and Vocal Forms," "The Opera," "The Sonate and Symphony," "Programme Music," and "The Modern French School."

For the last named topic Mr. Eames' acquaintance with such men as Vincent d'Indy and Claude Debussy, as well as the constant demand for his services in recitals in the French capital, sufficiently bespeak his qualification. Miss Alleyne Archibald is to continue as assistant of Mr. Eames, both in pianoforte and in the teaching of harmony and counterpoint.

Your car fare would pay for a nice lunch at the Boston Lunch. Why go home?

RALLY FOR KANSAS IN MEMORIAL HALL AT 11

FULL HOUR FOR GIVING TEAM
FINAL SEND-OFF.

AVERY, COLE, CONDRA AND HARVEY

Quartet of Speakers to Address Students, and Impromptu Talks to Be Given by Students and Professors.

Sixty times sixty seconds of stirring songs and speeches; endless enthusiasm; speakers with terminal facilities; songs of unique distinction both as to music and words; above all a message of confidence in The Team and an expression of Nebraska determination to do all that may be necessary to WIN NEXT SATURDAY'S GAME!—that's what will be on tap this morning in Memorial Hall at exactly eleven o'clock.

The Best Football Rally of the Year, anticipating what is expected to be The Greatest Game of the Season, will take the place of the usual convocation period this morning. Special permission has been granted and special plans have been laid for fireworks of more than the ordinary Fourth of July brilliancy, noise, and effect. Songs, speeches, yells, and music by the band will alternate for the entire hour, and it is hoped and expected that sufficient enthusiasm will be aroused to unite students and faculty as never before in the face of a season's football crisis.

Avery to Speak.

Chancellor Avery will be present to urge the team and the university to a victory next Saturday. Other speakers will include Coach Cole, ex-Captain Harvey, Professor Condra, and certain business men of Lincoln whose football enthusiasm has grown the stronger with the passing of the years.

Coach Cole promises a dissertation explaining exactly why we have a "King" at Nebraska anyway. He says he has a few commands to issue to the university at large which must be obeyed to the letter if Kansas is to be treated properly from a Nebraska standpoint. The first of the royal requests urges attendance at the rally, the others will be offered verbally.

Professor Condra and ex-Captain Harvey have both consulted the almanacs published four years ago and expect to spring a strictly new and up-to-the-minute line of stories illustrating clearly just why an extra hundred per cent of well directed enthusiasm is necessary on next Saturday if the Jayhawkers are to be satisfactorily handled.

Music in Plenty.

Real music is promised in unlimited quantity. The new football song composed by Professor Stevens of the university school of music and recently published in these columns, will be tried out thoroughly under the leadership of a special quartet. Other appropriate songs will be rendered and the cadet band will keep things moving in approved Nebraska style. It is even rumored that the band will polish their instruments especially for the occasion.

Rooting leaders J. S. Elliott and H. O. Perry, assisted by R. S. Moseley, will be in charge of the rally, and it is understood that they have several surprises planned which will make today's meeting the most memorable of the year. In anticipation of a crowd that will tax Memorial Hall to its limits special seating arrangements have been made and the chairmen request that all chairs be filled promptly at eleven o'clock.

"JORGIE" PLEDGES MEMBERS.

Wisconsin University Y. M. C. A. Gets Busy in Membership Campaign. Secretary Derkindern of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday received a letter from Art Jorgenson, 1908, who is now with the University of Wisconsin Y. M. C. A. "Jorgie" says that the association at the Badger Institution recently carried on a membership campaign and pledged 500 new members in one day.

CONFUSION OVER BRYAN PRIZE.

Question for Essays is "The Direct Primary in Nebraska."

There seems to have been some confusion in the publishing of the subject for this year's competition for the Bryan prize. The subject upon which the competitors will write is "The Direct Primary in Nebraska." Various sub-heads to his question have been suggested, as follows: 1. An introduction outlining the status of the primary, and laws at the present time in the various; 2. The various Nebraska statutes and bill on the subject; 3. The judicial decisions; 4. The leading issues, and suggestions in regard to what measure ought to be put on the statute books.

The sophomore hop committee will meet in U106 today at 4 p. m.

At Minnesota girls have entered the freshman-sophomore debate this year for the first time in its history. Three are freshmen and one is a sophomore.

The co-eds of Minnesota, dissatisfied with the existing arrangement of athletics for girls, revolted and organized an athletic association of their own.

An official press bureau is the latest innovation at the University of Chicago. The purpose of the bureau is to furnish official news to the papers of Chicago and others outside the city.

The senior council of Syracuse University has "disapproved" of university men taking women to inter-collegiate athletic contests. In the east the edict of an upper classman is law to an under classman.

Although outnumbered by the first-year men two to one the sophomores of the University of Indiana won the annual flag rush in less than two minutes after the referee's whistle had opened the contest.

The Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers will hold its annual session at the University of Chicago on November 26 and 27. On November 26, Professor T. C. Chamberlin will address the association on the impressions gained during his extended tour of investigation of oriental methods of education, particularly in China. Mr. J. E. Armstrong, principal of the Englewood high school, Chicago, will discuss the results of his experiments in sex segregation in high schools. In the afternoon the association meets in five sections, mathematics, physics, biology, chemistry, and earth science. Among the topics on these programs are the "Recent Investigations in Physics" by Professor A. A. Michelson of the University of Chicago, before the physics section; and the "Teaching of Geography" by Professor R. E. Dodge of Columbia University before the earth science section. Reports on fundamentals in science will be presented by special committees in all sections.
