THREE COYOTES ARE OUT

SOUTH DAKOTA SENDS OUT A "BEAR" STORY.

SATURDAY'S LINEUP IS DECIDED

KING COLE KNOCKS OFF SOME OF THE ROUGH SPOTS.

Two More Men Are Given Signals—Girls' Section in North Grandstand to be Reserved.

"King" Cole will start the South Dakota game with the same line-up that started in the Peru game. Several changes may be made during the course of the game and a number of men who are out for the 'varsity this year for the first time will probably be given a try-out.

According to the letter received by Manager Eager yesterday, in which the South Dakota coach submits his line-up, the Dakotans are coming to Lincoln in a somewhat crippled condition. The quarter has not returned from the Minnesota trip as he stopped. Another man is laid up with pneumonia and still another is out of the game with injuries received in the Minnesota game. As the letter stated, the Dakotans expect to give the Cornhuskers a "good practice game."

Team in Good Shape.

When the team trots onto the field Saturday they will be vastly better able to put up a stiff game than they were a week ago. During the first week's practice the coach merely smoothed off some of the rough edges. In the second week, however, it has been a different story.

"King" Cole has been pounding in the science of the new rules, with the open formations, forward passes, the changing of backfield positions and the hundred other little details that the new rules have brought.

That the pounding has had its results has been shown in the work of the 'varsity against the scrubs during the last two or three evenings. The new plays as well as the old ones go through without hesitation and the coaches are ceasing to worry over the problem of whether or not the players will be able to master the new rules. They are already mastered.

Two Men Join the Squad.

Two new candidates for the varsity were given the signals last night and thereby added to the squad—Russell and Seidell. Russell will be used as end and half and Seidell will be practiced at full, which position he has been playing on the scrub. Both are fast men and Coach Cole considers them a big addition to the squad.

Line-up for Saturday.

Following is the line-up which will be used to start the game, subject to change on the South Dakota side:

Nebraska.

Nebraska	Position	So. Dakota
Chauner.....	L. T.	C. Coffe.....
Shonka.....	L. T.	Barrett.....
Hornberger.....	L. G.	Lyons.....
Collins.....	C.	Potts.....
Elliot.....	R. G.	Downing.....
Temple.....	R. T.	Brown.....
Lofgren.....	R. E.	Saunders.....
Warner.....	Q. B.	P. Coffe.....
E. Frank.....	L. H.	Thackaberry.....
O. Frank.....	R. H.	Shuks.....
Rathbone.....	F. B.	Smith.....

Numerous inquiries have been made regarding the university girls' section of the grand stand and it has attracted considerable attention. Manager Eager predicts a big attendance in the little section labeled "Girls Only."

The girls' rest room will be opened Saturday afternoon for two hours before the game and university girls are invited to make use of it. This plan will be continued during the football season.

FINE CATTLE TAKEN TO SHOW.

Nebraska Represented in Royal Stock Exhibition at Kansas City.

The department of animal husbandry shipped an exhibit of fat cattle to Kansas City Tuesday for the American royal stock show. The exhibit is one of the best Nebraska has ever put out.

Herdsmen Charles Shumate accompanied the animals. Some of the cattle were prize winners at the International stock show in Chicago last December and it is expected that a number of blue ribbons will be won at the event next week.

Professor Smith, who has just returned from the Wyoming state fair, where he judged the cattle and horses, will go to Kansas City Monday. During September he made the awards at five state and inter-state fairs in the middle west.

MIDDIES DO NOT LIKE IT.

New Ruling of Naval Authorities Hits Midshipmen Hard.

At future Annapolis athletic contests, and especially at football games, the midshipmen will occupy seats reserved for them in the "midshipmen's grandstand." A middy may escort his lady to the game and put her in the seat he has reserved for her, but he must return to his own section before the game starts and remain there during the game.

Last year the middies were requested to sit together during the games in order to improve the rooting, but this year it has been found necessary to change the request to a command.—Ex.

GERMAN CLUB IN THE PARADE.

College Float a Big Feature in Yesterday's Festivities.

The "college float," fitted out by the German club of the University of Nebraska, in the German parade yesterday afternoon created much favorable comment. As the chariot, decorated with streamers of red and white bunting, buried in a mass of college and university pennants rumbled through the streets it was greeted with great applause.

Cheer after cheer resounded from the big wagon. The great "D. G. V." shield, the pin of the club on both sides, "old glory" and the German banner lent dignity and weight to the occasion.

Many compliments were showered upon the float which was considered one of the finest of the entire line.

