GATES CUTS HIS FIRST PIE

MAKES APPOINTMENTS IN THE THIRD YEAR CLASS.

MINOR OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

LANDERS AND HOLMES TO BE IN CHARGE OF JUNIOR PROM.

Kiddoo and Pearse to Have Charge of Basketball and Football Respectively.

At the meeting of the junior class held yesterday in the Temple theater, President Bates cut the first pie of his official career. The meeting was blessed with harmony and a generous overflow of enthusiasm on the part of the law students who were in attendance. The laws practically controlled the election of the minor class officials, which was held after the committee appointments had been read. Bates explained that he would read the appointments before the election, so that those who had not been given a class honor might be elected to some one of the offices in question. He then read the list of appointments:

Landers Chairman.

No chairman had been selected for the junior prom committee, but Charles Landers was announced as the appointee late yesterday afternoon. Searle F. Holmes is to be the master of ceremonies for the most formal party of the college year. Richard Guthrie was appointed chairman of the junior informal committee, with Will A. Letton as master of ceremonies.

Guy Kiddoo is the man who will assemble the cohorts and manage the basketball team which will be expected to lead the juniors on to victory in the interclass basketball tournament. H. B. Pearse will run the class football team. W. H. Power and Louis Anderson were made chairmen of the Olympics and interclass athletic committees respectively. Frank Jones is chairman of the class cap committee.

31 Slices of Pie.

The complete list of junior class appointments follows:

Junior prom committee: Chairman, Charles Landers; master of ceremonies, Searle F. Holmes; W. M. Rubendall, Joseph Pomerene, R. H. Leukhart, Herbert Owen, Perry Smith, Eulah Bates, Ruth Haller and Cornelia Lindsey.

Junior hop committee: Richard Guthrie, chairman; Will Letton, master of ceremonies; Gus Lofgren, Orville H. Pierce, E. M. Forsyth, Irma Herman and Irene Bailey.

Olympics committee: W. H. Power, chairman; C. L. Korstian, Dale Boyles and H. R. Ankeny.

Cap committee: Frank Jones, chairman; William Farley and William Commerville, June Brown and Louise Barr.

Interclass athletics: Louis Anderson, chairman; William Krug and O. H. Swanson.

Manager of class basketball: Guy C. Kiddoo.

Manager of class football: H. B. Pearse.

Publication Board Election.

Among a great deal of excitement the officers were elected, the law students having absolute control of the proceedings. All of the officers were elected with little opposition. Several short witty nomination speeches were made. Robert Hawley was elected to represent the class as a member of the student publication board. The class officers elected are as follows:

Vice-president, Joe Pomerene.
Secretary—Lela Berry.
Treasurer—W. R. Grigwold.
Sergeant-at-arms—Perry Smith.

MAY BE POSTPONED.

Y. W. Picnic-Breakfast Handicapped on Account of Weather.

The big Y. W. C. A. picnic-breakfast, which was slated to be on the program for Saturday morning, will not be held unless there is a radical change in the inclemency of the weather. Rumors of a substitute are in the air, but as yet nothing has materialized. The committee has been working hard in preparation of this event, and should the temperature rise, the picnic will be held at the state farm as planned.

ANOTHER BUNCH OF PLUMS.

President Gilmore Names Freshman Hop Committee.

President Gilmore of the freshman class has given out the names of the freshmen hop committee. He did not wait for a class meeting, as the class appointments are already somewhat delayed. The committee members are: Arthur Davis, master of ceremonies; George T. Liddell, chairman; R. J. Aldrich, Clark Dickinson, Carl Nagl, Lenore Richards and Ruth Grievish.

PHILADELPHIA REPEATS TRICK.

Connie Mack's Sluggers Bring Grief to Chicago Fans.

In the third game of the world series, the Athletics walked all over the Chicago Cubs and made it three straight victories over Chance's proteges. The third contest was held on Chicago grounds and the fans of the Windy City were sorely disappointed over the showing made by their favorites. The score:

R. H. E.
Philadelphia . . . 12 5 0 0 4 0 0—12 14 0
Chicago . . . . . 12 0 0 0 0 2 0—5 7 5

MEETING TO BE HELD MONDAY.

Athletic Board Expected to Consider Some Important Things.

