ELECTIONS TOMORROW.

Seniors and Sophomores Will Decide on Class Officers.

Class elections still continue to be the issue among those politically inclined. Owing to the prominence and activity of the various candidates, more than the usual amount of enthusiasm has been stirred up.

Definite dates have been announced for the elections. The senior election comes off Thursday in Memorial hall. President Sears of the sophomore class announces that the sophomore election will be held Thursday at 11:30 in the Temple. Before the election of officers several important committee reports will be heard.

The junior and freshmen elections will probably be held Tuesday, February 14. Considerable campaigning has been done by some of the first year men in behalf of their favorite candidates, and the finish will be exciting.

The sophomores had announced their election to be held in Memorial hall, but changed the place of meeting to the Temple in order to accommodate the seniors.

Relay Men, Notice.

Sophomore try-outs for the relay team to represent the class in the indoor meet with the freshmen will be held Wednesday, Feb. 8, at noon, in the gymnasium. All men who expect to compete are requested to be on hand promptly at 12 o'clock.
