FEAST OF FUN AND FROLIC

UNIVERSITY NIGHT PROGRAM WILL BE VERY HUMOROUS.

NOT UNDER ONE ORGANIZATION

ALL CLUBS AND SOCIETIES ARE TO HAVE A HAND.

Fraternity Minstrel Show, Glee Club, Farce Operation on Professor, "A Pair of Lunatics," by Dramatic Club.

Preparations for the big University Night have at last taken a definite form. It is scheduled to occur Friday night, February 17, in the Temple theater. The last clause is purely optional, however, and if the affair acquires greater proportions than are warranted at present, the place of its presentation will probably be changed to the Oliver.

A New Idea.

The idea of holding an all University Night, in which no association or organization should receive favorable discrimination, was conceived by a university student several months ago. At that time student interest was solicited and secured, and sufficient endorsement was obtained to guarantee at least one successful attempt. Since that time promoters of the University Night have become very enthusiastic over the prospects of making the event an annual feature of university entertainment. That such will be the case is now almost certain.

The University Night at Nebraska will be essentially the same as the university nights held at other institutions. In fact the success of such a form of entertainment at many of the large schools, such as Illinois, Wisconsin, West Point, was partially the cause of its recommendation to Nebraska; this recommendation primarily coming from the university Y. M. C. A. The Night, as now planned, however, is not under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A., Innocents, or any other particular phase of school activity, but will be directed by a committee appointed or selected from each organization represented, this committee to act as a whole.

The Program.

The program, partially prepared, for University Night is as follows:

Fraternity minstrel show, now expected to be the leading number of the bill, in which every fraternity in the school will be represented. This is under the surveillance of W. H. Coulter, Phi Gamma Delta. He promises some novel entertainment for the students that will rival the most delightful productions of Eddie Foy or Eva Tanquay. The Dramatic club is to present "A Pair of Lunatics," which is anticipated to be very appropriate to and harmonious with the general character of the evening. The literary societies, including the Palladian and Union, have not announced anything definite. The glee club will give a musical entertainment, probably of a more serious nature than the other acts. The Medical society is to present a farce operation of a "faculty" member. This is destined to be highly humorous and more gorgeous than gory. Because of certain conditions involved, this will undoubtedly be heartily appreciated. The military department is to be represented by some adroit "deciples" of

CHILDS MEETS THE ATHLETIC BOARD AT LUNCHEON YESTERDAY

Members of the athletic board had as their guest of honor at a luncheon at the Lindel hotel, when about twenty-five were present, yesterday noon C. C. Childs, who is a prominent candidate for the all-year coach at Nebraska. In fact, the purpose was to allow Mr. Childs to meet the members of the board and Chancellor Avery and become acquainted with the condition of affairs at the university.

Dean C. R. Richards acted as toastmaster and Chancellor Avery was the first speaker. Mr. Childs then told of his first impression of Lincoln and the university. He expressed himself as being pleased with the treatment accorded him by the authorities of the university during his stay, and explained the necessity of pure athletics. Professors Wolfe and Caldwell told of the early athletic history of the school, and Professor Barbour gave an interesting account of the games of old Rome.

Those present were then given a chance to meet Mr. Childs and talk with him personally. The latter was not disposed to say much concerning athletics and made no prophecies of either success or failure along that line. He made many friends.

While there is nothing official, this has been taken to mean that Mr. Childs is the choice of the board and will be recommended to the regents for the Nebraska coachship.

During the day the athletic situation at Nebraska was gone over in detail and the needs of the school along that line discussed. Mr. Childs will remain in Lincoln today and will return to Yale to take up his college work again the first of the week.

Indoor Meet.

Tonight the freshman and sophomore will settle their differences in the last contest between the two classes. Having won the Olympics, the first year men are confident that they will be able to repeat the trick again tonight. Those best acquainted with the line-up also favor them as the winners. The sophomores on the other hand believe the over-confidence of their opponents will be a decided advantage for them and it may result in a second year victory. In several of the events they have men entered who are some of the best in the school. After the two contesting teams have faced each other in the armory tonight it will be far more easy to tell the result. All members of both classes are being urged to get out and make a noise to cheer their men along.

Try-outs.

Try-outs for the Charter day meet will be held this afternoon in the gymnasium. Only six men can enter the finals in the meet, and those who do not appear in the preliminaries will not be allowed to compete. So far enough have signified their intentions of taking part so as to assure the success of the event, and the outlook is most encouraging to say the least.

