GOPHERS TAKE CORNHUSKERS' MEASURE, SCORE 27 TO 0

McGOVERN HANGS UP 11, WHILE ROSENWALD ADDS 10

Pickering Supplies 5 More and Morill Makes 1—Captain Temple, O. Frank and Collins Star for Nebraska in the Contest

Nebraska lost to Minnesota in a football game played Saturday at Minneapolis by a score of 27 to 0. Minnesota had the game bottled up and laid away from the very start and the Cornhuskers never had a chance.

Minnesota had a wonderful backfield. McGovern, Stevens, Johnston and Rosenwald played a perfect game, and with a powerful line in front of them pounded through Nebraska line and around the ends for gain after gain.

Cornhuskers Fight Bravely.
One thing can be said for the Cornhuskers—although beaten in the first quarter, they did not give up, but came back at their opponents with grit and stubbornness, fighting every inch of the way.

Minnesota scored in the first quarter almost before the Nebraska root-at Omaha last year—if anything, he surpassed it. Time and again he darted through the line or around the ends for long runs. The Cornhuskers could not stop him, for even when tackled he had a wiggling, squirming run which nearly always tore him loose.

Temple, O. Frank and Collins.
For the Cornhuskers, Temple, Owen Frank and Collins were the men who brought joy to the little band of Nebraskans watching the game. Temple held up his side of the line and frequently broke up offensive plays. Owen Frank played his usual brilliant game in breaking up interference and blocking attempted end runs. Collins several times broke through the Minnesota line and pulled down a runner before he could get started.

Minnesota had a decided advantage in the exchange of punts, McGovern and Pickering kicked better than Frank and the Gophers as a rule made greater gains on returning punts.

Nebraska could not gain through the line Minnesota put up and could make only a few gains around the ends. Minnesota may have had a strong team last year, but the one this year is said to be the strongest the institution has ever had. The Gopher line surprised even the Minnesotans. They had expected a strong backfield, but had been dubious regarding their line. The first few minutes of play dispelled all doubt.

Elliott Hurt.
Only one accident of any consequence happened to mar the game. Elliott, left guard for the Cornhuskers, was thrown hard in the last few minutes of play and was carried off the field with a broken collar bone. He may be out of the game the remainder of the season. If Elliott had stayed out of the game the Nebraska line will lose one of its strongest men. Nebraska tried the forward pass only a few times, but made several of the biggest gains on this play. Robinson, McGovern and Rosenwald featured in the forward passes made by Minnesota.

In the first quarter Minnesota piled up 16 points and added five more to the number in the second quarter. In the last two quarters, if the score may be taken as a standard, Nebraska played a far better game than in the first two quarters. Minnesota failed to make a touchdown after the first half, and the remaining six points were made by McGovern on two drop kicks, one in each quarter of the last half.

The Cornhuskers will meet Denver on Nebraska field Saturday, October 22. Denver has a strong team this year and a good game is looked for. So far no Denver "dope" has drifted this direction, but the Mountaineers will likely be heard from this week.

Scrimmage work will commence again today, and Coach Cole will commence getting his team in shape for the game next Saturday. The practice last night consisted of signal work alone, and the team did not go into scrimmage.

No Rates to Kansas.

Manager Eager urges that every student who can go to Lawrence for the Kansas game. He makes this announcement now because the railroads have refused to grant special rates for the game and it will be necessary for all who go to pay full fare. No rates were granted last year and Kansas sent an unusually large delegation. Manager Eager does not like to think the Nebraska delegation will be smaller than the one sent up here from Kansas. Fraternities or sororities desiring to charter Pullmans may do so by engaging eighteen berths. Plans are being pushed to run a special to meet the Jayhawkers.

STUDENTS ARE TO BE AIDED

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD WILL SET ASIDE 5 PER CENT.

REV. DEAN R. LELAND IS IN CHARGE

STATE CHURCH CONTRIBUTIONS TO FURTHER MOVEMENT.

Complete Plans to Be Announced at a Later Day—Worthy Men and Women Will Be Assisted.

That all students of the University of Nebraska, who have previously manifested a desire to "make good" but have been financially hampered, will now receive a hearing and probably financial assistance, is a fact recently attested by the Presbyterian synod at Beatrice. This assembly decreed that five per cent of the state contributions of the Presbyterian churches of Nebraska be apportioned as a fund to be used exclusively in the interest of university students who are conscientiously trying to acquire a higher education, but who have not financial means to back their efforts.

