SPECIAL CLASSES FOR UNIMEN

AN OPPORTUNITY TO TAKE UTILITARIAN STUDIES.

Afternoon and Evening Classes in Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Typewriting,
Penmanship At Nebraska School of Business.

EXPERIENCE OF UNIVERSITY MEN

The Nebraska School of Business, located in the Hall Bros. building, 1519 O street, is organizing special afternoon and evening classes at convenient hours for university students who wish to study either shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping or penmanship. The evening classes meet three evenings each week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday. University students may arrange for any number of hours per week that they may wish to take, and the rates for tuition will be very reasonable. The instruction is given by teachers of long experience and recognized ability.

Mr. Glenn O. Taylor, B. A., LL. B., speaking from his own experience, says: "I have no hesitation in saying that I believe the freshman in college makes a mistake if he does not avail himself of the opportunity of studying shorthand and typewriting. The student who has a knowledge of shorthand has not only a very rapid means of taking notes from class work to be used later as references in preparation for reviews and examinations, but also has a knowledge which may be readily turned into money during his spare hours and vacations. Moreover, such student, when his college course is finished, is assured immediate employment in the commercial world."

Mr. Frank Oates, a student of the N. S. B., who held a position with the B. & M. in this city last year, is now paying his way through Northwestern, at Evanston, with his shorthand and typewriting.

Any university students interested in these special classes are invited to call at the school and obtain further particulars. The school is located on O street in the Hall Bros. building, just east of the F. & M. bank.

GOPHERS TRAMP OVER AMES.

McGovern and Other Veterans Run Up a Big Score.

Minneapolis.—Minnesota triumphed over the Ames agriculturists from Iowa Saturday on Northrop field by the score of 49 to 0. The Gophers showed great form and found the Ames line for gains on almost every play. The score would probably have been larger, but Dr. Williams kept substituting reserves for his regulars as the game progressed.

This was Minnesota's third game of the season, but they did not try half the number of their plays against the Iowans. McGovern was a big star individually and besides making a pretty drop kick in the early part of the first period, was a ground gainer every time he took the ball.

Captain Johnson, who has been on the side lines for the last two games with a sore shoulder, got in the first half of Saturday's battle and played a brilliant game. Rosenwaig was a consistent ground gainer for the Gophers, while the Erdell brothers also did good offensive work.

Missouri.

Wilder and Johnson, veteran full-back and tackle, probably will be eligible for the Iowa game, October 15, and are now practicing with Hollenback's squad. Shuck and Burress, ends, did great work in the scrimmage Tuesday. Aubrey Alexander, who has played out his time and is a student in the law school, was made an assistant coach at the meeting of the athletic board last night. John Nowell is doing well at half back, and probably will be used against Rolla Saturday. Hollenback is still demanding more men to pick his team from. The squad numbers nearly sixty men. The Missouri back field is as good as any coach could ask for, but the Tiger line is weak. It permitted the scrubs to sift through on offense, and was anything but holeproof on defense.

Northwestern.

After the hardest kind of scrimmage for an hour Thursday with the Northwestern squad, Coach Hammett admitted that he felt blue over the outlook. "The men certainly have not got together yet. They are slow, slow, and I simply can't get the speed into them."

The men are beginning to show improvement. The freshmen were the first to bear the brunt of the 'varsity attack and then the scrubs, whose team now contains several former university players. The two teams kicked off and played a regular game for half an hour. The scrubs have a new coach, and he seems to have put a finer spirit into them than the 'varsity themselves showed. Their new coach is Professor Fox, the astronomer, who formerly played at the University of Kansas, and later at Dartmouth.

Chicago.

New football in its ultra modern phases will be the bill when Chicago and Indiana meet at Marshall field next Saturday in the initial conference game of the season. For the first time the 1910 brand of gridiron play will get a thorough try-out. Coach Stagg has decided to open up his tricks to the populace to boom the get-away.

The Maroon coach is going to oppose tricks with tricks as a means of humbling the expectant Hoosiers, and the new game will sizzle behind closed gates at the Maroon camp for the next two days in preparation. Instead of trying to bolster up his defense, Coach Stagg will devote every facility of his camp to instilling his prize inventions into his players.

The Midway athletes have a small repertoire at present, but some of the players are the most spectacular ever brought out in the west, according to the veterans who have seen them.
