GOPHERS HAVE EASY TIME WITH HUSKERS

LOSS OF PETRASHEK AT CENTER FELT BY LOCAL FIVE.

PERRY AND WOOD ARE THE STARS

Coming Contests With Jayhawkers to Be Watched With Interest—Kansas Five Still Undeclared—Nebraska and Ames May Tie.

The Minnesota basketball five easily defeated the Cornhuskers by a score of 33 to 14. The Gophers had substitutes in every position and easily won from the Nebraskans.

Nebraska put up a hard fight in the first half and for a short time it looked like they would certainly be victorious. In the second half Minnesota's entire first team went in and from that time on the outcome was never in doubt. Perry and Wood played especially well. The former distinguished himself by throwing six out of seven chances for free goals. The score at the end of the first half was 11 to 8 for Minnesota.

This game does not materially affect Nebraska's basketball standing, as the two schools do not belong to the same conference. The line-up:

Nebraska.	Minnesota.
Anderson f.	Hutchinson
Grant l. f.	Perry
Giltman c.	Hiltner
Frank f. g.	Wood
Robillard l. g.	Amberson
Substitutes: Minnesota—Lyford, Lawler, Hanson, Walker, Grimes, Rosenwald, and Waules. Nebraska—Jones, Smith.

Field Goals—Grant (3), Robillard, Lawler (3), Rosenwald, Walker (2), Wanless (3).

Free Goals—Anderson (3), Hanson (2), Perry (6).

Referee—Doering.

Kansas Next.
The final games of Nebraska's basketball schedule will be played next Friday and Saturday nights, when the fast five from the University of Kansas will meet the Cornhuskers on the local floor. These games will not determine the standing of either team but are simply return games of those played at Lawrence earlier in the season.

The Jayhawkers have a fast quintette. Their team is the same one which won the Missouri Valley championship last year, and so far this year they have not lost a single game. Captain Perry is determined to win from the Kansans in the coming games, and he has much better prospects of doing so than he had when his team left for Kansas several weeks ago.

Three men who played against Kansas in January are out of the game. D. C. Mitchell, who was one of the stars in those two games, has been declared ineligible by the eligibility committee. Ingersoll, guard has graduated from the industrial college, and Petrashek, the steady center, has left school and will not be back until next year. The loss of these three men has caused the team to be severely crippled, but the rest of the men have improved so remarkably since the former games with Kansas that the Jayhawkers will not find such an easy victory awaiting her as she is looking for.

Nebraska's Record.
Nebraska now has a record of six games won and two lost. Ames has a record of five won and two lost. If Ames succeeds in defeating Drake in the game which is still to be played, Nebraska and Ames will be tied for the championship of the northern section of the Missouri Valley conference. The two teams will then play off the championship and the winning team will then meet Kansas for the championship of the Valley.

Ames and Nebraska have made no definite arrangements for the playing of these championship games, should a tie result. Manager Eager, though has proposed the subject to the Ames management, and no delay will result if Ames defeats Drake, as arrangements for the championship series can be quickly made.

MR. WM. H. CRANE
AT THE
Oliver Theatre---Tonight

Wm. H. Crane comes to the Oliver theater tonight is one of the most important events of the theatrical season. Mr. Crane will be seen in George Ade's clever comedy "Father and the Boys" which has met with remarkable success both east and west. For four months Mr. Crane appeared in the play to crowded houses at the Empire theater in New York and he also had a long and successful engagement in Chicago. "Father and the Boys" is American to the core and gives Mr. Crane greater opportunities to display his rare talents as a comedian than perhaps any play he has ever had. That Mr. Crane thoroughly enjoys the role of Lemuel Morewood is evident to all who see him in the character. The story deals with the breach which comes between the father and his two sons. The old gentleman, who has accumulated a fortune in his business, cannot get away from the simple tastes he acquired when a country lad. The story is told in Mr. Ade's happiest manner and the dialogue is bright and snappy. Laughs are freely distributed throughout with now and then a pit of pathos which adds to the value of the play. Charles Frohman has surrounded Mr. Crane with a strong company including Margaret Dale as leading woman, Louis Massen, Percy Brooke, Forrest Orr, Sidney Blair, Elsa Payne, Vivian Martin, Adele Clarke, Mildred Beverly and others.
