DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING?

Did it ever occur to you that you might know something that would be news to other people? While the Nebraskan staff tries to get in all of the news and find out everything that happens about the campus, the day is too long and the university too large for some one to be present at every little thing which occurs. The men who work on the paper have their studies to take care of as well as other students. Above is published a list of reporters. Get acquainted izenship; to be men of character. It all is so strange.

For the one man who did more than any other in moulding the destinies of our country, for him who was our first great organizer, for him who was our first general and president, for him who took a few scattered colonists and led them to victory against the trained armies of Europe and established a nation destined to be the greatest of all time, for him, we who receive the reward of his labors can not raise a single flag. If we intend to make greatness and nobleness the standard of our institution, we may search the past in vain for a better example than Washington. One has said, "No nobler figure ever graced the forefront of a nation's history." Pagan Japan and other foreign countries honor him. Perhaps the University of Nebraska does too, but it has not shown its appreciation.

The Kansan says that Missouri has been put out of the race for the Missouri Valley championship. Kansas should not forget that she has two games with the Cornhuskers and may be put on the toboggan herself.

Iowa students insist that their institution should drop out of the Missouri Valley conference. This should not cause any excitement among the other Valley teams. The withdrawal of Iowa should rather be hailed with delight. Although her prowess on the athletic field has never been terrifying in the least, her mightiness in the council chamber has been felt. It was Iowa who insisted on many of the by-laws that have been more detrimental than beneficial. She has made the rules of the Missouri Valley conference conform to those of the Chicago conference in order that she might belong to both. Trying to serve both masters she has found herself in a bad plight and now must choose one or the other. Let "Baby" Iowa go and we will be rid of that nursing job.

A course in practical lumbering will be given at Yale this semester.

with them. If you know of something that would be of interest tell one of these men about it. Remember that if you know of one thing that has happened today and it does not appear in the Nebraskan tomorrow it is your fault. Come through and help us get all the news.

HOW PATRIOTIC!

Displayed in one of the west basement windows of the Administration building, two lonely little flags were the sole demonstrations of the patriotism of Nebraska. Not a picture of the man whose birth the twenty-second of February is set aside to commemorate was to be seen anywhere. The lazy ropes rotted by many days of disuse were the only ornaments of the naked flag poles. Students strolled along to their classes in the same leisure-like manner. Not one seemed to realize that Wednesday was a holiday.

The time allotted to the school year may be too short to dismiss classes for the day. That is all right. It is no serious reason for complaint. But it does seem that at least one flag could be raised above one of the buildings. Every day some one is urging us to strive for a noble aim in life.
We are extolled to be great and to do great things; to strive for the upbuilding of the nation and of its cit-
