MOVEMENT IS STARTED

LEGISLATURE CONSIDERS THE MOVING OF THE UNI.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED BY KIRK

SENATE COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED TUESDAY.

Five Men on the Committee in the House and Four on a Similar Body from the Upper Chamber.

The University of Nebraska is at present receiving much attention from the state legislature. Monday, in place of the Panama exposition discussion, a chance for a fight was precipitated by Representative Kirk of Knox, who introduced a resolution calling for the appointment of a special committee to make investigations into the feasibility of removing the state university to the state farm, this committee to report before any appropriations for the university are considered. On the objection of Gerdes of Richardson, consideration of this motion was deferred until Tuesday.

The committee on university removal desired by Kirk is to consist of five members, according to the motion which he made. It is to act with a similar committee of five to be appointed from the senate. Its powers are confined to a recommendation of the advisability of removal.

House Resting.

Tuesday nothing was done by the house with the Kirk resolution introduced on Monday providing for a special committee to investigate and report recommendations on whether the University of Nebraska should remain where it is or be removed to another location. Considerable opposition to this proposal appeared to have been aroused on the floor, and its mover, Kirk of Knox, agreed to have it go over for another day. Gerdes of Richardson gave notice that he would have a substitute to offer. He said further that he had been informed the senate would probably reconsider its action taken on Monday along the same line, because its significance had not been fully understood.

An effort to dispose of the Kirk resolution by referring it to the full committee on finance, ways and means and on university and normal schools, instead of to five members picked from those committees, was made by Mockett of Lancaster. Speaker Kuhl ruled the suggestion out of order. Bassett of Buffalo then offered an amendment reducing the membership of the special committee to four, but this was voted down.

Senate Committee Appointed.

The senate met at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. After the reading of the journal had been disposed with, Lieutenant Governor Hopewell announced that he would name Senators Ollis, Smith of Fillmore, Skiles of Butler and Brown of Lancaster as the committee from the house to inquire into the advisability of removing the state university to the state farm campus and consolidating the two institutions. No time was set for receiving the report of this committee.

The engagement of Miss Nina Troyer, ex-'13, Alpha Omicron Pi, to D. C. Mitchell, '10, Alpha Tau Omega, was recently announced.

HOLLAND ANSWERS ATTACK IN TUESDAY'S FORUM ARTICLE

Editor Daily Nebraskan:

Had the attack in Tuesday's Nebraskan been made in a disinterested spirit and over the writer's own signature, I should have answered gladly. One swallows his pride when he consents to reply to the anonymous whimperings of a disgruntled political henchman who sees his own chances of securing an appointment lessened by the advent of a third candidate, and breaks out in a wall for an exhibition of class spirit in order that his own hopes of landing a plum may not be shattered.

To those who are really desirous of knowing the facts I make the following statement:

This is my sixth year in college.

I have never carried less than 16 hours a semester and I have never had a failure or a condition.

I have never taken a degree, having shifted my course from engineering to law.

I voted with the sophomore class because I believed I had the right to vote with the class with which I expected to graduate.

Relying on that belief I am now a candidate for its presidency.

Whether the extra two years I have spent in college so far "superannuated" me as to make me less representative of the class of less capable of administering its affairs I submit to the voters.

At the sophomore election I assisted in the overthrow of the political leeches who fastened on this class at its organization and who have hung on ever since seeking every office and appointment and who now have the temerity to appeal to class spirit in an effort to retain their waning influence. For this they seem never to have forgiven me.

I have no machine to back me. Those who are most earnestly supporting me have never been active in school politics before. I have no horde of office seekers who wish to elect me that they may profit personally. I have pledged not a single appointment, nor will I. But I make one promise. If I am elected, not one member of this political ring that has manipulated this class for its own glory and profit during the last four years will get so much as the humblest appointment on the humblest committee.

YALE HOLLAND.

SECOND CANDIDATE IS OUT

R. K. Ammerman After Sophomore Presidency.

R. K. Ammerman has announced himself as a candidate for the presidency of the sophomore class. This announcement starts things among the second year students. C. F. Phillips has been carrying on a one-sided campaign for over a week, but now has opposition. There is now expected to be some excitement in the sophomore class.

He is also a member of Phi Delta Phi law fraternity and of the Platform club. Ammerman hails from St. Joseph, Mo. ANNOUNCE DATES FOR PROM COMMITTEE SET ANNUAL SENIOR FORMAL FOR FEB. 10.

BIG ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE

PLANS FORETELL SUPERIORITY OVER PREDECESSORS.

A Limitation of Eighty Has Been Set, These to Be Seniors, Juniors, and Alumni Possessing $3.

The time for the annual senior prom has been definitely set for Friday night, February 10th. Such an announcement was made yesterday by the committee chairman. The prom will be held in the Lincoln hotel.

The gala day for senior society has at last been declared. Its announcement is an incident of interest to all fourth year Nebraskans. If ever the senior prom has been a noteworthy event, it so promises to be this year. Judging from remarks regarding the committee preparations, the senior prom for 1911 will surpass in effulgence and splendor all previous and similar occasions. Beautiful decorations are being designed for this dance of the solons, both in the way of artistic programs and picturesque wall adornment, and a variety of new "stunts" have been conceived and coined by the management which bid fair to make the descriptive "Excelsior" applied by the committee, an epithet of permanence.

Many New Things.

As stated by the chairman of the prom, the committee are working with a view of making the senior formal of a new and different type than its predecessors. Arrangements are being made to this end, music of the highest class has been selected, and other smaller details have been cared for in order that the senior prom for the coming semester may be classed in the same scale as the junior prom of last year, only a higher species.

Various limitations have been established for the senior formal. In the first place, the attendance has been explicitly limited to seniors, juniors and alumni. Secondly, an unmovable limit of eighty couples marks the extent of the fortunate ticket purchasers. Other than these requirements, the dance will be limited to those possessing three dollars.

The date for the prom was very recently set, and committee arrangements are yet in their infancy. What may develop in the course of the next few weeks remains to be seen. If more extensive plans are made than those already adopted, the prom will without doubt live up to the present prophecies of the management.

The committee members are as follows: Master of ceremonies, Harold Coulter; committee, Walter Wise, Lynn Lloyd, J. E. Lawrence, G. Reed, Florence Dutton, Marion Whitmore, Fannie Beeler, Carl Roman, A. M. Oberfelder, F. Dinsmore.
