TAKE IN A FEW.

Sororities Announce the Names of Some New Pledges.

New students in the university who have been "rushed" by the sororities of the university were afforded an opportunity to select the organization of their choice Tuesday noon. Pi Beta Phi sorority was not allowed to pledge new members on account of a past infringement of the rules which govern the Greek letter organizations regarding the "rushing" and "pledging" of new members. Some of the sororities had no new members to announce.

The new Greeks announced are as follows:

Alpha Ray Simpson, Long Beach, Cal.; Marie Fowler, Lincoln; Minnie Stalder, Salem; Mary Minor, Hyannis; Ruth Manning, Colorado Springs, Colo. Alpha Phi—Madeline Stiver, Lincoln.

Chi Omega—Margaret Taylor, Lincoln; Helen Safford, Lincoln; Elsie Roush, Neligh.

Kappa Kappa Gamma — Carroll White, University Place.

Prof. Lucille Eaves lectured at Pawnee City, Neb., Tuesday before the Woman's club.

GENUINE ROOTING.

That a football game is not always won by the men on the field has been evident in more than one game. Rooting has today become as important a factor in winning games as has the efforts of the men in moleskins.

A Relic of the Past.

Spontaneous cheering has become a relic of the past and genuine rooting—organized rooting—has been developed in an effort to cheer the team on to greater things. The "Fighting Five Hundred," the "Howling Hundred," of other schools, have become to be considered of as great importance as the coach or the team.

When the team is being defeated and it appears as if the tide of battle was flowing to the side of the enemy, then is when genuine rooting appears to bring results that will count. At that moment let the "bleachers" stand as one man and give the old cheer and the team could not be better urged to go on to greater deeds than by this means.

Cheering at Nebraska.

Cheering at Nebraska at times, has lacked spirit. Enthusiasm, however, has always run at high tide, but if this enthusiasm was shown at the proper time and in genuine rooting, then the efforts of the defenders of the Scarlet and Cream would know that the whole school to a man was back of them.

Watch the yell leader is one secret in real rooting. Watch his every movement, and when he decides that a yell is needed, then everybody, at the same moment join in the good old
