KEARNEY NORMAL CLUB.

Organization Formed of Former Students of That School.
 A number of students who had formerly attended the Kearney Normal School met at the home of R. C. Berkstrom, 227 Vine street, for a social evening last night. They discussed the advisability of organizing a club which was proposed by one of their number. The proposal carried, and Mr. Ernest Danly was elected president and Mr. R. C. Beckstrom secretary.
 Committees were appointed to draw up a constitution and to arrange for the program of future meetings. The next meeting will be held April 2. All students who, through attendance at the normal should be members of the club, are urged to be present at the meetings. The plan of the club is to further the interests of the university at the normal and to be of whatever other service it can to the two schools.
 Says President Fox Nichols of Dartmouth: "The college, in all its relations, is the most human and humanizing influence in all of our civilization, and year by year, its gains in this direction are substantial."

 Representatives of Missouri Valley Schools Will Consider Football.
 The date for the football conference which was called some time ago by Chancellor Frank Strong of Kansas, has been set for April 19. All of the Missouri Valley schools have been heard from and have promised to send delegates to confer on the matter of reforming football rules. The schools which will be included in the representation besides Kansas are, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Drake, Iowa State College and Ames.
 The conference will be held in Kansas City, but the place of meeting has not yet been decided upon.
 The date, April 19, was set in order to hold the conference after the national rules committee meets in Boston, Mass., the latter part of this month.

SENIOR MASQUERADE.
 Big Celebration of the Four-Year Students at the Music Hall of the Temple.
 With a crowd which almost limited the capacity of the music hall of the Temple the members of the senior class held their annual masquerade Saturday evening. Costumes of various sorts and colors led to the air of jollity which prevailed. All sorts of characters were represented from cowboys to goddesses of liberty. The climax of the evening came when time to unmask arrived. All eyes were curious to see who the red-haired girl was who no one seemed to know. At the proper time the masks were removed and the familiar faces appeared lacking the false whiskers and other means of disguise. The red-haired girl was Stewart Elliott, who was declared to be the best disguised person at the affair.
 After numerous stunts had been held the masquerade closed with a period of dancing. The chaperones were Registrar Harrison and Miss Alice Ensign.

SCENE FROM
"The Traveling Salesman"
 A COMEDY BY JAMES FORBES
At the Oliver, Today 2:30--Tonight 8:15

Following the policy established by Henry B. Harris with his "The Lion and the Mouse" and other companies, the presentation in this city of "The Traveling Salesman," the latest comedy success of James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady," will be of the same high character as was in evidence when Mr. Harris' other plays were presented here. "The Traveling Salesman" will make its bow to the patrons of the Oliver theater today matinee and tonight, and will no doubt be received with the same hearty acclaim as was manifest during the nine months' run of this delightful comedy at the Gaety theater in New York.
