These are the men who left last night for Lawrence to battle with the Jayhawkers for the Missouri Valley championship. And these are the men who were paraded from the campus to the depot by a band of students numbering nearly 600, and given a send-off which will long be remembered as one of the liveliest demonstrations in the history of the university.

The parade was well worth seeing—and hearing—to say nothing of being one of the torch-bearers. Every one of the 300 torches was in use and many students who were too late to buy one resurrected souvenirs of by-gone parades and increased the number of blazes to nearly 400.

Made the Town Ring.

Stretching out over several blocks the long line of students made the town ring with university yells and football songs—and made most of their clothing smell like a kerosene factory. However, a little thing like that made no difference. It was worth spoiling a suit of clothes to be there.

The crowd had gathered at the campus by 8:30, and from then until the parade started, about 9 o'clock, there was one continual jubilee. Chancellor Avery took his part in the celebration by hiring a man to ring the Uni bell, and its frantic donging supplied an accompaniment to the yells, songs and general noise which had somewhat the same effect as 100 male voices suddenly taking up an air sung by a female choir. The chancellor also sent down an order for rope for the carry-all, and it arrived just about the time the crowd was wondering how the thing was to be propelled.

The march led east on R street to Sixteenth, then south to O, west on O to Eleventh, south on Eleventh to L, east on L to Sixteenth, north on Sixteenth to O, west on O to Ninth, and north on Ninth to the depot.

Climax at the Depot.

At the depot the send-off reached its climax. The "torchists" packed the space on the platform around the Cornhuskers' train, car roofs serving as reserved seats, and then demanded that each of the twenty-two men in the squad make a speech. They spoke.

The burden of their brief remarks was that every man who goes in the game will strain his every nerve to win for Nebraska. Every man in the squad was stirred up to the fighting point that knows of no defeat. They know the students are back of them to the bitter end and that knowledge is sufficient.

As each player stepped to the front of the truck-platform he was given a thundering cheer and as each in turn assured his fellow students that he would do his part in the game Saturday he was cheered again.

The demonstration was continued until the train left the station. As it pulled slowly out into the darkness, away from the glare of the 300 or more torches, the throng of students gave one last mighty cheer. The students had done their part. It is now up to the Cornhuskers to do theirs.

Practice at Kansas City.

The train left at 10:25, to arrive in Kansas City early this morning. The team will stay in Kansas City today, going to Lawrence tomorrow morning.

This afternoon the coach will take his men out for an easy warming up, the last they will have before the game.

Yesterday afternoon the practice consisted wholly of running signals, the coach taking no chances of his men being bruised up and in poor shape for Saturday.

Big Crowd Leaves Tonight.

A record delegation will leave for Lawrence this evening on the special Union Pacific train. Up to last night the number who had signified their intention of going had almost reached the limit and only few reservations were left. However, if it is impossible for all to be accommodated in one train and the number wishing to go is large enough, the Union Pacific may run the special in two sections. Any who decide today that they can go are urged to notify the city ticket office at the earliest possible moment.

The special will leave Lincoln at 8 p. m., arriving at Lawrence early Saturday morning. The return trip will start from Lawrence Saturday night at 11 o'clock. The train will consist of standard and tourist sleepers and chair cars. The round trip rate is $7.50.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the Mathematical Seminar Friday, November 5, at 4:30, in room M302. Prof. Davis will give a report on Minkowski's Raum und Zeit.

H. T. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

The total enrollment at Chicago university this year is 2,416, an increase of 70 over last year.

SONG! SONGS! SONGS!

Tune—"Just Because It's You, You, You."

Just because you're square, BOYS.
Just because you're true.
Nebraska we are loyal,
And we're strong for you.
Keep our goal from danger.
Smash their line. Get through!
That is why we love you,
Just because you're—
U-U-U-N-I
Ver-Ver-Ver-sity
N-E-Bras-Ki
Oh-Oh-Oh-My.

Tune—"My Wife's Gone to the Country."

The Nebraska boys are playing,
Hoo-Rah, Hoo-Ray.
They'll do their best
To take the rest,
That's why we feel so gay.
Oh, Kansas just so easy,
Hoo-Rah, Hoo-Ray.
They'll take the scalp,
With the rooters' help,
For Nebraska today.

—Brannon.

Tune—"He's a College Boy."

We must take old K. U.'s measure,
Boys, we are not here for pleasure,
We must beat them.
We'll defeat them.
We're going to win today.
Show them that you are all right,
boys.
Hit their line with all your might,
boys.
Make them fall, boys.
A stonewall, boys.
You are our football team.
We'll cheer for the Scarlet and the Cream.

