

Directory of Advertisers

The following merchants and business men of Lincoln are anxious to serve the University students. By placing their advertisements in the columns of the Daily Nebraskan they show that they want your trade. And you may be sure that the merchant who is willing to make a little effort to get your patronage is the one who is going to treat you honestly and considerately in attempting to keep it. So you—as well as the Nebraskan—will profit by trading with these people:

University Athletics

Wesleyan.

It was to the greatest satisfaction on the part of the management and coach and with the most ardent enthusiasm on the part of the squad that Simonds, last year's captain and quarterback, has finally consented to return and again fill his former position on the Wesleyan football squad. Every effort is being made now to induce Sutton to again don the mole skins and occupy his old position as fullback, but on account of extra work in the university Mr. Sutton has not yet seen his way clear to turn out for practice. However, the line-up as it stands is showing up much better than was first anticipated. The line is faster and stronger than ever before since the revival of the game at Wesleyan. The only doubtful position is fullback, and with a few more days of stiff signal practice and scrimmage work Coach Clevenger hopes to have Shandow, whom he has shifted to that position from guard, fully equipped for the game with Grand Island Friday. The team will average about 165 pounds to the man this year, which is about the same as last year. The schedule for this year's games has been completed and is as follows: Grand Island at University Place, October 7; Highland Park at Des Moines, October 15. South Dakota at Vermillion, October 21. Bellevue at University Place, October 28; Doane at University Place, November 11.

Chicago.

The terrific work-out of the other day, when the varsity trimmed the freshmen 18 to 0, enabled Coach Stagg to gain some line on how he is likely to assign his men. Of course, Captain Crawley is assured of his place at right halfback and Ralph Young may be expected to play the fullback position. Bunny Rogers is in the lead in the race for left halfback because of his greater experience, but Davenport Manuel, Baldwin and two others have also been worked out there.

Sauer has been tried one or two times at fullback, but he is pretty certain to perform at right end, where he will be a valuable man, both offensively and defensively. Rademacher is sure to get a place in the line at either guard or tackle, but the filling of the other places will involve choice from Whiting, Carpenter, Sellers, Freeman, Whiteside, Curtis, Rogers and six or eight others who have not been worked so regularly.

Probably the biggest puzzle for Stagg is presented in the disposition of the quarterback job. Ed Wilson, who is the new hero of the squad because of his wonderful kicking, is sure to be inserted somewhere and if he is not used at quarterback, it is logical that he will go to left end, a position in which he has had the greater part of his gridiron experience.

Minnesota.

The Minnesota players came through the South Dakota game in fine style, not a single serious injury being reported. Johnny McGovern sustained an injury to his right ankle early in the game Saturday, but the stocky little quarterback was out in uniform today ready to assist Dr. Williams in working up an attack for the "Aggies." Isle Johnston, captain of the Gopher team, who was injured in the Lawrence game and who was refused permission to get into the game against South Dakota, is rapidly recovering and the little leader hopes to take part in the battle with the Ames team next Saturday.

Kansas.

It is generally conceded in the Jayhawker football camp that the game with Ottawa university here Saturday was one of the poorest exhibitions of football ever staged on McCook field. The excessive heat for this time of the year is attributed as the greatest cause, yet behind all of that is the fact that the K. U. eleven is not the team that it has been in former years. There is not the material in it in the first place, and in the second place the men have not grasped the new rules and worked them into practical use as they should. With the schedule ahead that includes such schools as Washburn, Nebraska and Missouri, there seems to be but little hope for the Jayhawkers in the direction of ever-victorious goals.

The men may be able to keep a stiff upper lip during the early part of the season and succeed in coming out of the affrays without any serious scars. But the first big stone to roll out of the highway is Washburn. The Topeka school is strong on experienced men this year and there's no telling what may happen. Nebraska looks like a mountain to the Kansans in their present form and Missouri is equally as high an Alps to cross to reach the Italy of victory.

Colorado.

Boulder, Colo.—The state university football squad is looking up. It has had many dark days since the opening of school, but now the horizon of victory is in sight. The efforts of Coach Bill Folsom to revive the old-time and famous Colorado spirit have not been in vain. The men are taking more interest daily. Since the Freshman-East Denver game Saturday, the football situation has taken a turn and the prospects are exceedingly brighter.

When Folsom made his appeal for candidates a week ago, he had a scant squad of men to work with. He had the nucleus of a team in Captain and Guard John O'Brien. That was all he could brag of. He encouraged the freshmen to respond and relieve the emergency, and they turned out. He then appealed to the upper classmen and they came out as a matter of loyalty to their school. As a result

there are football players of several years' experience and men who never donned a football suit before on the field nightly. It is the thing Folsom has been looking for and he has been rewarded.

$1000 for One Story

A Prize Offer of $2250 for Three Short Stories by Girls' College Alumnae

The Editors of The Ladies' Home Journal offer to the alumnae of girls' colleges three prizes, amounting to $2250, for three short stories:

$1000 for the Best Short Story
$750 for the Next Best Short Story
$500 for the Third Best Short Story

Any phase of life of interest to women may be described. Do not be deterred from competing because you are not a writer or have not a literary style. If you have a story to tell, tell it to the best of your ability and let us judge the result. Even if your story does not take a prize it may be so attractive that we will want to buy it, for we hope to purchase a number of the stories in addition to the prize-winning ones.

Read These Special Points Carefully and Keep Them In Mind.

THE stories must contain at least two thousand words, but not more than seven thousand words. There is no limit to the number of stories which may be submitted by any one competitor.

Stories by two or more alumnae working in collaboration will be considered. The stories should be typewritten if possible. If that is out of the question then the handwriting should be neat and clear. Manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only, and sent either flat or folded. Do not roll them, nor send letters with them unless special explanations are needed.

Be careful to put your name, your address, the name of your college, and the year of your class at the head of the manuscript. If married give in parentheses your full name at the time of your graduation. Where manuscripts are the work of more than one graduate these details must be given by each collaborator.

Be sure to preserve the original manuscript or to retain a copy of your story, as no manuscripts will be returned. No postage, therefore, need be enclosed. Such stories as are found worthy will be awarded prizes; others will be considered for purchase at good rates; the rest will be destroyed.

We reserve the right to withhold any or all of the prizes if in our judgment the stories do not come up to the required standard.

This offer will remain open until November thirtieth. All stories must be mailed so as to be in our hands on or before that date.

Read these conditions over carefully. They are stated here as clearly as they can be stated; hence do not write to us about them, as such letters of inquiry cannot be answered.

Address all short stories intended for entry in this prize competition to
