Clean Cut Clothes

for

Clean Cut Fellows

Our L System Clothes, $15 to $30, are made with a dashing individuality of style that appeals instantly to the college man. They're made with all the care possible as to style, fabric, tailoring, originality.

Our Kensington Clothes, $20 to $40, we urge upon the man who is particular about his clothes, and yet conservative. They cost a little more perhaps than some. Here's the reason: They're made especially to our order; we dictate the tailoring in detail, hand-tailored at that. The result: We can offer you Kensington Clothes made the way we know "good clothes" should be made, in quality, style fit, superior to most custom made clothing, but for much less than you could have a suit of equal value made.

SOPHOMORE MASS MEETING TONIGHT

Tug-of-War Will Be Different than It Was Last Year—Even Will Begin at 9 O'clock Saturday Morning—Freshmen Confident.

JUST PUBLISHED
Webster's NEW-INTERNATIONAL Dictionary, (G. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass.) surpasses the old International as much as that book exceeded its predecessor. Editor in Chief, Dr. W. T. Harris, former U. S. Com. of Education. The definitions have been rearranged and amplified. The number of terms defined has been more than doubled. The Etymology, synonyms, pronunciation, have received unparing scholarly labor. The language of English literature for over seven centuries, the terminology of the arts and sciences, and the every-day speech of street, shop, and household, are presented with fullness and clearness. In size of vocabulary, in richness of general information, and in convenience of consultation, the book sets a new mark in lexicography.
400,000 words and phrases.
6000 illustrations.
2700 pages.

The long looked for sophomore freshman Olympics will be held Saturday morning. The first and second year classes will then fight for supremacy. The boxers and wrestlers who have long been in training will be given the opportunity to show their prowess and the marathon runners will do their utmost to imitate St. Ivo, Tom Longboat, et al.

The other valiant classmen will simply pose as targets to receive the blows directed by their determined opponents. Bloody noses, black eyes and torn clothes will predominate after everyone is exhausted and too tired to fight longer. Then will the victors march proudly down the street shouting victory and the vanquished sneak through the alleys with hanging heads, on tip-toe and speechless.

The girls will not be left out of the contest. Far from it. They will surround their favorites and cheer them to victory. Decorated with their class colors, they will closely watch the progress of the battle as interestedly as the women of Rome watched the contests of the gladiators.

Free-for-All Changed.
The only change in the list of events will be in the manner in which the free-for-all will be managed. Last year the freshmen were placed behind one line and the sophomores behind another. At a given signal they rushed forward and tried to pull the members of the opposing class back over their line.

This year the style of free-for-all used at Michigan and Cornell will be used. A piece of canvas six feet square is used. Three sophomores take hold of one side and three freshmen will take hold of the other. The other members of the class will line up on two lines forty feet apart. At a given signal they will rush together and each class will endeavor to pull the canvas back over their own line. The class which is able to do this two out of three times will be declared the winner.

The other events will be light, middle and heavy-weight boxing and wrestling; the marathon race and the tug-of-war. Five points will be given for first place in the marathon, three points for second, and one point for third. The tug-of-war teams will be composed of ten men from each of the classes.

Sophomore Mass Meeting.

The sophomore class will hold a mass meeting in the chapel at seven o'clock this evening. The meeting will be in the nature of a rally for the Olympics. All of the new sophomore songs and yells will be practiced and everyone will wear the class colors. All Olympics committees are requested to meet in U7 Wednesday at 12 o'clock. All arrangements will be made at this time. Dr. Condra and Referee Campbell will be present and will give instructions as to how the meet is to be carried out.

The freshman committee has been changed. The committee as appointed by the president is as follows: Chairman Kositsky, Ray, Toney, Clark, Lehmar and Funkhouser.

CORNHUSKER CANDIDATES BUSY.

Three Men in Sophomore Class Want Jobs on 1911 Annual.

The candidates for the positions of managing editor and business manager of next year's Cornhusker are busily at work. It was announced that Dana Van Dusen and C. L. Clark were candidates for business manager and that Guy Kiddoo had entered the race for managing editor. A mistake was made in naming the offices for which Mr. Kiddoo and Mr. Van Dusen were candidates. The names of these gentlemen were simply changed about. Mr. Kiddoo is a candidate for business manager and Mr. Van Dusen is running for the managing editor's job.

At the present time Clarence Clark is the only other man in the race. This election will occur on Thursday, April 14. Not much interest has as yet been aroused, but it is thought that things will warm up next week.
