

THE FORUM

A Nineteen-fourteen Ode.
Dedicated to the Freshman President.

"I'm only a cute little freshman," he said,
"And I just tumbled out of my wee little bed.
But my mama she said I to college must go,
Just to show the teachers how much I did know.

"So when at Nebraska, my course well begun,
For just a few offices, thought I would run.
I got into politics, made quite a spill,
But now as a president I've had my fill.

"Now, a dignified Senior, a shot at me took,
And into 'The Forum' he sent a whole book.
The Sophomores they laughed and the Juniors they roared,
But the Freshmen, it seemed to me, got sort o' bored.

"Of class fights and sweaters I've had quite enough,
And now from a Senior I take one rebuff.
So, back to Neb. City I'll go with a will,
And I'll just retire here, and remain, yours, Gil."

A WOULD-BE POET.

I like to suggest a scholarship contest. The Delinquent Student Committee will gladly figure the percentage of delinquency for the four classes severally immediately after the mid-year examinations. "Contests is contests."

Yours very truly,

Chairman Delinquent Student Committee.

To the Editor of the Nebraskan:

At the regular meeting of the Tegner society held last Saturday evening a motion was made and carried without a dissenting vote, to the effect that the society deplores the recent conflict of dates with the Cornhusker banquet. This conflict was wholly unintentional, and we would not have it repeated. The Tegner society hopes it may do nothing contrary to true Nebraska spirit, and therefore desires to make this statement in the Daily Nebraskan.
