

Directory of Advertisers

The following merchants and business men of Lincoln are anxious to serve the University students. By placing their advertisements in the columns of the Daily Nebraskan they show that they want your trade. And you may be sure that the merchant who is willing to make a little effort to get your patronage is the one who is going to treat you honestly and considerately in attempting to keep it. So you—as well as the Nebraskan—will profit by trading with these people:

SENIOR FOOTBALL PICTURE.

The Fourth Year Victors to Have a Photograph for the Cornhusker. The senior football team will meet at Townsend's studio at 12:45 this noon to have a picture taken for the Cornhusker. All members of the team have been asked to be on time, as some of the men have other engagements.

EXPLOSION DISTURBS QUIET.

Shock Felt in Buildings on South Part of Campus. Some little excitement was caused in the buildings on the south part of the campus yesterday when the explosion occurred at Marriner's cleaning establishment. The shock was distinctly felt in University hall and the library building and several classes adjourned for a few minutes while the students looked at the fire which was shooting up from the building.

Y. W. C. A. ELECT OFFICERS.

Esther Warner to Head Organization During 1912. At the noon meeting of the university Y. W. C. A. held yesterday the officers for the year 1911 were elected. Those chosen were: President, Esther Warner, 1912; vice-president, Marjory Kunkel, 1912; secretary, Mary Holcombe, 1913; and treasurer, Merle Thomas, 1912. These young women will serve as officers for the remainder of this year and until the second semester of next year.

TAYLOR'S HEALTH IMPROVING.

Nebraska Professor Takes Work in Two of Europe's Leading Law Schools.

Professor J. Langworthy Taylor, head of the political economy department, who is spending the winter in Paris, has been attending a course of lecture in both L'Ecole de Droit and the Sorbonne, which seems to show that he is regaining his former vigor. He will probably return to the United States by midsummer to resume his work, which has been under the direction of Professor Virtue during his absence.

SECRETARY SWARTZ HERE.

Will Address Y. W. C. A. Noon Meeting Friday—Speaks to Men Sunday.

International secretary for the student volunteer movement, Phillip A. Swartz, will be in Lincoln the last of this week in the interest of his organization. He has had charge of the territory in which Nebraska is located for several years and has become well known to the students of the university.

While in Lincoln Mr. Swartz will have several engagements of importance to the students. At 10:50 a. m. Friday he will address the noon Y. W. C. A. meeting. Sunday morning at 9 o'clock he will address a men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms of the Temple. All day Saturday he will give his time to those desiring interviews.

trip on Lakes Lucerne, Geneva, Thun, Brienz and the Rhine; excursion to the island of Marken; coaching through the Shakespeare country.

Dr. Bass has arranged with the Baptist Young People's Touring club of England for his American party to join them from London to Switzerland, thus securing their special rates, which are several pounds less. Any of the party can remain two or three months longer if desired, without forfeiting return ticket. This party is not out to make money, therefore anyone wishing these cheap rates should write to Dr. L. R. Bass, Mexia, Texas.—Mexia Enterprise.

PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST.

Subject is International Arbitration—Open to Students in American Colleges.

The contest for the prize of $100 for the best essay on international arbitration by a student of any American college or university, offered annually by the Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration, will close March 15th. More than ordinary interest attaches to this prize because it is the gift of a student—Mr. Chester D. Pugsley of Peekskill, N. Y.—at present studying law at Harvard.

A similar prize last year brought out seventy-five essays from colleges in all parts of the country and was won by George Knowles Gardner of Worcester, Mass., a Harvard sophomore. In 1908-9 the prize went to L. E. Bobbitt of Baltimore, then a sophomore in Johns Hopkins.

The judges will be Hon. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, United States commissioner of education; Hon. Joseph B. Moore, justice of the supreme court of Michigan, and Professor George Winfield Scott of Columbia university.

The award of the prize will be announced and the presentation made at the seventeenth annual meeting of the Lake Mohonk Conference, May 24-26, to which meeting the winner will be invited. Essays are not to exceed 5,000 words (3,000 is suggested as desirable) and must be delivered not later than March 15th to H. C. Phillips, Mohonk Lake, N. Y., from whom full information and references may be obtained.

NEW STATE FARM.

House Passes Bill Appropriating $100,000 for Another Agricultural School.

Eastman's agricultural school bill was passed by the house yesterday. This bill appropriates $100,000 for another state farm to be located in the southwest portion of the state.

SENIORS.

Senior pins may be obtained at the University Book Store. The supply is limited and those desiring pins should see to it at once.
