How We Show Clothes

You're not asked in our store to try on wrinkled misshaped garments, jerked from the middle of a tall closely packed pile of suits lying on a table. Our suits are dust-free, unwrinkled, actually ready to wear, as they're taken from their hangers in dust-proof cabinets. The old way you're never sure of perfect fit; our way you can tell instantly.

KENSINGTON CLOTHES--$20 to $40--the very perfection of the clothes maker's art. They're built to Fit and Stay Fit. The quality's there too, you may be sure, as you'll find out once you wear them.

L-SYSTEM CLOTHES--$15 to $30--distinctive clothes for young men who want garments built to set off the dash, the vigor and the manliness of youth. Better fitting, better wearing, better looking clothes for the money than the majority of young men's clothes.

GABLE WRITES LETTER.

Former Nebraska Athlete Comments on Meet.

To the Editor of the Nebraskan: I had the opportunity of being with the track team clear through the meet yesterday, and it may possibly be of interest to know some of the impressions made on an ex-track man.

Frankly, I did not expect Nebraska to win, for I knew that only three 'old men were in good condition, and that Kansas had a bunch of well conditioned old-timers. I also knew the lack of interest early in the season, the smallpox scare, and the lack of a track until about three weeks ago. I had not been with the men an hour at the Eldridge hotel before I came to feel that there was something extraordinary in the atmosphere. There was no nervousness; there was no excitement; there was no boisterousness; there was present that subtle but deep and powerful thing known as "spirit." Previous teams have been composed, in large part at least, of "stars." Yesterday there were no "stars"—it was a "constellation." No man went into an event alone—the whole team was behind him, and he knew it. Every point was fought for to the last inch. Probably those who have never contested do not understand what I mean, but those who have worn the spikes know that when that spirit pervades a team it spells victory.

I have heard dozens of Kansas people say that it was the closest, cleanest meet they had ever witnessed. Time and again through the meet the score was a tie. With the score 53 to 51 in favor of Kansas just before the mile relay, Kansas was sure they had it, and went nearly wild with glee during the first half mile. Although Ankeny and Powers had the two fastest Kansas men against them, they almost held their own, and when Reed began to burn up the ground Kansas went sober. But when Burke broke loose like a runaway whirlwind, Kansas grew sick at heart, and, without a whisper, crawled off the benches and went home.

Examination of the records shows that the work of every man on the team deserves the highest praise, and the team deserves the most loyal support of every man and woman in the university. With the university back of them, they are going to trim Minnesota next Saturday as they did Kansas. So three cheers for the team, and three cheers for Coach Cherrington, who has resurrected the "spirit" which spells victory.

The Cosmopolitan Club will meet at 11 o'clock in the office of the German department, U112. As the meeting is important, every member is requested to be present.

Field Geography 10.

The second section of the class will go on an excursion to the lower Platte valley Friday and Saturday of this week. All who expect to go should report to either Dr. Condra or Professor Bengtson immediately.

Superintendents J. H. Beveridge of Council Bluffs, N. M. Graham, U. of N. '01, of South Omaha; A. H. Waterhouse, Fremont, and W. W. Stone of York were in the administration building Saturday in conference concerning the summer school of superintendents.
