THE FORUM

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 15, 1910.

To the Editor of the Nebraskan:

I, as a single member of the freshman class, wish to thank "A Senior" for his gentle reprimand. I would say that there is a portion of that class that cannot agree with the one who says the upper classmen have no spirit. And they can be boisterous when occasion demands, as demonstrated by the celebrations in Lawrence a few weeks ago. Most of our representatives were seniors and juniors, and they certainly upheld the school's honor as far as enthusiasm is concerned. And I wish to assure our poor, deluded senior that the whole freshman class was not a party to that petty attack.

But since the subject has been suggested, why could not some means of contest be arranged between the four classes, as in football, which was a "fizzle". If some clean, honest contest could be arranged is it not possible that this "petty squabbling" would cease, or be turned into something worth while? And there may be some freshmen who have to be shown. So show us.

Sincerely,

PART OF THE FRESHMAN CLASS.

To the Editor of the Nebraskan:

As a "Greek" alumnus, permit me to say a few words on the cab question, that has been discussed every year as far back as I can remember, but yet it seems a settlement cannot be reached.

Both sides are right, yet neither seems to have reached the real issue. Should a girl walk through six inches of slush to a dance? No! Whether formal or informal. Yet I have known girls who felt insulted at not being taken to a formal in a cab, and these same girls would seem "tickled to death" to go to a little informal at Fraternity hall through slush and snow. Is that sensible?

On the other side, it seems to me a needless expense to hire a cab to get to a formal at the Lincoln hotel on a beautiful evening and especially if the girl lives on a car line. It would be far better if the fellows would use that money in getting a cab for an informal on a stormy night, pay their "Rag" subscriptions or other debts that "frat" men have.

It seems to me the question should not be one of necessity and not formality, and should be "Shall cabs be abolished at ALL parties GIVEN UNDER IDEAL WEATHER CONDITIONS?"

An affirmative answer by the fraternities would be a good thing for a fellow's pocketbook, and the character of our school in general.

Respectfully yours,

A "GREEK" ALUMNUS.

To the Editor of the Nebraskan:

Dear Sir: Methinks something is doing. The small statement in yesterday's Rag by conspirators calling themselves the Freshman Class and the seniors babies has displaced the cork and the class spirits are flowing at a high rate, such that I fear me for mine unworthy life. I make haste to find the cork.

To the Senior and Junior Classes: I hereby make public apology to the senior and junior classes for statements appearing in "Rag" and signed "Freshman Class." I am directly to blame for these statements, and do not seek to retract them, but to apologize for the wrong impression on the above mentioned classes. If you will kindly scan Wednesday's dastardly attack you will see that it is pointed at "some" seniors, not the entire class, but rather at a small per cent of your membership, and to them do I speak thenceforth and now.

Tell me, Oh tell me, sober senior of yesterday's "Rag," if thy dignity is so great and thy self control so wonderful and thy innocence unquestioned, tell me, why dost thou wail? Is it not the very small child who cries when he is hit? Alas, if thy dignity is so great that thee cannot go to the football game and yell like a Comanche Indian to cheer the tired hard fighting MEN who are battling for thy school to put forth just one more effort, but rather seat thyself with great dignity where the sun will not strike thy ladylike countenance and give a correspondence school yell? Is it not thou, also majesty, who will bet on Kansas to win, who when the team comes back from Minnesota asks, "Why we never win?" "Why can't we have a good team?" etc., etc.

I am only a "cute" freshman, from whom the newness of being away from home has yet to depart, and I seek knowledge; wilt thou give it me, and answer above, Oh man who has been away from Mamma nearly four years? Have done!

Respectfully yours,

WM., P. GILMORE,
President Freshman Class.
