Who will smile tonight, Nebraska or Kansas?

BULLETINS—BULLETINS.

Bulletins of the football game between Nebraska and Kansas will be received at the office of the Lincoln Daily Star. Bulletin and megaphone service will be maintained. Reports will be given out play by play.

The enthusiasm of Nebraska is not dead yet by any means. The possibilities of a certain amount of "knocking" to be done this year was given an impetus after the Doane game, when a team, with changed line-up and with subs, was held to a low score. Perhaps a few of the "knockers" among the citizens of Lincoln as well as among others receive a death blow in the way of manipulating their little hammer when the 600 yelling, howling, screaming, shouting students gave the team a send-off such as never be-commendable. The organization, however, may tour the state of Nebraska instead. This is still better. It appears that a large number of people are opposed to the university for one reason or another. The possibilities of this scheme are many.

The university should be better known among the citizens of the state. That the men of the school can accomplish this by means of the glee club is a thing which should not be overlooked.

A gentlemanly crowd of young men who can provide entertainment for an audience for two hours can do more to show the people of Nebraska that they are paying taxes to support the best university in the country than all the athletic teams combined. Go out among the people of Nebraska, men, and show them your worth, and prove your character. Nebraska is a school for Nebraskans, first, last and all the time. The people of the state should be the first to prize you and your university.

Kenyon college is appealing to her alumni to wipe out a large athletic debt.

Thirty-five men have responded to the track call at the University of Kansas.

The Northwestern freshmen have decided to wear green hats this year instead of caps.

Freshmen are receiving strenuous hazing at Michigan at the hands of the sophomores.

Green caps with yellow buttons are worn by the freshmen at Dickinson.

The women at Radcliffe college have formed two baseball teams.

There were 2,535 students engaged in athletics at Pennsylvania last year.

ARTHUR L. WEATHERLY, Minister.

All Souls Church is an association which stands for a reverent attitude towards the Facts of Life. It has the University Ideal, the Search for Truth. Therefore it has no Creed. It welcomes to its membership people of all beliefs. Such a modern, open-minded, facing-the-future organization ought to appeal especially to students. You are cordially invited to attend its services.

Student Sunday, November 6. A special Sermon for Students of the University, Subject:—"Religion and Modern Thought."

Mr. Weatherly will answer some of the perplexing questions that force themselves on those who find the old sanctions of religion inadequate. These answers will be based on a definition of religion that fully recognizes the results of modern science. You are especially invited.
