

Directory of Advertisers

The following merchants and business men of Lincoln are anxious to serve the University students. By placing their advertisements in the columns of the Daily Nebraskan they show that they want your trade. And you may be sure that the merchant who is willing to make a little effort to get your patronage is the one who is going to treat you honestly and considerately in attempting to keep it. So you—as well as the Nebraskan—will profit by trading with these people:

DARK HORSE MAY WIN

RESULTS OF HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT ARE IN DOUBT.

Arrangements are now complete for the big basketball tournament which will decide the high school championship of Nebraska. The schools that have entered are all confident of making a good showing at the least and several are sure that they will carry off the trophy. But to pick the winner at this early day is almost impossible, as many of the teams have not met each other, and means for a judgment by comparison of scores are scanty.

The Lincoln team has been winning for the past few years and many favor them as the victors. Omaha is reported to be stronger than last year and intends to make a hard fight for the title. Some of the smaller schools are not far behind and it would not be surprising if the tourney went to a dark horse.

Season tickets will not be good for the tournament, and a charge of 25 cents will be made for each game. As a large number of the university students have expressed a desire to attend the most of the games, the athletic board has decided to make a special rate. Tickets which will admit to all the contests may be secured for 50 cents, the general admission charge for two games. These tickets are now on sale at the Co-op and University book stores.

MITCHELL-TROYER WEDDING.

University Alumni Make Matrimonial Ventures.

D. C. Mitchell and Miss Nina Troyer were married last night at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock. About 300 friends were present. Mr. Mitchell graduated from the university last year and is now director of athletics at the Minnesota school of agriculture. Mrs. Mitchell is ex-'13 and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. The maid of honor was Miss Ethel Troyer and Claude Mitchell acted as best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Louise Barr, Grace Bennett, Helen Dinsmore and Marguerite Klinker. The ushers were members of the groom's fraternity. The Alpha Tau Omega and Alpha Omicron Pi attended in bodies.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home at St. Paul, Minn., next Monday.

A second wedding of interest in university circles was that of Miss Gertrude Waldman of Lincoln and Earl S. Carpenter of Roosevelt, Ariz., which took place Tuesday, February 23, at the First Methodist church in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. Carpenter is a former North Platte boy and a graduate of the Nebraska state university with the class of 1908. He is now an electrical engineer in the employ of the United States government and stationed at Roosevelt, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will be at home at Roosevelt after March 15, and will make the journey from Phoenix to their new home via the stage route.

INTERCLASS DEBATE TONIGHT.

Freshmen Meet Sophomores in Initial Contest of the Series.

Interest increases in the interclass debates as the time for the contest approaches. The try-outs were more closely contested this year than ever before and brought out more debaters. There has not only been quantity of material but quality as well, and when the class teams meet no one will have a walk-away. Preparation has been carried on in a strenuous manner for the past week. It has required a great deal of labor to search out material and prepare the debaters.

The freshmen meet the sophomores tonight in U106 for the initial contest. The juniors and seniors debate Thursday evening in the same room. The judges who will decide the fate of the lower classes are Dean W. G. Hastings, Prof. G. O. Virtue and Prof. G. A. Stephens.

OLD GRADUATE PAYS VISIT.

South Dakota Legislator Was Editor of Hesperian 25 Years Ago.

Hon. A. H. Bigelow, '87, who is now city superintendent of schools at Lead, S. D., stopped over in the city a while yesterday on his way home. He has been attending the sessions of the South Dakota legislature, of which he is a member. Mr. Bigelow was editor of the Hesperian about twenty-five years ago. He stated that seven of the teachers in his schools were Nebraskans.
