CLASS SONG.
Written by Helen Mitchell.
The class song, which was written by Helen Mitchell, was given yesterday morning by the Glee Club quartet. The song follows:
(Air—"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes.")
The end is near of college days,
The work of life at hand.
We can now see the parting ways,
Strange face or lonely land.
We meet once more before we part
Upon our quest, and now
Sing we to nineteen-ten, our class
And take a loyal vow.
The wild March wind has told
our tale;
All nature sung our praise,
Four years enthralled we've gathered here
Triumphant hymn to raise.
Within these walls we've pledged
our lives,
The highest learning sought,
Where Truth, undaunted, honor and beauty,
Forever have been taught.

"Antelope"
That's the name of the new

Patent high shoes now shown
