BIG PARTY TONIGHT.
 Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. to Entertain All Students in Armory.
 Big plans have been made for the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. Christmas party to be held tonight in the armory, every indication pointing to a successful entertainment. The social committees of the two associations have planned some new and interesting "stunts," the main feature of which will be the separation of the students into ten district schools, each with an instructor, for the purpose of "spelling down," "ciphering down," and performing other pastimes familiar to the country school. The announcement has been made, also, that each and every one of those present will receive a Christmas present.
