up under the added pressure, however, and lost six succeeding games. The second set went to Weaverling, 6-3.

In the third set Flory repeated his action of the second by taking the first three games. Weaverling then scented some joy in repeating history, and took six more games in succession, thereby winning the final set 6-3, and the match by three straight. This makes Weaverling the tennis singles champion of the University of Nebraska.

No Spring Tournament.

The management of the tennis association of Nebraska have decided almost definitely that on singles championship tennis tournament will be held next spring. Everything will be confined to squad work in an effort to form a team that will win.

There is a very strong rumor among the club members, however, that a doubles tournament will be held, and some probability of mixed doubles. Mixed doubles would be quite an innovation in the tennis schedule of the school, but it is certain that the girls would strongly support it.

After a strenuous campaign, the Michigan Union club reports a membership of over one thousand.

ARE AFTER KANSAS GAME

coach has been putting in practically every minute of his time getting ready for the Sunflower game. He has been working on new plays and strengthening the offense. In the few days left this week the finishing touches will be put on.

Kansas Money Coming In.

Jayhawker money has commenced to arrive. The first installment of $100 was received at the Windsor hotel, with instructions to place it on Kansas even money. Up to 6 o'clock Monday night the $100 was only partially covered.

Another story afloat gives the pleasing information that "Tub" Reed, of Kansas gridiron fame, was a Lincoln visitor not very long ago. "Tub" became confidential with a traveling man on the incoming train, at least so the story goes, and exhibited a little pocket notebook in which were neatly ruled off spaces all ready for the facts and figures which Mr. Reed was supposed to be coming for. If this story is untrue, students ask why the traveling man did such a mean trick in giving it a start.

Football Rally Today.

A football rally will be held in Memorial hall today at 11 o'clock. Students of the university will gather to give the Cornhuskers a send-off that will give them a perfect assurance that every student has faith in the team.

The team, the coach, the manager, the chancellor and Dr. Condra will be on hand to start the enthusiasm ball rolling.

New songs are being turned in for approval, and the efforts of the song-writing students are certain to produce some gems of music to help Nebraska's rooting. The list of university songs willid. k... bertT aHyq sity songs will not suffer by the addition of a few more. The idea is to write a parody on a popular song. The field is unlimited. Nobody barred. Try your hand.
