WOMEN OF COLORADO ARE MUCH MALIGNED

DECLARES MRS. H. L. GRENFELL IN CONVOCATION SPEECH.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS

Home Has Felt No Evil Effects, and Conditions in State Have Been Benefited.

Memorial hall was well filled yesterday morning when Mrs. Helen Loring Grenfell spoke on conditions concerning woman's suffrage in Colorado. Mrs. Raymond played a selection on the pipe organ and was forced to respond to an encore. Mrs. Raymond's music is one of the things that makes such convocations a success.

Mrs. Grenfell stated that the women of Colorado were much maligned. They have been said to be much different from other women, who were not allowed to vote, and had been looked upon as something to be abhorred. She said she could see no difference between the women of Colorado and the women of other states. The conditions in Colorado have been much misrepresented. So many people go there to investigate conditions and stay but a few hours or a few days and then attempt to pass judgment. It was said that all the governors who have held office since woman suffrage began in the state, with one exception have favored it, and nearly all the judges and other prominent people of the state are for it.

Eighteen Years of Equal Suffrage.

Women have voted in Colorado for eighteen years. After a seven years' trial it was made a part of the state constitution and now it is hardly possible that it could be withdrawn even if the men so desired. The men as a whole will average just as good and as virtuous as the women. Mrs. Grenfell thought that while conditions were not heavenly in Colorado now, they were better than when women first began to vote.

The speaker thought equal suffrage had no bad effect on the home life of the women. The home is held just as dear as ever. A number of bills which woman influence has passed were mentioned, a majority of them affecting women and children. She thought the woman's way of lobbying, quietly exerting her influence for good bills, was much better than the majority of the paid masculine lobbyists. Mrs. Grenfell wanted to know if the women were not interested in the laws. There are a large class of women supporting themselves and these surely had a right to voice their sentiments.

Objections Answered.

The objection that women have to mix with a rough element at the polls was met by saying that the women vote in their own immediate neighborhood and only have to mingle with those who live around them. Mrs. Grenfell said the women were not great office seekers. There have been fourteen female members of the legislature, four at the present time, since equal suffrage began. There has always been a woman in the office of state superintendent and many smaller positions are held by them. They have always been true to their trust. The speaker closed by saying that equal suffrage was inevitable and only a question of time till it came in in every state.

After her talk Mrs. Grenfell answered questions for all those who desired information.

SENIORS VICTORIOUS AND WILL MEET SOPHOMORES IN FINAL CONTEST.

The seniors won the interclass debate from the juniors yesterday afternoon by a two to one decision. One of the judges said it was the closest of debates he had ever had to decide upon. The balance wavered back and forth, but the seniors came back strong on rebuttal and won. Professor Maxey presided and C. L. Rein acted as timekeeper.

The senior team, composed of J. L. Lawrence, A. M. Hare and W. T. Wolvinton, had the affirmative of the equal suffrage question, while the negative was upheld by D. M. Rogers, T. J. Hargreave and W. L. Bates for the juniors. The negative tried to prove that the women did not want to vote, that it was not intended by nature that they should vote and that equal suffrage was a failure. The affirmative held that it was the woman's right to vote, that where tried equal suffrage was a success, and that in Nebraska at the present time the men are failing in part to run a clean government.

The individual debating of the juniors was their strong point, and in direct argument seemed better than their opponents man for man. Mr. Hargreave has not appeared in debate before this time and made a credible showing.

The senior team will debate the sophomores on Phi Beta Kappa day.

LAWS TO HAVE BIG BARBECUE

PLAN ORIGINATES IN FACULTY AND RECEIVES SUPPORTS OF STUDENTS.

Yesterday morning a plan which originated with the faculty for the holding of a barbecue in the spring was laid before the two upper classes of the law school. Both the seniors and juniors were very enthusiastic and offered their support at once. The proposition will be submitted to the freshmen this morning, and it is understood that they are anxious to aid in the undertaking.

A committee consisting of nine members, three from each class, will have charge of the arrangements with power to appoint sub-committees. The place has not yet been decided upon, but it is likely that Capital Beach will be selected. A whole animal will be roasted for the dinner, and other good things on the side will not be lacking. Baseball games, field sports and boat racing will serve to amuse for part of the day. In addition it is planned to have several of the most noted speakers in the country present to make addresses.