The next meeting of the athletic board is called for Monday evening. Matters of importance will probably be discussed.

As yet no definite time has been set for the annual cross-country try-outs, but in all probability they will be held about two weeks before the middle west athletic meet in Chicago, which takes place some time in November. The men are turning out a little better for the "work outs" and are offering material from which Dr. Clapp seems confident of selecting a winning team.

OLYMPICS RALLY TONIGHT.

Freshmen and Sophs Will Hold an Enthusiasm Meeting.

The big Olympics rally will take place in the armory tonight at 8 o'clock. This is the first rally of its kind in the history of Nebraska university, and it promises to be a great success.

Credentials for admittance to the rally will be very few, consisting merely in the fact that all participants must be freshmen or sophomores. Every member of either of these classes who contemplates entering the big Olympics is urged by the promoters of the rally to be present with his "fighting clothes" on and plenty of good spirit.

The "hog tying" contest will undoubtedly be the leading feature of the athletic events pulled off at the rally. This is a new mode of testing strength and promises to provide excitement galore. It at least comes very highly recommended from Denver university and Michigan university. Its name, however, does not signify everything concerning its nature. The further particulars remain to be seen.

UNIVERSITY MEN!

Make No Dates for FRIDAY

DECEMBER SECOND

SMALLPOX CASE IS REPORTED

B. H. CUMMINGS CONFINED TO HOTEL DE PEST.

HAS DISEASE IN A MILD FORM

STUDENTS LIVING IN HOUSE WITH HIM VACCINATED.

Exposed to Pestilence Outside of Lincoln—No Fear of Disease Spreading—All Danger Removed.

Nebraska is again threatened with smallpox. Regardless of the fact that the university officials last year authorized the inspection of all and vaccination of nearly all the students, it is evident that one person failed to receive the "immune bath."

Tuesday night Health Inspector Rohde reported to the university officials that B. H. Cummings, a university student rooming at 1234 S street, was showing slight symptoms of smallpox. Yesterday morning this report was fully substantiated, and as a result Cummings was consigned to the confines of the Hotel de Pest yesterday, where he may soliloquize concerning "land marks" left in that institution by last year's Nebraska unfortunates.

A Light Case.

As a result of the fact that the authorities of Nebraska are endeavoring to the best of their ability to free the students from another scare and siege, such as befell the university last year, Inspector Rohde officially announced that the present victim is being attacked with a very light form of the disease and shows very few skin eruptions thus far.

Another feature of the case, which Mr. Rohde maintains to be very gratifying, is that the patient in all probability was exposed to the disease in a foreign community. Every indication points to this fact, namely, that Cummings just returned from a visit, and that the present case is the only one in Lincoln of which the health department is aware.

Six Other Men.

Six other university students were rooming in the building in which the case was first detected. These persons were immediately taken in charge by Dr. Clapp and Dr. Rohde, each being carefully inspected and vaccinated. A statement from Inspector Rohde regarding these students removes any possible danger of the disease spreading from this source. He affirms that the case was detected so early in the state that not enough skin eruptions had been formed to make it in the least contagious.

The very fact that Nebraska experienced such a calamity last spring from the hands of this disease smallpox, the present case has caused no little excitement among the university students. The one redeeming feature of it all is, that any on approached concerning the subject usually says,

"Well, they vaccinated me last year, so I'm safe." Even if the disease should get a better hold and spread, it is not probable that compulsory vaccination would have to be resorted to by the authorities.

COMMITTEES MEET.

Plans for Olympics Discussed and Partial Arrangements Made.

A meeting of the Olympics committees of all the classes was held yesterday. Plans for all the events were discussed and outlined. It was suggested that several events be cancelled and others held. This met with much favor, and more complete plans will be announced later.

However the suggestions may be tried at the rally in the armory tonight. The "hog-tying" contest may be added to the list of events. It was suggested that the middle weight events in the boxing and wrestling matches be cancelled. The marathon race will in all probability be continued. The "free-for-all" will be changed more than any other event. The canvas will be taken out, and the classes will be given something else to scrap over for the few minutes allowed for the "free-for-all."

FRESHMAN LAW COMMITTEES.

President Hyde Appoints Men for Dance and Orpheum.

