OCTOBER 11, 1910.

Good morning, Freshmen. Did you have a good night's sleep?

Now that the rushing season is over the fraternity men have their honor system to work on.

Talk about your rooting! Genuine Nebraska spirit was shown at the game Saturday. That is the proper idea. Show your spirit. Get up enthusiasm. Nebraska is always in the game.

Men of the university are enthusiastic about debating. Since university women are barred from athletics, why do they not take up this line of work to win honors? Here is a field for the women. Men, look to your laurels if the women decide to debate.

At last someone has contributed to "The Forum." This is what we have been looking for. Come again.

The Y. M. C. A. is one of the best organizations in the university. Support a worthy student enterprise. Join the association now, and help ness about this. We are going after the Gophers in the next game and no 49 to 0 score will result. Nebraska has a football team that is a football team. It is up to men and women of the university to show the Scarlet and Cream heroes that we are with them, in victory and defeat. It's up to you to be there.

INDIANA SURPRISES STAGG.

Hoosiers Defeat Maroons for the First Time.

Chicago.—James Milton Sheldon, pupil, conquered his old master Saturday at Marshall field, when Indiana, for the first time in its history, defeated Chicago at football. The score was 6 to 0 and the victory was an earned one without the semblance of a fluke.

It is true the maroons scored on touchdown, which was disallowed by the officials on account of the holding, but the Midwayites were outplayed in the latter stages of the game.

For the first three quarters of the game, the teams were tied at 0 to 0 and then just at the beginning of the final quarter the Hoosiers executed two clever forward passes and scored the only touchdown of the game.

TOUGH FOR THE TIGERS.

New York University Proves Strong and Holds Princeton Down.

Princeton, N. J.—Although playing the first game of the season, New York university's football eleven proved a much tougher proposition Saturday than Princeton expected and the Tigers were lucky to win without being scored on. The final score was 12 to 0. The New Yorkers used the forward pass with telling effect four

THE FORUM.

To the Editor of the Daily Nebraskan:

In an announcement a few days ago of the coming freshman class election I noticed that it is to be "conducted by the president of the junior class." By that I infer it is the custom for the junior president to act as chairman of the meeting.

It appears to me that this is uncalled for. Not that I wish to criticize any practice of the institution, but why cannot the freshmen be given the same privilege in holding their meetings, choosing their officers and transacting their business as is given the other classes? What we, as freshmen, do at a class meeting can certainly be no affair of the junior class. Why, therefore, should we be compelled to transact our matters of business through the "president of the junior class"?

Perhaps we need the advice and guiding influence of an experienced "politician," but if there is a member of the freshmen class who thinks his classmates and himself need the assistance of a junior in holding a class election, he is not a loyal member of the class of 1914. There would be vastly more satisfaction to the freshmen in choosing from their own number someone to preside than in passively allowing a junior to take things out of their hands.

If the freshmen are incapable of holding a meeting all by themselves, well and good. Then let junior, senior or whosoever will, step in and run things to suit himself. But if they are able, even desirous, of holding their meeting without outside interference, why not let them do it?

Fellow freshmen, wouldn't it be a good idea to overturn an undesirable tradition and show that we are able to worry along by ourselves?

A FRESHMAN.

place Nebraska at the head of the list of university Y. M. C. A.'s.

Have you corrected your address? If not, do so at once. The university directory is made up from the addresses in the registrar's office. It is essential for the records to be correct to make the directory a success.

The student and faculty tickets are still on sale. They will, however, be withdrawn soon. If you desire to attend all the rest of the athletic events of the year, buy a ticket at once.

The university glee club deserves the support of the entire student body. Starting last year with only past memories as a basis, it has developed until today it upholds the reputation of Nebraska standards.

A few knockers were at the game Saturday. They found delight in criticizing everything that happened. Nebraska supporters felt as though these persons were a nuisance. They were. If they are students they should be kicked out; if Lincolinites, thrown out.

The football team leaves for Minnesota Thursday night. It is up to every loyal rooter to give them a "send off." A genuine "send off" and nothing else. No half-hearted busi-times, gaining 100 yards in this manner. Princeton was successful with this play three out of four times, the first forward pass from Pendleton to Dunlap resulting in a touchdown. New York frequently threatened Princeton's goal, once losing the ball by inches on downs within a yard of the Tigers' goal. Summary and score by quarters:

Princeton .....6 6 0 0

MICHIGAN, THREE; CASS, THREE.

Yost's Men Are Not Able to Do Anything With Cass.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Cass sprung a surprise on Michigan Saturday at Ferry field, holding Yost's men to one field goal and scoring one themselves. Lawton, for Michigan, booted the first in eight minutes of play from the Cass twenty-five-yard line.

Cass evened it up in the second period when Hellar put the leather between the posts at the start of the second quarter, after Twitchell had made a fair catch on the thirty-three-yard line.

Michigan did not attempt the open style of play until the last period and could not gain consistently.

Coach Stagg of Chicago has revived his old friend, the ghost ball, again in his endeavors to whip the Maroon players into shape.
