A NEW NEBRASKA SORORITY

EPSILON EPSILON EPSILON IS FORMALLY ESTABLISHED.

ALL CHARTER MEMBERS "MEDICS"

"TRI EPS" WILL BE SELECTED FROM MEDICAL COLLEGE.

Organization Formed as Local Chapter—National Affiliations Will Soon Be Made—Planned Before Holidays.

Epsilon Epsilon Epsilon has been installed into the University of Nebraska. This announcement was formally declared at the initial banquet given by the charter members of the organization at the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening.

University Medics.

Epsilon Epsilon Epsilon, popularly known as "Tri Eps," is a sorority composed of university medic girls. Its organization is primarily a result of the small number of girls in the university medical college. Heretofore these girls, although working in the same course and toward the same end, have been more or less unmixed in their interests; consequently a sorority has been formed with a view of making the medical work more pleasant and interesting for the members.

The Nebraska chapter of Epsilon Epsilon Epsilon has been organized independently of the national organization of this sorority. The local feature, however, is purely temporary, as the local girls contemplate securing a national chapter as soon as conditions will permit.

Founded Before Holidays.

The founding of this sorority is not exactly an extremely recent episode, as speculations regarding the presence of such an organization were made even previous to the Christmas holidays. These speculations were more or less accurate, as was later proved, although the definite establishment of the sorority as a university unit did not take place until Saturday at the introductory banquet. Around their first festive board, the eight charter members of the organization toasted to the welfare of their chapter and college as follows: "Looking Forward," Olga Stastny; "Looking Backward," Winefred Tucker; "Why We're Here," Rebanis Lister; "Non Ultra," Ruth Warner; "Choice of Profession," Maggie Potts; "Our Flower," Bessie Mason; "Our University," Hazel Gooden, and "Prophecy," Mildred Williams.

The initiation of the charter members occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Olga Stastny, 425 South Twelfth street.

Whether or not "Tri Eps" will maintain a chapter house has not been officially announced. They have made no advance in this regard and it is generally believed that for the present a chapter house will not be supported.

The junior hop will be held at the Lincoln next Friday. Now is the time to make your date. Tickets $1.25.