Last spring the laws designed a holiday and were going to steal away on March 17, but after being requested by Dean Hastings to give up the "sneak day," abandoned the trip to Crete. The faculty has now come forward with a plan of its own for one day that can be spent in a good time and one on which the alumni of the college and the undergraduates may have a chance to get acquainted with each other.

PHILLIPS MEMORIAL SERVICES

PART OF VESPER PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN TO HONOR MEMORY OF PROFESSOR.

Instead of the regular vesper service tonight, a memorial service for the late Professor Phillips will be held. The program, which includes most of the regular service, is as follows:

- Prelude—Organ.
- Hymn—page 17.
- Opening sentences.
- Gloria.
- Anthem by University Chorus.
- Remarks by Chancellor Avery.
- Remarks by Dean Burnett.
- Reading of messages by J. S. Boyce.
- Remarks by Dean Bessey.
- Prayer.
- Response.
- Evening song.
- Ascription.

J. S. Boyce, who will read the messages from prominent foresters and botanists, is a forestry senior. The forestry students will attend the services in a body, and the basketball games will be stopped at 4:30, in case they are not over.

BULLETINS FROM ABROAD.

Zoological Department Receives Reports of Foreign Societies.

The zoological department recently received several valuable bulletins from abroad. One came from Japan, being the records of the Tokyo Zoological society. Two others are records and memoirs from the India Zoological society. All the collections were secured by means of exchange, the department sending out copies of the reports of the Nebraska society. Another set of records will shortly be received from the Royal Zoological society of Berlin. By this plan the department is rapidly building up its library.

Senior Class Play.

Try-outs for the senior class play have been postponed from Monday till Tuesday afternoon. All desiring to participate should register themselves or by proxy between 2 and 5 p. m. in U106. This is to enable the committee to make a schedule of try-outs.

BASKETBALL TOURNEY GOING AT FULL SPEED

LINCOLN AND OMAHA BOTH WIN BY BIG SCORES.

TEN TEAMS ARE ELIMINATED

Games Begin at 2:30 This Afternoon and Stop at 4:30 for the Memorial Service.

The first round of the state high school basketball tournament was played yesterday afternoon and last night and as a result ten teams dropped out from further competition. Gothenberg did not show up and the game was forfeited to Clarks. All the other games were played as scheduled.

Afternoon Games.

Lincoln won the first game from Tecumseh by a score of 40 to 19. The Tecumseh boys were suffering from stage fright in the first half, but in the second came back and held their opponents even. The line-up was as follows: Lincoln—Hartman, Ager, Eaton, forwards; Hugg, center; C. Mann, Hager, Cameron, guards. Tecumseh—Peek, Wagner, forwards; Gronan, center; K. Stewart, R. Stewart, guards. Clevinger was referee and Field umpire.

Omaha defeated Stromsburg 58 to 15. Omaha excelled in team work, in just what Stromsburg was lacking. The line-up: Omaha—Rector, Baumann, forwards; Carson, center; Burkenrod, Crocker, guards. Stromsburg—Ericson, Faulk, forwards; Darlson, center; Lindberg, Lund, guards. Brannon, referee; Pinneo, umpire.

Aurora won from Falls City in a slow game. Aurora presented a team of six-footers, and they were pretty successful in tossing the ball in the basket. The score was 45 to 17. The line-up: Falls City—Norris, Hecht, forwards; Mason, center; Apel, Hutchins, guards. Aurora—McGee, Schofield, forwards; Harter, center; Norden, Burr, guards.

Night Games.

The night games were on the whole better than those preceding. Some good playing was seen, and while most of the games were rather one-sided, there was a good deal of excitement manifested by the spectators. A large crowd was out and each team had some rooters present.

Wilber defeated Cedar Rapids in the first contest by a score of 41 to 29. Cedar Rapids surprised everyone by their excellent showing in the first half, but tired later. Prucha was Wilber's star. He is one of the fastest men in the meet and is perhaps the best long distance goal thrower on the floor.

York and University-Place played a very exciting game, which was won by the former 45 to 40. University Place made a grand spurt at the close of the game, but could not quite overcome York's lead. Wiley, York's captain, was a star.

Schuyler won a slow game from the Temple High team by a score of 40 to 11. Temple High could not solve the visitors' team work and were unable to stop their opponents' scoring.
