JUNIORS PRESENT SPECIAL CONVOCATION

TO PRESENT PLAY AT THE TEMPLE THEATER.

FULL OF FUNNY SITUATIONS

Plot Centers About Quarrel Over Quotation—Complications Result in Unexpected Ending.

In accordance with the arrangements made this year by the convocation committee, the junior class will present a special program next Tuesday at the regular convocation hour. The program will consist of a one-act comedy entitled "Obstinacy," by Annie Peacock. The play was originally in the German, but has been adapted for presentation in the English. The production is to be staged at the Temple theater and the curtain will rise promptly at 11:10. This will give every one time to get to the Temple before the play begins. About forty minutes will be required for the play and those who have 11:30 classes should get excused so it will not be necessary to interrupt the play by leaving.

The play takes place at the home of Robert and Grace Austin, just married. They have, in fact, just returned from their honeymoon. They have two negro servants, George and Lizzie, who have a quarrel over a quotation. Robert tells the incident to his wife, and they quarrel over the same quotation. Their quarrel is much more serious than the other one. The father and mother of Mrs. Austin arrive at this time and they decidedly differ as to the quotation. Many ludicrous situations fill the play, which finally has an unexpected ending.

The following members of the junior class make up the cast:
George ..... Harold Coulter
Lizzie ..... Lucile Harris
Robert Austin ..... Byrue Marcellus
Grace Austin ..... Florence Whittier
Frederick Kent, Austin's father-in-law ..... Nye Morehouse
Mrs. Kent ..... Margaret Guthrie

MISS VIBBARD MARRIED.

Secretary of Y. W. C. A. Weds.
Miss Ina B. Vibbard and Mr. Gilbert S. Brown were married Thursday evening, May 26, at 8 o'clock, at their future home, 1925 So. 13th street, Rev. Patton of the First Baptist church officiating. About seventy-five close friends, including Miss Vibbard's cabinet girls of the Y. W. C. A., witnessed the ceremony, and a great many more were present at the reception immediately following. The house was beautifully decorated in American roses and smilax. Miss Vibbard, unattended, wore a white gown trimmed in hand-made lace, and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. The couple left after the reception for a short trip, and will return in a few days. Mrs. Brown will conclude her work in the Y. W. C. A., and this summer they will make an extended tour.

Mr. Brown is a member of the A. D. Benway Furniture Co. of this city. Miss Vibbard has been for five years the general secretary of the university Y. W. C. A. and has secured a firm place in the affections and respect of the girls. She closes a most satisfactory career with the university.