Movement Planned.

A movement of this nature has been on foot for a long time, probably instigated by the apparent necessity for such a fund. Attempts have been frequently made to determine a means of assisting students along money lines without inflicting heavy interest requirements. The action of the Presbyterian church, which has developed much interest among the university students, is the first successful attempt to actually apportion money for student use only.

The plan of the Presbyterians will be announced in detail at a later date. The five per cent contribution fund having been secured, it will be the duty of the Rev. Dean R. Leland of Lincoln to see that it is properly expended among the worthy students. It is thought that a double benefit will at least be derived from this apportionment, namely, not only that it will materially aid well meaning students, but also that it will provide numerous ways and devices for organizing the large number of university students in Lincoln and attending to their religious as well as scholastic requirements.

Rev. Leland in Charge.

Rev. Dean R. Leland, who will be the chief executive in charge of the benefit fund, is very popular among the university students. Having been actively engaged about Lincoln as the head of the educational committee, he has gained much prominence among the students, and, by his association with them, has been placed in an excellent position to know the needs of the different Nebraskans, and can administer to them accordingly.

Dr. Richard C. Hughes of Madison, Wisconsin, is in Lincoln now visiting Dr. Leland and investigating the plans to be employed by the Presbyterians in their work among Nebraska students. Dr. Hughes is the field secretary of the national board of education and has had a great deal of experience with university students. He also attended the Presbyterian synod at Beatrice.

WILL M. MAUPIN TO SPEAK.

Deputy Labor Commissioner to Address Debaters.

Mr. Will M. Maupin, deputy labor commissioner for Nebraska, will address the members of rhetoric 22 this morning at 7:15 o'clock at U107D on the closed vs. the open shop. This is the question which the teams debating Wisconsin at Lincoln and Illinois at Urbana will discuss.

NEBRASKAN AN INVENTOR.

Harry D. Podelsak, 1894, Gains Fame by His Work.

The Farm Implement News of July 28th contains a description of one of the fine new self-binders built by the John Deere company. This new binder is the invention of Mr. Harry D. Podelsak, a graduate from the engineering department with the class of 1894. Mr. Podelsak has had wide experience as a designer and experimental expert with the International Harvester company.

Y. W. CLASSES START WORK.

Sections Organized and Registrations Almost Complete.

The first session for the University of Nebraska Y. W. C. A. Bible study classes starts tonight. With the classes fairly organized and the registrations almost completed, the Y. W. C. A. officials announce that they have every indication for a very profitable season in Bible study work.

A very unique little pamphlet has recently been issued by the association which contains, in part, a class schedule of the course. All members who have not yet enrolled in any of the classes and do not know the prescribed courses, are requested to procure one of these "Did You Know" booklets.

The course in "The Life of Christ," by Miss Carrie K. Schultz, and the course in "The Leading Ideas of the Gospel," by Rev. Dean R. Leland, started last night, the former at 5 to 6, the latter 7 to 8. The course in "The Life of Paul," by Miss Merle Thomas, has received very few registrations, and its organization is so far uncertain.

DR. H. H. EVERETT RESIGNS

INSTRUCTOR IN MEDICAL COLLEGE ASKS TO GO.

CAME AS A SURPRISE TO ALL

ACTION UNEXPECTED—NOTHING DONE ON MATTER SO FAR.

No Notice Given by Dr. Everett Regarding the Matter Until His Request Was Filed.

Dr. H. H. Everett, professor in the medical college, yesterday resigned his position as a member of the faculty of the university.

This action came as a complete surprise to students and faculty members as well. Dr. Everett has been connected with the faculty of the medical college for some time, and the reason for his resignation is unknown.

No Statement.

When asked about this action Monday evening Dr. Everett stated that he had nothing to say at the present time about the matter.

No further information could be secured regarding the resignation of Dr. Everett. Faculty members and students have no information on the action of Dr. Everett.

Notice.

The Cornhusker Tackle Who Fought to the Finish.

ers had time to realize that the game had begun. With a whirlwind attack, the Gophers carried the ball down the field and sent McGovern across the line for a touchdown. Three touchdowns with one kicked goal were marked up before the end of the first fifteen minutes of play.

The Cornhuskers rallied in the second quarter, and had it not been for a fumble by Warner on Nebraska's twenty-five yard line would have held the Gophers without a score. McGovern repeated his performance