UNIVERSITY DINNER CLUB.

Will Entertain Professor Titchener—Fossler and Richards Committee on Arrangements.

Cards are out inviting the members of the University Dinner club to the next meeting to be held Monday evening, February 13, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Lincoln hotel. Dr. E. B. Titchener of Cornell university, one of the leading psychologists of this country and this year's Sigma Xi orator at Nebraska, will be the guest of the evening.

All who are not sustaining members and who expect to attend, will pay Mr. Westermann the usual charge of 75 cents before noon of Monday, in order that plates may be reserved. Sustaining members who cannot attend are requested to give notice as soon as possible.

The whole affair is in charge of the committee on arrangements, Professor Fossler and Dean Richards. Professor Fossler is the presiding officer of the evening.

IN THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

NEBRASKA COSMOPOLITAN CLUB IS NOW AFFILIATED.

HAS ACCOMPLISHED MUCH GOOD

HELPS FOREIGN STUDENTS IN GETTING ACQUAINTED.

Twelve Countries Are Now Represented in Local Chapter—The Meetings Are Interesting and Instructive.

The Cosmopolitan club of the University of Nebraska has been admitted into the national organization, "Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs." The Nebraska chapter of the A. C. C. is composed of members who represent the countries of East India, Ireland, England, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Russia, France, Korea, Japan and the United States. The local chapter has been organized since May of last year, and has been doing great work among the foreign students in a social way since its beginning. The club holds its meetings twice a month in the Temple, where lectures are given by its members on the different countries, after which a social time is had.

Object.

The object of the Association of Cosmopolitan clubs is to unite and strengthen the existing chapters, to promote the organization of chapters in other colleges and universities, to cultivate the arts of peace, to establish strong international friendships, and to carry out the motto of the association, "Above all nations is humanity."

The universities and colleges represented in the national organization are: Wisconsin, Cornell, Michigan, Illinois, Purdue, Ohio State, Iowa State, Iowa, Missouri, Northwestern, Park college, Oberlin, Pennsylvania, Worcester, Syracuse, Ohio Wesleyan, Yale, Chicago, Leland Stanford, Harvard, Washington, Missouri School of Mines, and Nebraska.

Publishes Magazine.

The A. C. C. publishes a monthly magazine, which is to keep the members informed as to the progress of the chapters and the A. C. C. movement. Interesting news about the student activities toward international friendship and peace the world over. Also a column of alumni news from members who have left their universities.

The Nebraska chapter, has now about twenty-five members, and is increasing at a rapid rate. By the time the year is over the club will number close to fifty. In Nebraska there are a great many foreign born students who are almost isolated because they do not mix with the Americans in their social activities. The club is getting ahold of these young men and women and helping them into the social life. The foreign born students have complete charge of the organization and its workings. They are enthusiastic in the work and are endeavoring to build up a larger organization. The club promises to be the biggest and strongest society in the school.

Officers of the Club.

The officers are: President, J. F. Krueger of East India; secretary, E. Berger of France; treasurer, John Boyce of Ireland; editor, Theodore Krueger of East India; business manager, H. H. Wiebe of Denmark.

the tactics and science in a novel "take-off" on "things in general." This will resemble a similar "analogy" made last year.

ATTRACTIVE VESPER SERVICE.

Dean Bessey Presides—Attendance Not Up to Standard.

Although only a small number of students attended the vesper service yesterday at 5 o'clock in Memorial hall, those who were present enjoyed one of the best of the series of Friday afternoon meetings. The university chorus was assisted by Edward J. Walt, violinist, and Lillian Elche, cellist. Dean C. E. Bessey presided.

These Friday afternoon vesper services are very delightful, coming just at the close of the college week, and for those who attend it is a pleasing change. The booklet, which has been printed for use in these services, contains eight forms in all and a dozen hymns. It was specially prepared by a faculty committee, of which Dean Bessey was the chairman.

The program yesterday afternoon was as follows:

Prelude—Symphony from Mendelssohn—Strings and organ.
 Hymn—Love Divine, All Love Excelling.
 Opening sentences, in unison.
 Gloria Patri.
 Duet—"Angels of Jesus."
 Responsive readings.
 Tebestraeume, Dreams of Love, by Franz Liszt—Strings and organ.
 Prayer and response.
 Evening song.
 Benediction.
