The rabble gather round the man of news,
 And listen with their mouths wide open; some
 Tell, some hear, some judge of news, some make it,
 And he that lies most loud, is most believed.

the fountain or gazing into the azure depths of the soft spring skies; as you slumber peacefully through a class or eke out a smile at the verdant humor of a week-stand play or vaudeville—has it ever occurred to you that there might be news to gather? Has it ever occurred to you that little droplets of news are clinging here and there about these old halls or are floating hither and thither about the campus—and that we keep reporters to gather them?

WIENIES AT CAPITOL BEACH

Seniors Fish Whales from the Briny Deep.

About 7:30 this morning eighty members of the class of 1910, clad in picnic garments and carrying fishing poles and baskets left the campus for Capitol Beach.

Not until yesterday did Chairman Mahood find that it would be permitted to have this much coveted festivity on account of the smallpox scare. Tickets were put out immediately and the loyal sons of the class "came

The parade will be one of the features of the day. The university cadet band will march with the contestants and prominent university people. The line of march has not been definitely decided upon, but the procession will disband at the ball grounds.

The game will be quite a society affair. Boxes will be reserved by the different sororities and these organizations will probably be out in full force. Other university organizations will also attend the game and are reserving blocks of seats. The game is to be played for the purpose of raising the "Jack Best" fund to $400.

The luncheon of the Presbyterian students of the university, which was to have been held at the Lindell hotel Saturday, May 14, has been cancelled because of smallpox.

Latin Club Banquet.

The Latin Club banquet, which was to have been held on the 14th of this month, will be held on the 21st instead. It will be held at the Lindell hotel.

The department of journalism edited the paper at the University of Washington for a week without serious results either to the department or the paper, as far as we have been able to ascertain. Not a bad idea to apply to the course as offered at Nebraska.

Our wrath began to boil about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. It boiled and sizzled away until eventide, when so much of it had steamed away that our trembling hand was again able to direct a pen. Nothing. Only the Purdue Exponent clipped our editorial without the tag.

While scanning the headlines of an evening paper we noticed that "King George Is Hard Worked Man." This palace business evidently does not differ so essentially from university life after all. We extend the hand of condolence across the dancing waves to our fellow man of the order of the hard workers.

The sun shone yesterday in its purest ray serene. Students, un-mindful of danger, wandered aimlessly about, thinking the mighty thoughts of the average student. They attended classes, went about unvaccinated, passed under ladders and in front of street cars, all un-mindful of the awful danger. Without a single mishap, the university passed through another Friday, the thirteenth.

This is the second and last senior breakfast and the members all left with the highest hopes for a good time. Even before reaching the car line the dignity was set aside and had it not been for the fact that they were well known they would have been mistaken for a bunch of freshmen. It is expected that after their arrival at the beach they will seek some secluded spot on the green near the lake where a regular old camp fire will be built and the coffee started boiling.

After they have refreshed themselves upon the black coffee, wienies and rolls, various games will be indulged in. There will be boat races for those skilled in the art of rowing. A ball game will be the attraction of the day and those who find that sport tame will probably fish whales from the banks of the lake.

Other senior breakfasts have been held, but not before this one has there been one held which will afford such unique pastime and pleasure, and when they return we expect reports of a most excellent time.

LENGTHIES VS. RUNTS.

Big Game Will Be Played Monday, May 16, at 2:30.

At 2:30 next Monday afternoon Jack Best will pitch the first ball and the game between the lengthies and the Runts will be on. More interest is being aroused in this game than in any game this year and the attendance will probably be large.