Chorus—

Scarlet and the Cream,
We'll defeat Jayhawk,
We'll win in a walk,
We'll come home to tell.
That we simply gave them—well.
NE—BRAS—KA.
We'll cheer our football boys.
For Nebraska is all the noise.
Fight them, boys, and don't give in.
For from Kansas we must win.
Because we are Nebraska boys.
(In the chorus, sing all but the last word twice, and then sing the full line.)

Tune—"What's the Matter, Father?"

What's the matter with N. U.?
She's all right!
What's the matter with our team?
Watch them fight!
Kansas thinks she's awful strong,
But wait till we put her hobbles on.
What's the matter with our team?
She's all right!
What's the matter with Kansas?
She's all in!
What's the matter with Kansas?
She can't win!
We'll lick her so bad she'll never forget
We'll put the hobbles on her yet.
What's the matter with Kansas?
She's all in!

What's the matter with our bunch?
They're just swell!
What's the matter with our bunch?
Hear them yell!
Way up in heaven, way down in hell—
They'll hear the echoes of our yell.
What's the matter with N. U.?
She beats—Kansas!

Tune—"Down in Jungle Town."
Down in a Kansas town
There lives a Jayhawk of renown,
And when he meets the Cornhusker team
There will be an awful scream.
And, I tell to you,
The Jayhawk hide is turning blue,
We'll come back, with Kansas draped in black,
From poor old Lawrence town.

FRESHMEN DECIDE ON CAPS.

Will Wear Light Grey Headgear with Dark Red Numerals.

Freshman caps will be of light gray material with dark red "14" numerals. This was decided at a class meeting held yesterday in the Temple theater. An order for the first installment was sent in by the committee last night and the caps are to be secured without delay. The following were appointed a committee on constitution: Chandler Trimble, chairman; Helen Holman, Gertrude Quigley, Harvey Hesse, Thomas Hyperdon.

PICNIC PLANNED.

Junior Laws Complete Election of Officers.

At a meeting of the junior laws held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock the minor class officers were elected, as follows:

Vice-president, H. V. Oakley.
Secretary and treasurer, R. S. Moseley.

Plans were discussed and a committee appointed to arrange for a picnic. "Ole" Metcalfe offered his home as a probable picnic ground and the offer was enthusiastically accepted. The date of the event is not definite, but will probably occur some time next week.

SENIOR BREAKFAST IS READY

FOURTH YEAR STUDENTS TO PICNIC SATURDAY MORNING.

HELD TO AROUSE CLASS SPIRIT

PROGRAM OF ALL KINDS OF CONTESTS PLANNED.

Tickets on Sale—To Meet at Tenth and O Streets Saturday at 6:30 a. m.

The annual senior breakfast will be held on Saturday morning in the woods west of the penitentiary. This early morning hike will be the first senior social stunt for the year. It will be a "get better acquainted meeting." Nearly every senior has arranged to be there.

Special Cars.

Special cars will leave Tenth and O streets at 6:30 a. m. The breakfast will be held in Branson's grove, about one-half mile west of the penitentiary. The committee promises plenty to eat. Everybody will get a plenty of everything.

Branson's grove is one of the prettiest spots in Nebraska. It is an ideal picnic ground. The giant trees have dropped their leaves and the sun will shine down upon the jolly seniors to warm them up a bit if the temperature should be low.

To Increase Spirit.

The main purpose is to increase class spirit and friendliness, and afford the upper classmen a chance to become better acquainted. Coming as it does in the morning, there will be nothing to lessen the attendance. The breakfast is planned so as to afford an excellent opportunity for the members of the class to become better acquainted with each other early in the school year and in this way all the other affairs that the class may hold will be more enjoyed.

Various forms of contests have been planned. For the winners of these events liberal prizes will be offered. The tickets for this event may be purchased of any of the committee members. The price is 35 cents, which does not include carfare. The members of the committee are: W. H. Plasters, chairman; Grace Richards, Mabelle Davis, W. T. Wolington and Herbert Ford.

CADETS MEET.

Elect Officers and Name Dance Committees.

A meeting of the commissioned officers of the cadet regiment was held Thursday night in the commandant's office. Officers for the year were elected as follows:

C. J. Kremer, president.
W. C. Weiss, vice-president.
H. A. Coulter, secretary.
F. E. Rodhe, treasurer.

The men who will have charge of the officers' hop are as follows:
H. C. Hathaway, chairman; H. N. Cain, master of ceremonies.

A meeting of the non-commissioned officers was also held at which the men who are to manage the "non-com" hop were elected. They are:
L. A. Welsh, chairman; D. B. Van Dusen, master of ceremonies.
