TWO GOOD GAMES TOMORROW

NEBRASKA VS. DOANE AND LINCOLN VS. OMAHA.

COLE SAYS WE MUST BEAT DOANE

EVERYONE WHO CAN USE HIS VOICE IS INVITED.

Nebraskans Have a Few New Plays Worked Out for the Kansas Game.

"We must beat Doane," remarked "King" Cole as he led the Cornhuskers out to practice last night. And the Cornhuskers chorused, "We must beat Doane."

The Doane game will be played tomorrow immediately following the game between the Lincoln and Omaha high school teams. The first game will be called at 2 o'clock, or as soon thereafter as the annual class scrap is finished.

Everyone who can make a noise with his vocal organs is urged to attend the game and help make the rooting a little more presentable. At the Denver game the rooting was the best of the season, but there is still room for improvement. The new yell, which was tried for the first time last week makes a big addition to the list. While it bears a strong resemblance to the famous Jayhawker "Rock Chalk" yell, it is enough unlike it so the two will not be confused when the Cornhuskers visit Lawrence next week.

And This from Kansas.

If the stories from Lawrence are all to be believed, Coach Kennedy was never up against such a streak of luck in his life. Tommy Johnson is given credit for a sprained, or broken, wrist. For several days the coach has been shifting his men from one position, apparently unable to decide upon a line-up.

Some of this the Cornhuskers believe. But they think that when the Nebraska-Kansas game is called next week the Jayhawkers will be in as good condition as at any time during the season.

As far as Nebraska's condition is concerned, no one is particularly worried. The Cornhuskers are in good shape and are improving all the time, despite announcements that the team is playing ragged ball. And the chances are ten to one that the Kansans think the announcements are "bear dope" anyway.

Easy Practice Today.

The Cornhuskers will not go through any very strenuous work today. The practice will probably be nothing more than a warming up running signals.

Coach Cole has several new formations under his hat for the especial benefit of Kansas. Doane will not be privileged to see what the Cornhuskers can do in the way of new tricks unless they show that they are entitled to such recognition. For, as the coach determinedly remarked, "We must beat Doane."

The new plays have been worked out for the improvement of the Cornhuskers' offensive play. As the team demonstrated both in the Minnesota game and the Denver game, its defensive work is as good as could be desired, but offense is still the strong point of the coach's instruction. The additional plays are expected to greatly improve the Nebraskans' form.

Girls' Section a Go.

The university girls' section of the grandstand has found favor among the co-eds. At the Denver game the section was filled. With an able cheer leader, backed up by an enthusiastic section, the grandstand made nearly as good a showing as the bleachers.

While tomorrow's game may not be one of the most important on the schedule, every student who can do so is asked to attend. Every loyal student realizes that he should attend a small game as well as a big one if he intends to really help support his team.

But, be that as it may, "We must beat Doane."

ELECT A BOARD MEMBER.

Ralph C. Sweeley Defeats Burton S. Hill for Publication Board.

Ralph C. Sweeley was elected a member of the student publication board from the sophomore class at a meeting yesterday, defeating Burton S. Hill by a small majority. At the meeting, which was principally a class rally, Chairman Phillips of the class Olympics committee gave a brief outline of the work his committee has been doing for the big event to come off Saturday.

LECTURES COMMENCE MONDAY.

Professor Grummann Will Speak in Omaha Public Library.

PLANS NEARLY COMPLETED

CHANCELLOR AVERY AND DR. CONDRA ASKED TO ATTEND.

TWO OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN SELECTED

ADOPT RULES FOR "HOG-TYING" CONTEST IN OLYMPICS.

Three Out of Five to Be Bound—Entries Not Announced—Twelve Men on Each Tug-of-War Team.

Chancellor Avery will be asked to attend the Olympics and it is hoped that he will give a short talk. Dr. Condra, who is considered the father of the Olympics idea, will be there and is expected to give things up with a speech. An attempt will be made to develop, through the class fight, a better and bigger school spirit. The presence of Nebraska's popular chancellor and of Dr. Condra is especially desired by both classes.

Plans Compete.

Plans for the Olympics are now completed. Geo. M. Pinneo, physical director of the Lincoln Y. M. C. A., yesterday received letters from two men whom he had invited to judge the wrestling and boxing contests. Both men accepted the invitation. The committee in charge asked Mr. Pinneo to select the official judges for these events, as it is especially necessary to have experienced men, also men who will judge the contests fairly. It was thought best to have professional officials from outside of the school, and it is with this end in view that these men have been asked to come to Lincoln Saturday. J. Truitt Maxwell, physical director of the Omaha Y. M. C. A., will referee the boxing matches, and W. A. Kerns, the physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at Fremont, will referee the wrestling bouts. Mr. Pinneo will also be present if possible.

A Humorous Event.

The "hog-tying" contest is expected to be one of the most laughable features of the meet. Five men of the sophomore class will endeavor to tie up three of the freshmen. At the same time the freshmen five will endeavor to defend themselves and tie up three of the sophomore quintet. The contest is something new at Nebraska. Neither class has as yet announced the list of entries. The "hog-tying" contest will be pulled off in front of the grandstand. The rules governing the event are as follows:

1. Five men selected from each class and properly entered will participate.
2. Each man will be provided with twelve feet of quarter-inch rope.
3. The first side which succeeds in tying three men of the other side will be entitled to the 15 points.
4. No time limit is set for the event but the referee may pronounce a man "dead" after he has been tied fairly. A "dead" man may not be loosed by his fellows.
5. No kicking, slugging, or rough

Dean Bessey Has Secured a Portrait of Prof. Samuel Aughey.

Dean Bessey has secured a small portrait of Prof. Samuel Aughey, Ph. D., L. L. D., who was one of the early professors in the University of Nebraska. Professor Aughey taught at Nebraska until 1883. He was professor of natural history, also teaching Greek and biology when he was called upon to do so.

Dr. Bessey says that Aughey, judged by the standard of today, might not be a great teacher, but that judged by the standards of thirty years ago he made a highly creditable showing. He taught the first botany classes at Nebraska, and in 1875 published the first catalogue of Nebraska flowers. The book was entitled "Flora of Nebraska." Although full of ideas which are now out of date, the book is valuable because of its relation to early history. The photograph of Professor Aughey will be kept in the records of the botany department.

Twelve on Team.

The tug of war teams will be composed of twelve men. Three pulls will be made, the best two out of three to win the event. Fifteen points will be given to the winners of this contest. W. R. Powers will be in charge of the tug-of-war.

DEBATE CLUB MEETS.

First Discussion Held Under New Organization.

The first meeting of the Students' Debating club was held Wednesday evening in U106. The question under discussion was, "Resolved, That the United States navy should be substantially increased over its present state of efficiency."

The affirmative was represented by H. E. Dixon and J. W. Jones. The negative side of the question was debated by A. M. Hare and M. Wesen. The decision was rendered unanimously in favor of the negative. In the absence of the president, T. G. Andrews, the meeting was in charge of B. E. Williams.

Students at the University of Colorado are compelled to sign a pledge that they will not engage in hazing.