The freshman law committees have been appointed. President Leslie Hyde last night announced that he had decided to shower blessings upon thirteen laws.

R. R. Russell gets the master of ceremonies job for the annual freshman law hop, and W. R. Romans will be the chairman. Kryger is chairman of the committee to arrange for an Orpheum party. The following announcements were made:

Hop committee—W. B. Romans, chairman; R. R. Russell, master of ceremonies; A. R. Raymond, E. S. Munson, A. M. Oberfelder, E. J. Lee and E. H. Hahne.

Orpheum committee—Carl Kryger, chairman; F. G. Rodman, R. L. Morse, L. Lloyd, C. F. Arterburn and H. A. Baker.

STUDENTS PUNISHED.

Members of Gang at University of Denver Lose Class Standing.

Denver, Colo.—The University of Denver students who participated in the demonstrative outbreak of Monday in celebration of the football game with Marquette Saturday will be penalized by a reduction in standing for failure to attend classes.

"The demonstration was made the more noticeable by the unusual pitch of enthusiasm which accompanied it," Chancellor Buchtel said. "It was greatly exaggerated. Some sort of a celebration is anticipated when a college team performs well, and it is only natural that the demonstration Monday should have occurred in the light of the great game played by the team against Marquette.

"At first the students demanded a holiday, but I informed them that this was impossible, as we had already given them a holiday on Columbus day and have arranged for an extra three holidays when the Rocky Mountain Teachers' conference meets here in November. Most of the students were satisfied when they learned of this and returned to their classes. About fifty refused and the standing of these will be lowered by their absence."

During the invasion of his classroom, Professor J. E. Le Rossignol, in the heat of excitement, informed Earl Wattengill of Denver, a substitute on the football eleven and one of the leaders of the demonstration, that he was expelled. The expulsion failed to materialize yesterday.

DENVERITES COME TOMORROW

CORNHUSKERS ARE READY FOR ANOTHER HARD GAME.

TRACK MEN OUT BETWEEN HALVES

HARRY EWING, THE ASSISTANT COACH, DOES GOOD WORK.

Freshmen Go Through Regulars for Four Touchdown in Thirty Minutes.

Denver university's football team will arrive tomorrow for a football game with the Cornhuskers tomorrow afternoon. The Cornhuskers will go through light practice this afternoon.

The team is ready for tomorrow's game. They have had three days of hard scrimmage work this week and have also been spending a good deal of time on running signals and trying new plays.

Coach Cole's new formations will probably be one of the big features in the Denver game. They are improvements on the Cornhuskers' offense and are expected to show a big change in the way Nebraska carries the ball.

Every member of the team is in good condition and every member of the team expects to win. Although Denver is conceded to have a stronger team than they had last year, Nebraska also claims that distinction. However, it will be a good game either way.

A New Specialty.

A track team try-out between halves is something new in the way of a specialty for a football game. Twelve men have entered for the 100-yard dash, among them being some of the university's best track men. Members of any class may enter for the sprint.

Unless the weather is unusually disagreeable tomorrow's game will likely draw one of the largest crowds so far this season. Denver has always brought big attendances and last year's close score will make this game one of considerable interest.

Ewing is Making Good.

Assistant Coach Ewing has turned out a freshman team that is one of the best the university has ever had. The first year men, many of whom are in the game for the first time, have picked up the new rules almost as rapidly as the varsity men.

For about thirty minutes of hard scrimmage yesterday Ewing's men outplayed everything that went against them. Playing a team consisting of about half subs and half varsity regulars the freshmen tore things up for four touchdowns, while the varsity men could make only one.

Ewing was guard on the Nebraska team for three years and won his letter three times. This is his first year on the coaching staff. So far he has given a good account of himself and is a good lieutenant for "King" Cole.

BANQUET DATE SET.

Cornhusker Team Will Be Fed on December 2.

The annual Cornhusker banquet, held in honor of the football team, will be on December 2. Final arrangements for the event have not been made. The banquet last year, which established a record for the university, established the Cornhusker banquet more firmly than ever as one of the school's most important and most popular student gatherings.

GET A MEGAPHONE.

Megaphones will be given free to all students at Mayer Bros., Friday and Saturday. Get one for the Denver game.
