

COLLEGE MEN

Do not need to be told about styles in clothes, nor what it is worth to them to wear stylish clothes, but we want to impress upon you the importance of looking to quality in buying your winter suit and overcoat.

Your friends and relatives will welcome you to the Thanksgiving feast, but what you want is to be dressed so that you can feel at ease and know that your clothes are right in every detail.

Quality in clothes is very necessary to uphold the style; no matter how stylish they are they will soon lose their good looks if they have not the quality back of them.

Our Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes are quality plus style and every other detail that goes to make up the kind of clothes particular dressed young men want. There are no better clothes made.

Come in; we will dress you right, and you will feel and look right for any occasion.
