THE TRACK COACH.

Nebraska has had her share of experience resulting from delay in the choice of coaches. The outcome of the basketball season shows that if the team had been organized and training begun a little earlier, the Cornhuskers would have had a good chance for the Missouri Valley title. Our teams are much stronger at the end of the season than at the beginning as compared with our rivals.

The weather is getting warmer and it will soon be time to begin training.

share. It is up to the athletic board to do its part and choose a coach at the earliest possible moment. Remember—Nebraska must win the conference meet this spring.

GET BUSY.

Baseball men should get busy. It is almost the middle of March and organizations should be perfected before the time for the games arrives. If the intramural leagues are organized now there will be that much off our hands, and when it comes time to play ball, we can play ball. Otherwise much valuable time may be spent in wrangling over immaterial matters. The committee in charge has called upon the students for help and suggestions. Those interested in the game and especially those who intend to take part should offer their assistance at once.

Although no intercollegiate games will be played by Nebraska, a series of contests could be arranged which would prove almost as interesting and exciting. It is highly probable that the rules of the conference will be modified at no distant date so that Nebraska can again send forth a nine. The sport should be kept alive as much as is possible under the circumstances so that if intercollegiate baseball is revived, interest will not be entirely lacking.

THE FORUM.

An editorial in last Thursday's Nebraskan has caused some comment among the "masses" of the university. It would seem that the writer of the editorial took exception to the increasing number of fraternities in our midst.

There are two points upon which his stand may be questioned. First, as to the "personnel" of fraternities, we cannot see the evil of a greater number of fraternities. Why will there be a "state of circumstances" which is hardly desirable created? Is the material for fraternities at Nebraska so scarce that only a few hundred can be chosen from four thousand? It seems possible to add

It is impossible for the men to go ahead and work of their own accord without any direction. The track coach should be chosen at once so that he can begin to get the men interested before time for actual work. Nebraska has more promising material for a championship team than last year. The old men who are back in school are anxious to have a winning team and are willing to do their several more organizations without perceptibly lowering "the standard of excellence."

Second, why is it "not desirable to have every man in the school a member of some fraternity"? If it is good for a few, why not for all? Is it necessary for a definite line always to be seen between Greeks and "barbs"? The "barbs" are wondering how badly they are injuring the "per-
