TWELVE HOURS.

The attention of all students is called to the following university regulation:

22. A student who, in any semester, is not satisfactorily carrying at least twelve (12) hours is debarred from representing the university that semester on any athletic or debate team or board, on a glee, mandolin, or dramatic club, on the staff of any college publication or on any other university organization; moreover a student who fails to pass in twelve (12) hours at the end of a semester is debarred from representing the university in any capacity the semester following.

In the past the active enforcement of this ruling has been applied mainly by university athletic and publication boards to those representing the university in athletics and upon its publications.

It seems desirable that no student who is unable, or not sufficiently interested in the academic side of his college life, to carry with a passing grade twelve hours, the minimum required of a regular student, should represent the student body and the university in any official capacity whatever. It is therefore recommended that each student before becoming a candidate for any such position or office secure from the registrar a statement that he has passed in twelve hours last semester in school, and ascertain also that he is not at present delinquent. All class officers, before appointing or announcing committees, athletic or debating teams, should submit the names selected to the university officials for approval.

The university feels that those who can not meet this scholarship requirement should not be given additional responsibilities and that such honors and advantages as come from the fulfillment of various offices should be received by those who are meeting this obligation and, as a result, are bona fide college students.

The rules of the Missouri Valley conference demand that in order to represent an institution in the intercollegiate contest, a member of the football team shall carry at least twelve hours and not be delinquent in his studies. If this rule can be enforced among the men of the gridiron, then it certainly can not work a hardship on the men and women who hold class offices, or manage a hop. It is a fair ruling to all the men and women of the university and should be lived up to.

The following communication came to the desk of the editor Wednesday:

"I was more than puzzled to understand the mind of the writer of 'That Hobble-Skirt' in yesterday's 'Rag,' which said: 'How a self respecting university girl, who is supposed to have a little more than ordinary intelligence, can appear in public wearing a dress of this nature without blushing for shame, is more than can be understood.' It is more than I can understand how a mind can become so narrow as to form the bigoted opinion held by the writer of that article. How the author has connected hobble-skirt so necessarily with 'shame' and 'disgrace' is beyond my conception.

"Hobble-skirt is a peculiar subject to find its way into a college paper; nevertheless myself and others are interested to know the 'why' of the extreme adversity of the author toward them.

(Signed) "A STUDENT."

We have had a number of things said about us that would not look well in print, and we must confess that we do not know all there is to know in this wide, wide world. However, we have been able to scrape up enough courage to state what we think about the matter in the editorial columns of the Daily Nebraskan. Every student having at least ordinary intelligence knows who writes these articles, and who to say mean things amount when the statements made are not exactly to their taste. We are willing to tell above "Student" why we are opposed to dress of this nature, and what the university students as a body think of it, if they will be brave enough to come out in the open and sign their name to an article. We will willingly publish anything that is sent in, providing the editor knows who the author of the article is.

No respect should be given to the man or woman who writes an anonymous communication and sends it to someone who can not strike back, because of the cowardliness of the anonymous individual who hides behind the signature of "A Student" for fear that the authorship of their sneering and viperous words will become known.

FOOTBALL OFFICIALS.

Eight Nebraska Men Can Be Chosen to Referee Games This Fall.

Eight University of Nebraska men are in the list of officials published by the Missouri Valley conference, who will administer the law of denaturalized football in the contests of the coming season. Four other Lincoln men are included in the selections.

The Nebraska men selected are B. M. Cherrington, H. W. Ewing, Cy Mason and John Westover of Lincoln, J. B. Harvey of Omaha, Ralph Drain, Monmouth, Ill., J. P. (Deak) Koehler, Denver, Colo., and W. D. Robbins, Chicago Heights, Ill. The other Lincoln selections are Z. D. Clevinger (Indiana), coach at Wesleyan, Fred Cornell (Indiana), C. W. Erwin (Chicago), Henry Clark (Chicago).

The letter of the committee explaining the duties of officials and incidental matters follows:

The Missouri Valley conference has instructed its committee on officials to send copies of the approved list of football officials to all educational institutions in this section of the country in order to aid them, in the selection of competent officials. Names appearing on this list have been recommended to the committee by at least one institution in the conference. Doubtless there are officials on the list who will not give satisfaction, and there are also excellent officials whose names do not appear. In order to secure a corrected list including only competent men, the committee will appreciate a report, in criticism or approbation of the work of these officials in non-conference as well as conference games. The committee will also be glad to have suggested the names of every competent official located in the Missouri Valley. This committee was appointed primarily to select officials for Missouri Valley conference games. The committee will be glad to appoint officials for any contest in this section of the country. If we can be of service to non-conference football managers by appointing competent and impartial officials for their games, it will gladly be done upon request, without expense to either institution concerned.

The committee on football officials is instructed to call the attention of all managers and officials to the following action taken by the Missouri Valley conference May 27, 1910:

1. The head linesman is directed to take the names of all men and substitutes entering football games and to submit this record to the managers for their approval immediately after the game. The local manager shall see that the list is filed before the head linesman is paid for his services, and shall send this record to the committee on officials after the game.

2. The committee on officials is directed to inform the managers and officials that it is the sense of the conference that comments made for publication immediately after a football game are undesirable.

2. (a) That the maximum fees of referee and umpire shall be $40 for major games and $20 for minor games in addition to expenses.

3. (b) That the maximum fees for field judge and head linesman shall be $20 for major games and $10 for minor games in addition to expenses.

4. That all officials be required to submit an itemized statement of expenses when making settlement with managers. F. H. EWERHARDT, C. E. McCLUNG, R. G. CLAPP, Chairman.
