The membership committee of the university Y. M. C. A. will meet tonight to organize for finishing up a semi-campaign that has recently been conducted by committee members. The number of new enrollments to the association proves the effectiveness of carrying out a silent campaign under the direction of a committee.

Notice.
 All tickets for the sophomore hop have been sold. Contrary to the usual custom, this dance will be limited to those who have purchased tickets, and no money will be taken at the door. This announcement is made by the committee in order that no persons need be embarrassed if they are "turned down" at the door. The committee only desires to play fair by those who have purchased tickets, with the understanding that the number was to be limited. All tickets have been sold.

New Coaches Are Keeping Candidates on the Jump.

Candidates for positions on the varsity basketball team are being put through the most strenuous work they have had this year. Coaches Field and Cherrington are working toward strengthening every man's wind as the first and most important thing to be considered. The coaches are giving their entire attention to the varsity squad, leaving all instruction of first year men to be taken up later on, in an effort to turn out one of the fastest fives the university has ever had.

A JUNIOR PLAY?

Third Year Students May Go on the Stage.

A junior play is the latest addition to the list of university events. Such a play was yesterday voted by the third year class and the presentation is assured. The junior meeting yesterday was enlivened by the proposal, and after due consideration it was decided that there was no reason why the juniors should not give one. This move is in line with advancement, for all of the eastern schools have junior plays. "Nebraska is lining up with the best of them," said one of the juniors last night.

The general plan calls for the play during the same week as the junior prom if it can be arranged for that week. This week would then be made a "junior week." President Bates left the city yesterday, before he had time to appoint a committee to have charge of arrangements for the play, but announced that things would get started the first of next week. No manuscripts have been examined and no coach has been selected.