Those occupying seats were: Leona Baker, Elizabeth Wittman, Estella Hardy, Gustave Fuchs, Edith Hanna, Cornelius Schulte, Herman Wiebe, Regina Schulte, Selma Anderson, Clarence Miller, Maybelle Davis, Ira Reed, Fred Colbert, Andrew Jubl, August Blomekamp, Ina Hendericks, Ernest Huberman and Herbert Grummann.

BACK FROM A LONG TOUR.

Mr and Mrs. E. B. Andrews Are Now at Home.

After nearly two years spent in visiting the countries of Europe and Africa, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benjamin Andrews have returned to their home in Lincoln. They left in January, 1909, and have since visited practically every important country in Europe.

They spent a great deal of time in Italy and the countries of southern Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews returned to this country last spring and spent the summer with friends in Massachusetts.

BATES IS JUNIOR PRESIDENT

NOMINATED AND ELECTED IN EXACTLY SEVEN MINUTES

IS CHOSEN WITHOUT OPPOSITION

FORMER PRESIDENT HAWLEY PRESIDED AT MEETING.

New President is Lincoln High School Graduate—Prominent in His Class.

Verne Bates was yesterday unanimously elected president of the junior class. Never before in the history of the university has a class election been conducted in less than fifteen minutes. Yesterday, however, the meeting was called to order, the nomination made, the election held, the acceptance address delivered and the meeting adjourned in only seven minutes.

Only seven short minutes were used for the transaction of all the business of the day. No dark horse put in an appearance, the one candidate having everything his own way. Former President Robert Hawley presided.

Nominated by W. R. Power.

W. R. Powers, of Ponca, nominated Bates immediately after the gavel fell. G. L. Clark of Lincoln rose without delay to move that the nominations come to a close. His motion carried without opposition. Power, in nominating Bates, said: "I am going to nominate a man so well known that he does not need an introduction—Mr. Bates."

The election was by acclamation and was made unanimous. Bates immediately took the chair. He thanked the class for the honor given him, promised to guard the honor of the class, and to guide the ship as wisely and impartially as possible. He announced that the next meeting would be held in about two weeks, the exact date to be announced in the Daily Nebraskan. All other officers will be elected at that meeting.

Bates a L. H. S. Man.

Bates' home is at Lodgepole, Neb. He is a graduate of the Lincoln high school, and has been rewarded by an unanimous vote to fill an important position. He will have the power and responsibility of appointing chairmen and members of no less than five important committees.

Sears Alone.

Sears still has things his own way in the sophomore class. He apparently has things as much his way among the second year students as Bates had in the third year class. No one has appeared who desires to run against the Omaha man, and nothing is expected among sophomore leaders to change the outlook for the election of Sears.

The freshmen so far have failed to produce a candidate. Many of the students who desire the office, and have been urged to run have decided that they will wait until later in the term.

The fraternity rushing season is responsible for the inattention among the members of the class of 1911. Many of the prominent first year men are holding off doing anything in political lines until they have decided which fraternity they will join.

An Omaha man is expected to enter the field, however, before the rushing season closes. Rumors of his candidacy were prevalent on the campus Thursday evening, but no confirmation of the report was made. It is expected that two more candidates, one from Lincoln, and a state-wide candidate will also be in the race shortly, as the election of a leader for this semester will probably be held Thursday, October 13.

CONVOCATION PROGRAM.

Musicians Appeared Thursday Morning in Memorial Hall.

The following program was given at convocation Thursday morning, October 6:

Mr. Sidney Silber, pianist.
Mr. Carl Steckelberg, violinist.
Mr. Richard Calles, cellist.
Mendelssohn—Trio, C minor, Op. 66.
Allegro e con fuoco.
Andante espressivo.
Molto allegro quasi presto.
Messrs. Silber, Steckelberg and Calles.
Popper..... Gavotte
Messrs. Calles and Silber.

DRAMATIC CLUB TRYOUTS.

Students Will Have a Chance to Show Stage Ability.

The Dramatic club will hold its annual "tryout" Thursday, October 20, at 7 o'clock, in the Temple theatre. Those wishing to try out must give a scene or part of a scene from some play, or selection admitting of dramatic interpretation. A reading will not be considered a fair test of a person's ability. It is advised that several work together in "try-out."

Miss Whittier will be in U. 106 from 11 to 12 on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and from 1 to 2 on Fridays, with the time schedule.

The following list of authors and plays are suggested for "try-outs":
Shakespeare's plays.

"The Rivals."
"She Stoops to Conquer."
"School for Scandal."
"The Servant in the House."
"The Melting Pot" (L'Algon).
"The Climbers."
(Bang's Farces), "A Proposal Under Difficulties," etc.
(Howell's Farces), "Mouse Trap," etc.

