NO MORE SORORITIES.

Girls' Secret Societies Abolished at Mount Holyoke.

Just as soon as the present members of sororities leave college, secret societies will become a thing of the past at Mount Holyoke. The faculty by an almost unanimous vote has decided that such student organizations be abolished. The conclusion is reached after a most thorough investigation in which all parties involved have had an opportunity to freely express their views.

The Vassar idea of a thousand students all housed in college buildings will soon be realized, for Mrs. Russell Sage has given to the college the sum of $150,000 to be used in the construction of a new dormitory.—Boston Evening Tribune.
