"Cascade or Bust" is the slogan of the Y. M. C. A. We commend the spirit as Nebraskan and the rhetoric as "Daily Nebraskan."

There are some people who attend college with the notion that it is a personal instruction form of correspondence school. They usually have a college yell with as much spirit in it as an inverted postage stamp.

Every time we hear of Dr. Pound or any other old Nebraska man getting some big offer out in the collegiate world we can feel the grin spreading out over our erstwhile gloomy face. It is like hearing that your big ous as if we had found our room rent paid up in advance. Why, we cannot claim to be a university without a mandolin club. Where is all the poetry, all the hazy dreamy memories connected with college days to come from if we do not have the college life to base it on. Any one holding the notion that a university is a quick lunch counter for hungry knowledge seekers—a place to get facts crammed down with no other end in view than the attainment of the facts as quickly as possible—well, he resembles the bull who wandered into the place where they sold china. He does not belong here.

If such there be in our midst, he will probably not approve of a mandolin club. But that should not deter every able bodied student who can pick anything like a mandolin or guitar from joining the organization and making it one of the best college mandolin clubs in the country. Why not?

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM.

ARBOR DAY.

Yes, we looked it up in the registrar's office and verified it at the observatory. Today is the 22nd of April, and consequently Arbor Day. While we do not demand any sort of a holiday every time an anniversary or a day commemorating some event comes along, we don't like to wake up some morning and find that something we would have liked to remember has passed us a month ago. There are some Nebraska men that are worth remembering.

A LONG TIME AGO.

Once upon a time there lived a man who said that Wesleyan could play ball—but that was a long time ago, and he is dead. Listen! We will tell you the story.

Years and year ago when this university was about the size of an overgrown country school there was a man that owned the land where Wesleyan now stands. He was a cranky old fellow, always quarrelling with his neighbors, and one time he met the men who had "cleaned" him in a horse trade. It was Sunday, so they began talking baseball. His neighbor praised the university team, which started an argument. As he turned to go the man stated that some day there would be a university founded on his ground which would beat Nebraska. But that was a long time ago and he is dead.

WHY NOT?

"Bing-ting-a-ling-ting. Bink." Repeat that with the proper nasal twang and you will be a correct imitation of a mandolin. Let us explain our raving.

At last the university is to have a mandolin club. We feel almost as joy-is an annual affair and is a sort of farewell rally for the university senior girls. It is representative of Nebraska good fellowship and Nebraska spirit. The program follows:

Quartet—Faye Hartney, Alfreda Powell, Grace White, Edith Forrest.
"The Best in College Life".....
.....Susie Stegner
Solo.....Mabel Doran
"Our Future View".....Caroline Osborne
Violin Solo.....Mary Herbert
"Why I Am Glad to Graduate from This University".....
.....Faye Hartley
Solo.....Ethel Cathcart
"The Y. W. C. A. and My Life".....
.....Beaula Jennings
Quartet—Faye Hartley, Alfreda Powell, Grace White, Edith Forrest.
"When We Say 'Good-Bye'".....
.....Nell Blodgett
"Our Seniors".....Lucille Miller
"The Scarlet and the Cream."

TO GIVE "FAUST" PROGRAM.

Special Program in Temple Theater at 5 O'clock.

At a special convocation to be held at the Temple theater at 5 o'clock this afternoon, the University Chorus will sing "Faust," with orchestral accompaniment and assisted by soloists. The program:

Act I.
Scene and Chorus—
"Vain! In rain do I call" (Faust).
"Careless, idle maiden."
"Come forth, ye reapers."
Scena and Duet—
"If I pray there is none to hear
"Be mine the delight" (Faust, Mephistopheles).
Chorus—
The Fair—"Still or sparkling."
Song of the Golden Calf—(Mephistopheles).
Waltz and Chorus—
"Scit and light."
Act II—The Garden Scene.