(Yeats), "Land of Heart's Desire."
Scenes from Clyde Fitch's plays, Bernard Shaw's or Pinero's.
"Esmeralda."
"Nance Oldfield."
(Dickens), "The Holly Tree Inn."
(Lytton), "Lady of Lyons," "Richelieu."

BIBLE CLASSES ARRANGED.

Y. W. C. A. Making Active Plans for Work of the Year.

Miss Schultz of the Y. W. C. A. is busy making arrangements for the Bible study work of the year. Classes are being formed with a gratifying early enrollment. Following is a schedule of the weekly Bible classes: Studies in Old Testament characters, Miss Fannie Drake, Tuesday, 5-6 p. m.; The Prophets, Rev. Hayes, beginning November 1; The Leading Ideas of the Gospel, Rev. Leland, Monday, 7-8 p. m.; The Sources of the Life of Jesus, Rev. Leland, Wednesday, 7-8 p. m.; The Life of Christ, Miss Schultz, Monday, 5-6 p. m.; The Life of Paul, Merle Thomas, Tuesday, 5-6 p. m.; Teachers' Training, Professor Barker. Missionary classes are as follows: Africa, Miss Hartley, Monday, 4-5 p. m.; Apologetic of Missions, Miss Schultz, Thursday, 3-4 p. m.; Call of the Home Land, Mrs. Der Kinderin, Wednesday, 3-4 p. m.; China, Dr. Walker, Monday, 5-6 p. m.; Korea, Miss McKinnon; India, Miss Washburn, Tuesday, 5-6 p. m.; Japan, Miss Watson, Wednesday, 12:15-12:5 p. m.; South America, Miss Walker, Monday, 5-6 p. m.; Knights of Sabaarm, Miss Roberts, Monday, 3-4 p. m.; Turkey, Mrs. Hinman, Thursday, 5-6 p. m.; Word and World, Miss Hesseltin, Tuesday, 4-5 p. m.

The student body at the University of Oregon has passed resolutions to the effect that every student should tip his hat to the president of the university and to his own particular dean.

"TIGHTENING UP" ON CADETS

COMMANDANT YATES LAYS DOWN STRINGENT REGULATIONS.

NO MORE EXCUSES FROM RANKS

MUCH RED TAPE IS NO LONGER A NECESSITY.

To Escape Drill a Cadet Must Appear in Person Before Commandant Yates.

Two announcements which involve two significant changes in the military department of the University of Nebraska were officially made last night. One, when executed, threatens the enactment of much more stringent regulations in regard to the granting of temporary excuses from drill. The other assures explicitly a "tightening up" policy in the former somewhat lenient requirements in dress uniformity and other minor things respecting the general appearance of cadets.

By order of Captain Yates, the old method of securing temporary excuses from cadet ranks has been abolished. The adoption of the change is attributed to three reasons: First, that the former policy entailed far too much red tape upon the cadets to secure any success. Second, that carelessness on the part of company captains was the source of granted excuses which were otherwise unjustifiable. Third, that the commanding officer may be so situated that he may familiarize himself with a majority of the "confirmed sufferers."

According to the policy of obtaining permits which prevailed last year, the "O. K." of the company captain was the first thing desired; next, the cadet must receive the sanction of the adjutant; lastly, the commandant's "O. K." This year no written excuses will be required, but the offending party must appear in person before Commandant Yates at a specified time and present reasons why he should not be demerited. Limitations will also be made upon the extent of time allowed the cadet for making his appearance.

The other announcement made in the department is that hereafter one field officer will be detailed each evening as officer of the day. This is an office which never before existed at Nebraska except during camp. The duties of the officer of the day are clearly summed up in the words "Inspection Deputy." He must report a daily list of the absentees and may give demerits for the numerous little offenses so common in the ranks.

The appointment of F. E. Rhode to the position of captain and regimental adjutant, left vacant by the failure of R. W. Patterson to return to the University this year, was made known last night. F. E. Rhode was formerly first lieutenant of Company "K."

The cadets are being put through a thorough drill in setting up exercises, marching exercises, and salutes this week, the same to be continued through next week. Following the preliminary work, instruction in the Manual of Arms will be given.

A Kovarik, who studied the last year at the University of Manchester under Professor E. Rutherford, noted scientist and winner of the Nobel prize for his work in radio-activity, has been awarded the most important fellowship in the Manchester school of science. The fellowship was given for valuable research work in radio-activity. The regents have given him another year's leave in consequence.

The engineering students of the University of Minnesota are constructing an elevated railroad three miles long.
