

PREPARE FOR BARBECUE

MAY 10 IS SET AS DAY FOR THE HOLIDAY AND REUNION OF LAW COLLEGE.

Those in charge of the law barbecue are working hard and are able to announce that the big feed will be held at Capital Beach May 10. On this day the law college will lay aside all its work and spend the entire time in pleasure. Not only is it to be a banquet for the law college itself but a great reunion as well. All who are now students or members of the faculty or ever have been are invited to attend. In addition the judges of the supreme court, the district court and the county court, and the regents of the university are asked to be present. A large number of alumni are expected.

The committee in charge of the barbecue is composed of the following: Faculty members—Hastings, Conana, Robbins; seniors—Collins, Weaver, Wilson; juniors—Hawley, Powell, Jones; freshmen—Russell, Raymond, Rodman. This committee has power to appoint sub-committees and has announced the following to take charge of all publication matters and to see to the invitations: Hawley (chairman), Lawrence, Switzer, Dobbs and Cotner. Other committees will be given out in a few days.

ARRANGING ENTERTAINMENT.

Pan-Hellenic Banquet to Be Held April 19 or 20.

Although nothing definite has been decided, the Pan-Hellenic banquet will be held on either April 19 or 20. The members of the council favor one of these two dates, but so far have not agreed on which it will take place. The program committee is endeavoring to get up an evening's en-

GOOD TASTE

Is more essential to a good dresser than a big outlay of money.

There was a time when you could not get a good, stylish suit of clothes without paying an enormous price, and it had to be made to order. Things are different now; you can come to this store and buy just as fine a suit as you want at a very reasonable price.

Suits and Overcoats that are perfectly tailored, that fit, that are every thread all wool and that we guarantee to satisfy you in every way.

tertainment that will not be rivaled by anything of its kind that has ever happened at the university. Some of the most prominent speakers in the United States have been written to, several of whom it is believed will accept.

This year the banquet is to be given in honor of the board of regents. Last year the chancellor was the distinguished guest.

AMES AND IOWA MAY UNITE.

Believed Election of Dr. Bowman a Step in that Direction.

Dr. Bowman, who succeeds Dr. MacLean as president of the University of Iowa, is a young man thirty-three years of age. He has had but little administrative experience. Explanation as to the board's choice of so young a man is that Dr. Bowman as secretary of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching, has become more or less familiar with the problems in connection with rival institutions maintained by a single state. It may even be presumed from this that Ames and Iowa state universities will eventually be unified. At least many have expressed the opinion that it may be brought about.
