OCTOBER 18, 1910.

Owing to circumstances which arose the Daily Nebraskan extra for Saturday was cancelled. Promises had been made by both city dailies that no extra would be published. Early Saturday afternoon both papers announced extra editions. When the result of the game was announced one daily withheld its extra—the other was published. On account of having as competitors the city papers the Nebraskan extra was cancelled at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Talk about nerve. The sophomores certainly have it. They will elect officers today, before the juniors have had a chance to "speak up."

The knell of football for 1910 is already heard in the distance. Fall track, fall tennis, cross-country running and basket ball appear and make themselves acquainted. The numerous kinds of fall athletics may be taken as an excuse to abolish football entirely, the first thing we know.

Reports have it that Illinois beat Chicago Saturday. We are sorry for "Chi," but we also feel like extending the glad hand to Illinois. However, the Cornhuskers are grinding away to win forensic honors from Illinois De-been so large. Perhaps this might have happened and that might have happened. But the Nebraska game with Minnesota will go down in history as a defeat for the Cornhuskers. Ten years from now the score will not have changed, but the cause and effect will have passed away as a dream. Nebraska students should be true Nebraska men the same as the football heroes were and never say die. Stand up for all there is in the school. Little things like this is what count in the long run. It is up to the men and women of the university to rally around one of the best teams that Nebraska ever had, and support it. Cheer for them, yell for them, do anything that will show the twenty-five men of the football squad that the student body is with them heart and soul. For the sake of all that you wish to hold dear as memories of Nebraska spirit never let the football team return to Lincoln without a resemblance of welcome when they have met defeat on a foreign gridiron.

TEGNER SOCIETY MEETS.

Organization of Swedish Students Hold Second Meeting.

The Tegner Society met Saturday evening for the second time this semester. The attendance showed a healthy increase over the previous meeting.

The speaker of the evening was Prof. Carl C. Engberg, who in fluent Swedish spoke on the urgency of studying Swedish. Prof. Engberg expressed the hope that many might take advantage of the opportunities presented by the Tegner Society, also that a goodly number might seize the opportunity to take the Swedish courses offered in the university.

Further numbers on the program were piano solos by Miss Leonora tions be printed in the Daily Nebraskan.

The university of Nebraska urges all young people, who can, to take a four-year high school course and prepare to enter college. Some, however, cannot spend the time required by the high school and college courses. For the benefit of these, the University established, a number of years ago, the ember 2. Perhaps we can revenge that 3 to 0 defeat for you, Chicago.

Northwestern has adopted this slogan, "We'll put hobbler skirts on Chicago." Perhaps when Johnnie McGovern adds a new fall hat to Northwestern's contribution, Staggs will want to change football in a "ring-around-the-rosy."

Seven hundred students bade the team God speed. Not even seventeen assembled to welcome them back. A worthy tribute to the efforts of the men attempting to uphold the honor of the university on the gridiron. Don't try to explain. It is evident that a large percentage of the students are suffering from something besides too much enthusiasm.

The football game Saturday was an example of but one thing. That is that Chicago conference football is ahead of Missouri Valley football. Why this should be, is hard to say. Nebraska men entered upon this great contest as true Nebraska men. They fought valiantly and lost. No blame should be heaped upon their shoulders. They did their best. The best in all any man can do. Minnesota had the best team, and the best team win. Perhaps the score should not have

FUNKHOUSER FUNERAL.

Former Member of Class of 1913 is Buried in Chicago.

The body of Robert O. Funkhouser, who died at Princeton last Wednesday, arrived in Lincoln Sunday at 7:05 a. m. The body was accompanied by Dr. Louis Funkhouser of St. Louis and a sister. Funeral services were held at Holy Trinity Episcopal church. Deceased was a cross-bearer at this church when at home, and he was buried in his robe.

Following the services the body was taken to Chicago, where interment was held in Rose Hill cemetery.

The class of 1914 at Princeton adopted the following resolutions:

Forasmuch as it hath pleased God in his all-wise providence to remove from us our beloved classmate and friend, Robert Funkhouser, and

Whereas our class in his untimely death has suffered a great and keenly felt loss, be it

Resolved, that we, the class of 1914, extend to the family our deepest sympathy in their great sorrow, and be it further

Resolved that copies of these resolu-

1913 TO MEET.

Second Year Class to Elect Minor Officers.

At a meeting of the sophomore class this morning in Memorial hall, the minor officers will be elected and committee appointments announced by President Sears. A report will be heard from the Olympics committee. The committee are anxious that all men who are intending to be candidates for the wrestling and boxing contests begin training without delay. There will be some important business to transact regarding the approaching Olympics. Sophomores are planning for an organization which they hope will prove a stone wall to the freshmen.

CHEMISTS TO MEET.

Nebraska Section to Assemble Saturday, October 22.

The sixty-first regular meeting of the Nebraska section of the American Chemistry Society will be held in the chemistry lecture room Saturday, October 22, at 8 p. m. Dr. C. F. Crowley will speak. His subject is, "A Contrast of the Natural Resources of Nebraska Compared with Those of the Pacific Coast States."
