SIXTEEN MEN ARE PICKED

UNIVERSITY DEBATE SQUAD TO GET TO WORK MONDAY.

TRY-OUTS ARE HELD SATURDAY

SIX LINCOLNITES SELECTED — TWO FROM BEATRICE.

Omaha Unrepresented on the Squad
—Team to Be Selected from These Men.

For periods of seven minutes each (twenty-six men spoke Saturday in Memorial hall, presenting arguments for either the affirmative or negative side of the "closed shop" question as they happened to be chosen at the selection of sides for the try-outs Thursday. The subject which will be debated this year will be one submitted by Minnesota last spring and which was accepted by all the schools which were members of the Central Debating League.

Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois and Nebraska are the institutions which have membership in this organization, and on a set date two teams from each university debate, one team speaking on the home platform and one at a foreign school. All teams debate on the same evening. The question which was chosen is "Resolved, that the movement of organized labor for the closed shop should receive the support of public opinion."

The Judges.

The intercollegiate debating honors for the year at the university were awarded Saturday by Prof. H. W. Caldwell, Prof. E. B. Conant and Prof. G. O. Virtue, who acted as judges at the selection of the sixteen members of the debating squad. The work in this line being rewarded with credit in rhetoric 22.

From the members of this seminary course, Nebraska's eight representatives in the Central Debating League will be picked for the contests with the University of Wisconsin here at Lincoln and the University of Illinois at Urbana.

Of the sixteen honors, six went to Lincoln men, two to graduates of the Beatrice high school, and the rest were scattering. For the first time in several years Omaha will not be represented at the squad redoubtable. According to an announcement of Prof. Fogg, the work of the course will be organized Monday, when the members will begin to systematically grind out evidence to hurl at Wisconsin and Illinois.

The Squad.

The members of the squad who won places in the competition Saturday are as follows:

Thomas G. Andrews, law '12, Lincoln; William L. Bates, '12, Lincoln; Clarence L. Clark, '12, Lincoln; Horace B. English, '13, Lincoln; Geo. N. Foster, law '11, Sterling; Ralph W. Garrett, '12, Madison; Ralph E. Hall-dorson, '12, Lincoln; George R. Mann, '13, Ord; Byrne C. Marcellus, '11, Lincoln; Arthur M. Oberfelder, '11, Sidney; Clifford F. Phillips, '13, Beatrice; Anan R. Raymond, '11, Fairmont; Clifford R. Rein, '13, Loup City; David M. Rogers, '12, Randolph; Walter A. Vasey, law '12, Beatrice; Joseph T. Votava, law '11, Edholm.

The final try-out for the fall debating teams was held at the University of Illinois Friday night. The following men succeeded in placing: J. C. Searle, J. V. Stevenson, R. J. Robinson, C. M. Walter, L. A. Zearing and J. C. O'Connor. These men will compose the teams which will meet Nebraska at Urbana and Minnesota at Minneapolis.

Adopts Squad System.

The University of Minnesota, according to the Minnesota Daily, has adopted the squad system of choosing debating teams. By this plan the personnel of the intercollegiate teams is selected after the men of the squad have been tested as to their powers of investigation and effective oral discussion.

The Sixteen Men.

Ralph E. Hall-dorson, 1912, of Lincoln, was on the sophomore team last year.

George Russell Mann, 1913, of Ord, won the central Nebraska teachers' association's debate in 1904, and represented the Ord high school in the interscholastic debate at Lincoln in 1904 and again in 1905, winning first honors in 1905. He has taken part in twelve high school debates, and taught school three years before he entered the university in 1909. He made the squad in his freshman year.

Byrne C. Marcellus, 1911, comes from Wisconsin, but is now a resident of Lincoln. He is a graduate of the Brock, Neb., high school, and in 1908 of the Peru state normal school. He has taught at the Crete high school for two years and came to the university last year when he won membership on the squad and was appointed alternate on the team that met Minnesota.

Arthur M. Oberfelder, 1911, was graduated from the Sidney high school in 1907. In 1906 he won a prize for oratory in the state contest; in 1908-1909 he was on the sophomore team; and in 1909-1910 he was on the junior team that won the championship on Phi Beta Kappa day. He was president of the junior class last year, and is a member of the Innocents and of Phi Alpha Tau.

Clifford F. Phillips, 1913, was on six debate teams from Beatrice high school and was orator of his class.

Anan R. Raymond, 1911, recently elected president of his class, was a member of the team that captured the class championship last year. He is senior managing editor of the Cornhusker and a member of Phi Alpha Tau.

Clifford L. Rein, 1913, was graduated from the Loup City high school in 1909. There he won a scholarship entitling him to free admission to several denominational colleges. He represented Loup City for two years in interscholastic debating. He won a place on the squad in his freshman year.

David H. Rogers, 1912, of Randolph, Neb., was valedictorian of his class at high school and won a place on the freshman debating team which won the class championship of the university for 1908-1909. He was on the squad his freshman year.

Walter R. Vasey, law 1911, comes from Beatrice, which high school he represented on four debate teams, and also at the Southeastern Nebraska Teachers' Association debating contest. He was class orator and took high rank in scholarship. Last year he was a member of the sophomore debating team.

Joseph T. Votava, 1910, law 1911, of Edholm, is a graduate of the Fremont normal school, where he won the Tribune oratorical contest in 1904. He was a member of the university debating squad in 1906-1907 and debated with Wisconsin at Madison in 1908; and with Minnesota at Lincoln last December. He is a member of Phi Alpha Tau and Phi Delta Phi.
