OCTOBER 19, 1910.

Who said anything about spring fever? The latest addition to the afflictions of the university students is fall fever.

Since the Minneapolis episode of last Saturday, this much can be said of "King" Cole's men: They are good fighters and good losers.

Why would it not be a good idea to appoint a special custodian for the tennis tournament slate? It looks like there is no other way to keep tally on the game.

Preparations for the Olympics go on! Keep it up, freshmen and sophomores, and when you meet October 29, do not let up until you have either been hopelessly beaten or you are able to flaunt the banner of victory in the eyes of your opponents.

Basketball season is on, making one more opportunity for loyal students to do something for the school. What does it matter whether you are a "star" or not? The very fact of your being out in a suit will be a wonderful help.

into the habit of referring to the new field as the "athletic grounds." Any one having any suggestions for a good name for the new field may send them to the Daily Nebraskan, and we will publish them. Now is the time to christen the field and give it an appropriate title. Send in your suggestions.

Two is company,
 Three is a crowd,
 Four in the hallway are not allowed.
 —George Ade (with apologies to Aesop's Fables).

Nevertheless when a Nebraska student starts up one of the hallways of University hall he must adopt the tactics of one of "King" Cole's proteges. If he desires to get to his class on time. Going through the crowd he may hear things like this from the numerous groups of "gossipers":
 "Oh! I had the best time last—"
 "But he isn't speedy enough to—"
 "Have you seen Grace's new—"
 "Come on, let's go down to the gate and—"
 "Oh! hello, there. I just heard—"
 "Now Kansas is coming on in—"
 Etc.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED.

PI Delta Epsilon Organize and Elect Honorary Members.

The Nebraska chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, the national fraternity of college newspaper men, has completed its organization. Twelve men are charter members of the society, which has for its object the benefit and social intercourse of university students interested in newspaper work. Active members are required to be regular university students who are doing regular work on a daily newspaper, who are editors-in-chief of the of some kind this winter is a foregone conclusion. The efforts of the men of the school along this line deserve the support of the student body. Nebraska has once more asserted herself along these lines and the enterprise appears to meet with success. Keep it up. The university as a whole is with you.

The sophomore class deserve to be censured by the action taken Tuesday in not electing their past president in violating the time honored custom sergeant-at-arms. Ex-President Coffee was one of the best officers the class of 1913 will ever have, and they should have appreciated his efforts and adhered to this custom, which has grown up at the university.

It is a common thing to hear the criticism made of universities that "they are removed from the life of the world." Once more the error of such a view has been shown. When a university has popular student government, with elections that include all the trimmings, such as "roorbacks" and election frauds, a mighty close approximation is made to life "out in the world."—The University Kansan.

Daily Nebraskan or the Cornhusker, or who have bona fide intentions of entering newspaper work upon graduation. At a recent meeting the managing editors of the four leading papers of the state were elected to honorary membership. They are: T. W. McCullough of the Omaha Bee; W. R. Watson of the Omaha World-Herald; Will Owen Jones of the State Journal, and George W. Kline of the Lincoln Star. T. A. Brown, 1907; Paul Butler, 1907; I. A. Higgins, 1907, and A. E. Long, 1909, were named as alumni members. The charter members are K. P. Frederick, R. M. Switzer, R. S. Moseley, M. E. Barker, H. W. Potter, V. B. Smith, S. P. Dobbs, J. Brown, J. E. Lawrence, S. R. Buck, Lynn Lloyd, and L. R. Blanchard. Active members elected this year are George T. Liddell, Guy E. Reed and Carl J. Lord.

University of Chicago professors have discovered that the vacation system of the public schools is all wrong. They think the poor pupil ought to be paroled whenever he can prove that he needs a rest, summer or winter. The discovery is announced in "The Elementary School Teacher," issued by the University of Chicago press.

There may be a return to the old one-pole night class rush at Michigan. Last year a three-pole day rush was pulled off, but did not prove much of a spectacle, so the student council has commenced actions to return to the night rush.

Sir William Ramsay, professor of humanity in Aberdeen University, Scotland, and an archaeologist of note, delivered the Haskell lectures at Oberlin last week. The addresses were on the Apostle Paul, of whose life and work Sir William has made a life-long study.

"If any student declare himself eligible for intercollegiate athletics, knowing himself to be ineligible, he shall be dropped from the list of students at Indiana," reads a rule lately passed in faculty meeting in the institution.

After the freshman game at Palo Alto next Saturday about twenty members of the Stanford varsity squad will take a trip to Santa Cruz for a day or two. Besides giving the men a chance to become better acquainted, it is expected that the trip will prepare the men for the hard season of training which is to follow.
