GERTRUDE QUINLAN.

FRANCES RING.

"Miss Patsy" at the Oliver Thursday Night, April 14

Henry W. Savage has assembled together one of the strongest companies of comedians of recent years for the presentation of "Miss Patsy," in which Gertrude Quinlan, the original slangy waitress of "The College Widow" is the bright particular star. The company includes no less than six of the original cast of "The College Widow," including Laurance Wheat, Thomas Meighan, Adeline Dunlap, Francis Ring and Maude Earle. "Miss Patsy" comes here direct from a run of 100 performances at the Chicago Opera House. It will be presented at the Oliver on Thursday night. Gertrude Quinlan, the piquant comedienne who made so phenomenal a success in the amusing role of "Flora Wiggins" in "The College Widow," will play the name part in "Miss Patsy." Frances Ring, handsome and gifted as a comedienne, was chosen from a lengthy list of famous actresses to create the role of "Helen Burrelle" in "Miss Patsy," the ambitious character-comedy which Henry W. Savage sent from New York early in the year 1910.
