which were never before furnished to Nebraska players, white trousers, scarlet and cream shirts, and novel little red skull caps, which they will wear throughout the game.

The squad has spent the last week in floor work, signals, and passing tactics. A varsity-freshman scrimmage was held last night which enabled the captain to detect some of the little weaknesses and correct them in preparation for the invasion of Cotner. The exact details of the trips to be taken this year have not been announced, except that two will be taken, one to Minneapolis to capture the Minnesota bacon, and another conquest of six games through the conference schools.
