FRESHMEN HAND THE JUNIORS A DEFEAT

FIRST YEAR FIVE WIN BASKET-BALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

GYM EXHIBITION IN ARMORY TONIGHT

Feature of the Evening is a Wrestling Match Between DuCray of Lincoln and Gion of Aurora.

Yesterday afternoon the championship inter-class basketball game was played, and resulted in a victory for the freshmen by a score of 30 to 22. The freshman five took the lead in the first half and maintained it to the close of the game.

In the second half the juniors ran the first year men a close race, and while the freshmen were ahead in the first half by a score of 14 to 8, they scored but two more points in the second half than did the juniors.

Same Line-up.
The teams had about the same line-up as in the games they played last Tuesday, and were very evenly matched in the second half. Few fouls were called, but a total of eight in the whole game.

The line-up was as follows:
Freshmen. Juniors.
Carrier l. f. Zacek
Andrews l. g. Chauner
Funkhauser c. Elliott
Reinsch r. f. Plasters
Wessel
Lindstrom r. g. Munson
Cherrington

Summary: Field goals—Carrier 3, Andrews 3, Zacek 3, Funkhauser 2, Wessel 2, Munson 2, Cherrington 2, Elliott 2, Lindstrom 2, Reinsch 1, Plasters 1. Fouls—Andrews 3, Lindstrom 1, Zacek 1, Munson 1.

Gym Exhibition Tonight.
The gymnasium exhibition which will be held this evening in the armory promises to be one of especial merit. Besides the regular program which will be done by the men's and women's classes, a special feature will be added. This will be a wrestling match between Frank M. DuCray of Lincoln and George Gion of Aurora. These men are the two best mat artists in the state and they are well matched.

The patrons and patronesses of the evening are Chancellor and Mrs. Avery, Rev. and Mrs. D. R. Leland, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Westermann.

MRS. LINDLEY ENTERTAINED.

Dramatic Club Guest at 1715 South Twentieth Street.

The Dramatic Club was entertained last night at the home of Mrs. Lindley, at 1715 South Twentieth street.

Mrs. Lindly was when in the university one of the most talented members of the Dramatic Club, and had a star part in Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," one of the most successful plays ever presented by the club.

The program was a suitable one for St. Patrick's day and very good.

Math. Seminar to Meet.

The Mathematical Seminar will meet Friday, March 18, at 4:30, in M302. The program will consist of a paper on "Cubic Congruence with Three Real Roots," by Miss Runge.

Coach Grant of the Minnesota track team says that pure sweets should figure in the menu of men in athletic training, as they are good muscle-makers.

In the Yale-Harvard swimming meet, R. Loree of Yale broke the intercollegiate plunge record with a mark of 72 feet 9 inches.

Arrangements have been made by the California Boat Club to row against Stanford about Easter time. Rowing as an intercollegiate sport is not recognized by the athletic association at California.
